

MEDFORD MAKES A GREAT FINISH AND GRABS GAME

The fans say it was the best game of baseball seen on the local grounds since the days when Medford occasionally beat Jud Purnell out by 1-0 scores. And from a fan standpoint the boys are right.

Whoop-pee-e-e! But we were some excited. Even Withington scored the last two innings after the winning run came in. It wasn't because Medford won particularly but because they kept their hands out of the discard and kept on raising. And—but it'll take a whole paragraph to get this down. Listen:

Medford fans are with the home team!

No what'd you think that? For the first time in many years the grand stand got into its feet for the purpose of rooting the boys to victory. And that victory was snatched out of a blue sky when there wasn't any blue sky a-tall. Medford won, 5 to 4.

Burgess opened for Medford, but it was his off day. With an arm which delivers the goods when it is right, the fans expected him to hold them down but the work of last Sunday was his undoing. The arm was lame and four runs were chalked up before he was pulled in the third. He was succeeded by Ike Butler, an old Coast leaguer, who has been lately coaching batteries for Tacoma, and then Grants Pass failed to score again. They landed on Mr. Butler's offerings in fair shape but they all fell into a well. Antle and Gill especially distinguished themselves with long runs and clever catches and Old Plug nailed some hard ones.

But in the meantime one Hopkins for Grants Pass was doing some twirling on his own account. He pitched good ball before the fireworks opened in the eighth. Two men only Medford succeeded in getting on third base during the long seven innings.

Pug was the first to get to third, and thereby hangs a tale. As he walked up to the plate some fan urged him to "line 'er out." "Ah, shut up," bellowed Bob Dow, who has seen every game in the Rogue river valley since '51, "he hasn't got a hit in three years." Thereupon Pug drove her for two bags and Bob's rep as a prophet shrank 97 per cent. They Pug stole third but died.

There didn't seem to be very much doing until the last of the eighth. Then Medford got busy and clouted out a few. A few happy errors occurred and Medford sent two men over the plate. Mr. Hopkins took a look at the carnival balloon and thought it looked cool up in the blue, blue sky. So in the ninth he went up and found it blue all right.

There was pandemonium in the grand stand when the last half of the ninth arrived and three men got on, two down, when Johnny Wilkinson came to bat. John certainly was some anxious but the best he could do was put it down by second. Fumble. Three runs. Hooray. Medford wins, 5 to 4.

A few jottings on the back of an old envelope read today as follows:

Williams is the same old crabbler. Double plays—Hopkins to second after nabbing line drive by Antle. Some fast, too.

Antle picked up three long ones. Butler's knowledge of the game showed early. Caught one off first easily and one off second.

Pug pulled a dandy in the sixth. It was high and far but he was there. Renstrum caught one at second in the seventh. Great peg.

Medford's first chance to score in seventh when Renstrum popped to pitcher with two down.

Gill froze to a long drive after a beautiful run in the seventh and repeated the performance in the eighth. But here is the score:

MANY AT EXERCISES ON MEMORIAL DAY

More than two thousand local people attended the Memorial day exercises held at the city park Thursday afternoon and enjoyed one of the best programs of its kind ever rendered in Medford. Tribute was paid to the boys of '61 living and dead and the occasion was one long to be remembered.

The ceremonies at the park opened with a salute to the unknown dead. Aged veterans stood with uncovered heads while the band broke softly into the strains of "Nearer My God to Thee." Flowers were strewn over the grave. Prayer by Rev. W. P. Shields followed, which was followed by a sacred concert by the band of the Arnold Amusement company. Mrs. Foley followed with a reading, after which Rev. Eldridge, orator of the day, delivered his Memorial day address.

NORTHWEST WHEAT CROP IS IN GOOD SHAPE

PORTLAND, Ore., May 31.—The wheat crop of the northwest today is in excellent condition. The condition of winter wheat in Oregon is placed at 102, the greatest showing ever made by a cereal in the northwest. The condition of spring wheat in Oregon is placed at 100 per cent, or a perfect crop under normal conditions.

In Washington the spring wheat is rated at 99 per cent and the fall wheat at 100 per cent.

Winter wheat in Idaho is rated at 101. Spring wheat in Idaho now stands at 99.

AVIATOR CRASHES INTO GRAND STAND AT SEATTLE

SEATTLE, Wash., May 31.—While J. C. Liff Turpin, in a Wright aeroplane, was careening down field at the Meadows Thursday at a speed of fifty miles an hour an unknown man rushed across the track and would have been decapitated by the machine but for the quick action of the aviator in turning the prop upwards and toward the grandstand, which was crowded with people.

When it appeared Turpin would certainly dash into the midst of the people he checked his speed and lowered it so it struck the front tier of boxes. A number of people sitting in one of the boxes were hurt and the aeroplane coming to a halt at the same time dropped, falling on the heads of people standing in front of the grandstand.

The injured were gathered up and conveyed to the county hospital in automobiles. It appeared two were fatally hurt. One man died at the hospital. The other, Raymond Chapman, aged 10, sustained a fractured skull and is in a serious condition. The meet was declared off immediately after the accident.

The name of the dead man is Geo. Quinby, a civil engineer of Galesburg, Ill. Quinby's face was almost cut away by the propeller, and not until the body was identified by a friend who recognized a ring Quinby wore, that his name was known.

off Hopkins 4, off Burgess 1. Struck out, by Hopkins 8, by Burgess 1, by Butler 3. Wild pitches, Burgess. Passed balls, Renstrum, Balk, Hopkins. Double plays, Hopkins to Schmidt. Left on bases, Medford 4, Grants Pass 4. Stolen bases, Horton, Umpire, Brous.

CARDUI WORKED LIKE A CHARM

After Operation Failed to Help, Cardui Worked Like a Charm.

Jonesville, S. C.—"I suffered with womanly trouble," writes Mrs. J. S. Kendrick, in a letter from this place, "and at times, I could not bear to stand on my feet. The doctor said I would never be any better, and that I would have to have an operation, or I would have a cancer. I went to the hospital, and they operated on me, but I got no better. They said medicines would do me no good, and I thought I would have to die. At last I tried Cardui, and began to improve, so I continued using it. Now, I am well, and can do my own work. I don't feel any pains. Cardui worked like a charm."

There must be merit in this purely vegetable, tonic remedy, for women—Cardui—for it has been in successful use for more than 50 years, for the treatment of womanly weakness and disease.

Please try it, for your troubles. N. B.—Write for Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions, and 64-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent in plain wrapper, on request.

NEW THOUGHT MEETINGS Are Held in Moose Hall every Thursday at 3 p. m. Everybody invited.

MOORS BESEIGE MOROCCO CAPITAL

PARIS, May 31.—Fez, the capital of Morocco, is practically surrounded by Moors today, according to wireless advices received here from General Lyautey, French resident governor. Reinforcements of artillery are expected today but even when they arrive, says the general, his troops will be of insufficient strength decisively to repulse the Moors, although capable of holding the city against attack. The French have been under arms continuously for six days.

NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned will apply to the city council of the city of Medford, Oregon, at its next regular meeting on June 4th, 1912, for a license to sell spirituous, vinous and malt liquors in quantities less than a gallon, at their place of business on South Fir street, located at lots 10, 11 and 12, block 45, of the original townsite, in said city, for a period of six months.

RAU-MOHR CO. Date of first publication May 22, 1912.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Notice is hereby given that the County Court and County Commissioners of Jackson county, Oregon, will on the 4th day of June, 1912, at 10:30 a. m. at the courthouse at Jacksonville, Oregon, receive bids on a reinforced concrete or steel bridge over Bear creek in city of Medford, in said county and state.

Complete plans and specifications for same are on file in the office of the county clerk in the courthouse at Jacksonville.

A bond satisfactory to the County Court will be required from the successful bidder in the full amount of his bid as a guarantee of a faithful performance of the contract.

A certified check in 10 per cent of the amount of the bid must accompany each proposal.

A "proposal of surety" which is preliminary to filing bond in full amount of contract, must also be submitted to the County Court, Jackson county, Oregon, reserve the right to reject any or all bids.

The County Court and County Commissioners. Dated May 11th, 1912. J. R. NEIL, County Judge. JAMES OWENS, J. F. BROWN, Commissioners.

REIGN OF REASON NOW RESTORED

SAN FRANCISCO, May 31.—"Both sides have finally reached a basis of sanity and fair mindedness."

This was the announcement of Attorney General U. S. Webb, who is here today from San Diego, where he was sent by Governor Johnson to investigate the civic upheaval there.

"The citizens league is disbanded," continued Webb, "and I do not believe it will get together again. Peace has been established and will endure, I believe. The entire situation will be placed in the hands of a special grand jury, which is to be impaneled to hear these cases."

Special Train Service

Agent Rosenbaum has made all necessary arrangements for special train service as far north as Grants Pass and will make all local stops between here and Grants Pass. This is a great accommodation to the people living in the cities and they should avail themselves of this opportunity of seeing the greatest opera of the season.

The south bound train will also be held to accommodate the people of Phoenix, Talent and Ashland.

This will be the last time that Mizzi Hajos will appear in the west in her present part in the "Spring Maid." Numerous reservations are now being made by out of town folk and several theatre parties are being planned for this occasion.

The much praised Viennese operetta, "The Spring Maid," sweeps into the Medford theatre next Tuesday with its bevy of mischievous spring maids, wood nymphs and saucy story of romance to bring the first hearing of the Viennese melodies that are reported to haunt the mind and whistling lips for long hearing.

Instead of a single theme of music found in many light operas of the present school, "The Spring Maid" has been given four distinct waltz motifs by the composer, Heinrich Reinhardt, and "Day Dreams," "Two Little Love ees," "How I Love a Pretty Face" and "The Fountain Fay" melody vie for remembrance in the minds of an audience. There are also dashing hussar numbers and a fine musically beauty, but it is the waltz group that has made the great fascination of the opera, and their advance hearings prove they have been invested with the Viennese flavor that has made the Viennese waltz favored by all the world.
