EDEN PRECINCIT

Those who were in Medford Saturday to see the Public Market were: W. S. Stancliff, Lloyd Colver, Mr. and Mrs. C. Carey, Wm. Bendsley, Owen Dunlap, Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Hartley, J. E. Mast and Mr. and Mrs. John Graffes.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Curby of Talent, were in North Talent Wednesday.

J. E. Roberts and family of North Talent, were at Ashland Wednesday attending the funeral of Olie Hughes.

Mrs. A. B. Ferns of Fern Valley, was in Phoenix Wednesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Knights of Eagle Point, was visiting friends in Talent and vicinity the last of the week.

C. Carey is furnishing three thousand of his fine varieties of tomato plants to the experiment station in North Talent.

W. E. Anderson of North Phoenix, is on the sick list. Dr. Malmgren was called Monday.

Mrs. Mary McVeigh was over from North Talent Tuesday visiting Mrs. F. E. Purry in Phoenix.

Mrs. John Graffes has new potatoes and peas, raised in their own garden. Mrs. Graffes always has the earliest vegetables of anyone as their farm north of Phoenix is particularly free from early frosts.

A gloom was cast over the little city of Talent Wednesday as their fellow townsman and friend, C. W. Wolters, was borne away to Medford for burial. His kindly smiles, his hearty handshake, will never be forgotten. His uprightness as a business and fellow citizen are worthy examples for all.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Schmidt of West Medford, were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Dave Tweedwell, of Wagner Creek, Monday.

J. D. Henry of North Talent, was early at the Public Market Saturday with vegetables.

Bertie Stancliff of Phoenix, came near having a very serious accident Thursday afternoon while out driving with a couple of young ladies. One of the girls was driving and meeting an auto she pulled the horse into the machine. The auto driver managed to only catch one wheel of the buggy. Both girls jumped out leaving young Stancliff without the lines which had been thrown to the ground. The only thing the young man could do was to jump out too. The horse ran a short distance and collided with the wire fence, being badly cut. No one was hurt.

FAILURE TEMPTS CHILD OF EIGHT TO KILL SELF

RENO, Nev., June 1.—Disappointed because other boys sold more tickets to a school entertainment than he, Lawrence Fouts, aged 8, attempted suicide by drinking liquid used to remove dead flesh from the finger nails.

He said, "I can't be first, I don't want to live."

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett

The last time I wrote I simply mentioned the fact that a meeting was held here on Monday night and the preliminary steps were taken to have a grand old-fashioned celebration of the Fourth of July, and that a purse of $147.50 was subscribed. The next day S. B. Holmes, Dr. Holt and Mr. Vogall started to canvass the town and that night another meeting was held in the town hall and they reported that the amount had been swelled to $340. The money to be applied toward clearing out the tract of land that Mr. W. Hart Hamilton had donated to the town for park purposes, and to prepare the necessary stand, seats, etc., for the accommodation of those who wished to join with us in celebrating our great national holiday. The following committee was appointed to have charge of the arrangements and disbursement of the funds: Art Nichols, J. Frank Brown and Mr. Vocall, and Mr. F. M. Stewart was appointed secretary and Mr. J. V. McIntyre treasurer, and these five were empowered to appoint the sub-committees and to have full control of the management of the affairs of the celebration. That we will have a fine time is self-evident, as we think that we will have an ideal place, along the banks of our beautiful Little Butte creek, where we will have lovely shade, green grass and pure cold water. The committee proposes to spare no pains to make the first celebration since we were incorporated a grand success. There will be further notice of the plans given in the Eaglelets, and by posting bills on the telephone poles.

There was a company of twelve surveyors passed through here the first of the week for Butte Falls under the direction of the officers of the Pacific & Eastern Railway Co., but their destination and plans are as usual under their hats.

W. C. Daley of Lake Creek, candidate for county commissioner, was in town Tuesday, but he was not electing any, but says that if the people want him to serve, that he will do his best for them.

Mrs. Burke, a sister of Mrs. Chaney Nye, of Prospect, and a niece of Mrs. Nye's, Miss Brown, came in Tuesday evening to visit their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Florey.

Among the guests at the Sunny Side since I last wrote are L. C. Moore and Henry Thornton of Elk creek, A. S. Aiken of Prospect, T. B. Higgenbotham of Upper Rogue, Mr. and Mrs. Palouze and son Bobbie, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner and daughter Clara of Lake creek, Mr. Coss of Butte Falls, besides several strangers.

Mrs. M. L. Dally, Mrs. Fred Salter, Mrs. A. F. Florey and Mrs. Norman McQuoid took it into their wise heads to have memorial exercises here on Wednesday evening, and S. E. Spiker kindly tendered them the use of his opera house to be used for the occasion. With the assistance of a number of the youths and lasses to assist in securing flowers, ferns, etc., to decorate the stage, they had it all artistically arranged most beautifully with flags, trees, shrubbery, etc., and in addition to all that they secured the assistance of the following persons who took an active part on the program. The exercises opened by the audience singing "America;" prayer by Dr. W. W. T. Holt, recitation, "Bay Billie," by Corra Owings, address by Prof. P. H. Dally (the ladies had, as they supposed, secured Prof. B. F. Mulkey for the address, but just at the last moment he phoned that he could not come, so Prof. Dally was pressed in as a substitute.) Song, "Battle Hymn of the Republic," by the children; recitation, "Be-rett," by Miss Fern Dally; pantomime, "Star Spangled Banner," by Miss Lula Martin, Miss Mabel Taylor, Miss Marguerite Florey, Misses Lena and Maud Lewis, Miss Hazel Brown, and Miss Lenore Walker; recitation, "The Veterans," by Isaac Childreth; Lincoln's Gettysburg Address, by Carl Rinjer; reading, "The Power of Prayer," by Mrs. Norman McQuoid; recitation, "Our Dead Heroes," by Florence Lake; song, "Little Boy in Blue," by Miss Marguerite Betty; recitation, "The Little Green Tent," by Thelma Nichols; reading, "Music of the Rappahannock," by Mrs. M. L. Dally; recitation, "The Tribute Bearer," by Miss Ina Borden; quartette, "Tenting on the Old Camp Ground," which was beautifully illustrated on the stage by the literal fore. The opera house was filled and every one felt that they had been well repaid for their trouble and the audience was highly pleased. Our old townsman, J. J. Fryer, declared that we had just as good talent in Eagle Point as there was anywhere.

Ill., arrived in Medford Saturday, May 18, was met at the depot by relatives and visited in the city Sunday; left on the P. & E. Monday morning for Peyton, to visit her daughter and family for some time. Her eldest grandson, Earl Peyton, escorted her to their home on Rogue river.

R. B. Vaughn has just finished planting a nice piece of alfalfa, and the crops in this part of the mountains are looking fine after the rain.

Mrs. J. F. Ditsworth arrived home Saturday, May 25, from Medford, where she has been visiting her daughter, Miss La Lee Lyttle, and their relatives and friends. Mr. Ditsworth met her at Derby with the rig.

Miss Florence Ditsworth arrived home with her brother, Frank, from Medford last Saturday, where she has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Carl Richardson, and family and friends also since her school closed.

Baby's Voice

Every woman's heart responds to the charm and sweetness of a baby's voice, because nature intended her for motherhood. But even the loving nature of a mother shrinks from the ordeal of suffering and danger. Women who use Mother's Friend are saved much discomfort and their systems are in a healthy condition to meet the time with the least possible danger. Mother's Friend is recommended only for the relief and comfort of expectant mothers, and its many years of success, and the thousands of endorsements received from women who have used it are a guarantee of the benefit to be derived from its use. Mother's Friend allays nausea, prevents caking of the breasts, and in every way contributes to strong, healthy motherhood. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores.
