

SOCIETY

Hon. J. A. Westerlund left Thursday for a business trip to Chicago. He expects to be absent a month.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Guthrie are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a son April 25.

"Atehi," a comedienne of the eighteenth century, was cleverly acted Friday at the Medford opera house before a partially filled house by the eighth grade of the Washington school. The play was well put on. In addition to the little comedienne a little musical was staged.

The entertainment was opened by a clever parody on "Alexander Ragtime Band," "Teddy Roosevelt So Grand." Nellie Campbell took the solo part and acquitted herself in an excellent manner. The following number, "Sailors' Drill," introducing the "Midshipmate," was a clever little drill and song by sixteen girls. In "Atehi" Walter Norris, Jessie Brown, George Henselman, Ester Warner and Claire Seely distinguished themselves.
