

ROOSEVELT TO LEAD BATTLE IN CHICAGO

HEADS FORCES PROGRESSIVES

Teddy to Appear Personally on Floor of National Convention in Fight Over Contested Delegations—Consults With Illinois Politicians

McCormick Denies That He Was Compelled to Arrange Pilgrimage to Keep Delegates Loyal.

NEW YORK, May 31.—That Theodore Roosevelt will go to Chicago personally to lead the fight on the floor for his nomination by the Republican national convention is the belief here today of well posted politicians.

MR. ROOSEVELT'S SNEEZE.

Theodore Roosevelt has no use for cigarettes. The scent of tobacco irritates him. Coming out of a New York hotel the other day a blast from a young man's cigarette filled his face and—our photographer was there to snap the result.

DOOMED WOMAN SHUDDERS AT SIGHT OF DEATH CHAIR

BOSTON, May 31.—For the first time since her conviction with her "affinity" Harry Marshall of the murder of her husband, Mrs. Lena Cusumano today showed signs of breaking down.

ATTEMPT TO END STRIKE A FAILURE

LONDON, May 31.—Attempts to settle the strike of transport workers, affecting more than 100,000 men, at today's joint conference here, ended in dismal failure because none of the big employers attended the conference.

REFUGES DEMANDING AMERICAN INTERVENTION

LOS ANGELES, Cal., May 31.—Just before the United States Transport Buford docked at San Pedro, 150 of her passengers gathered and unanimously adopted a resolution calling on congress to cause intervention in Mexico, according to the declaration today of dozens of the refugees, who are here.

CUBAN REVOLT POLITICAL PLOT TO AID GOMEZ

Dilatory Tactics of Government Lend Color to Belief That President Fostered Rebellion to Enhance His Own Standing.

United States Prepares for Intervention on News of Fresh Destruction of Property Owned by Americans.

HAVANA, May 31.—Dilatory tactics on the part of the government troops in attacking the negro revolutionists today lent color to a growing belief that President Gomez deliberately fostered the rebellion to enhance his own political standing.

Except for yesterday's activities at Daiquiri, the rebels have remained comparatively quiet. President Gomez' protest against the landing of marines in Cuba has met with popular favor.

Politicians here say that a group of Havana newspaper correspondents who have boasted that they will force American intervention are responsible for the circulation of many unreliable reports.

Many of the leading merchants of Havana profess to believe that if President Gomez is able to put the United States to the great expense of sending marines here, without creating sufficient ground for landing the troops, he probably will be re-elected.

WASHINGTON, May 31.—Renewed preparations for intervention by the United States government in Cuba, are expected here, as the result of advices received today that the rebels have destroyed the property of the Spanish-American Iron company at Daiquiri, Santa Clara province. This is considered one of the most serious acts yet of the rebels.

The United States government is expected to send marines everywhere in Cuba where American property is menaced.

There is a strong possibility that a battleship fleet, with 2,000 men on board, will go to Guantanamo.

ARIZONA GIVES 5 TO CLARK, 1 FOR WILSON

PHOENIX, Ariz., May 31.—Five enthusiastic Clark delegates and one who favors Woodrow Wilson will go to the democratic convention at Baltimore from Arizona.

E. A. Sawyer of Winslow, who was unopposed in his district, declares he has no presidential preference, but he is believed to be slightly inclined toward Wilson.

According to returns already certified Clark will have a commanding lead in the presidential preference vote and a Clark national committeeman will be named.

The republican state convention will be held at Tucson June 3.

FRANKLIN SAYS DARROW GAVE $4000 FOR BRIBERY

LOS ANGELES, Cal., May 31.—Sworn testimony that Clarence Darrow, formerly chief counsel for the McNamara case, gave him $4,000 for the specific purpose of bribing George N. Lockwood, a prospective juror in the McNamara case, was given by Bert H. Franklin, formerly a detective in the employ of the McNamara defense in the Darrow bribery trial today.

BERT FRANKLIN. ***

Job Harriman was in the court room, sitting at Darrow's side during this testimony. The story of Franklin apparently had little effect upon either. Neither Darrow nor Harriman cringed under Franklin's testimony.

Earl Rogers, chief counsel for Darrow, caused a sensation when he declared in open court that Franklin had learned something prepared for him by the prosecution and that his testimony was merely a recitation.

MILDRED CLEMENS BADLY INJURED IN AUTO WRECK

SAN MATEO, Cal., May 31.—Miss Mildred Clemens of Portland, Ore., who has written several novels, is suffering from serious injuries here today as a result of her action in steering her automobile into a telegraph pole to save the life of her five year old niece, who ran in front of the machine. She was flung violently to the roadway. Miss Clemens is 22 years of age.

Miss Clemens is well known in Medford where she conducted a contest for the Portland Journal and was afterwards employed by the Medford Tribune in the summer of 1909.

Miss Clemens had been attending college at Berkeley last fall and won newspaper mention by being victimized out of her earnings by some swindler who induced her to purchase worthless get-rich-quick securities.

STOCKS RAISE AND FALL ON WALL STREET

NEW YORK, May 31.—The stock market developed considerable strength today shortly after the opening. Coal stocks were prominent and most of the leaders were fractionally higher. Canadian Pacific rose to a new high record. Later selling wiped all earlier gains and United States Steel, Reading, Lehigh Valley, Union Pacific, Rock Island and American Can were off 1 to 2 points.

TROUTDALE, Or., May 30.—Although 70 years old, Andrew Tolliver today is recovering from an injury received when he fell from a wagon, fracturing the spinal vertebrae about four inches below the base of the skull.

OROZCO WARNED BY UNCLE SAM

WASHINGTON, May 31.—Warning that he personally will pay the price to the United States if he carries out his threat to withdraw protection from Americans in the revolutionary belt was sent to General Pascual Orozco, commander-in-chief of the Mexican rebels, today by Secretary of State Knox, through United States Consul Letcher at Chihuahua.

This ultimatum is regarded here as meaning that the rebel chieftain will be considered a fugitive from American justice if the rebels harm any American. President Taft and other officials fear that Americans in northern Mexico will be placed in danger if Orozco relaxes discipline. The members of the cabinet discussed the situation thoroughly, today, and Secretary Knox's ultimatum followed.

FISHWAY TO BE COMPLETE JUNE 10

The new fishway at the Ament dam which is expected to solve for all time the trouble experienced in the past at the dam will be completed June 10, according to Sam L. Sandry who is installing it. The work has been delayed by high water in the Rogue.

LACKAWANNA OFFICIALS ABSOLVE ARCHBALD

H. Truesdale and Vice President Loomis of the Lackawanna, before the house judiciary committee, which is investigating the charges against Archbald. Both officials absolved Archbald of any improper overtures in connection with the culm negotiations.

SEATTLE AUTOMOBILE THIEF SENT BACK FROM BAY CITY

SAN FRANCISCO, May 31.—Victor Cornell, who raced down the coast from Seattle to San Francisco in less than 10 days in a stolen car, was today ordered by Governor Johnson to be sent back to stand trial upon requisition from the governor of Washington. He will return in custody of Detective William B. Kent, who brought the papers to Sacramento for signature.

ALL DAYTON HONORS WRIGHT AT FUNERAL

DAYTON, Ohio, May 31.—All industries in Dayton will be suspended tomorrow afternoon during the funeral of the late Wilbur Wright, the celebrated inventor, according to a proclamation issued today by the mayor.

SHORT DAY IS SOUGHT BY ALL ENGLISH TRADES

LONDON, May 31.—An eight-hour day for all trades in the British Isles is the ambitious scheme upon which the forces of organized labor today are concentrating their efforts.

Directing the movement is the parliamentary committee of the Trades Union congress and it has the support not only of the General Federation of Trades Unions, but also of the labor party. These bodies represent more than two million organized workmen and it is claimed that at least double that number of unorganized workers will be enlisted in the agitation. In parliament the movement will be pushed by the labor party which now has an eight hour day bill in course of preparation. This is to be introduced shortly and efforts will be made to compel the government to take it up before the adjournment of the present session.
