CANDIDATE FOR COMMISSIONER IS

W. C. Daley, democratic candidate for county commissioner, who resides on Lake creek, is in a precarious condition as a result of an attack made upon him by Frank Ceol, an Italian, and his wife. Warrants were issued for the two and they are now said to be under arrest.

Daley had trouble with Cool over water rights in his neighborhood, matters coming to a climax when the two got into an altereation over a ditch. Cool is said to have struck Daley with a shovel knocking him down. At the same time Mrs. Ceol is said to have ent Daley with a hoe. It was some time before Daley was given medical assistance and he is now said to be critically ill.

Mr. Daley is a pioneer and one of the best known and most highly respected citizens of Jackson county. He made an enviable record as road supervisor in his district and was nominated in April for county commissioner.

SELLING VENISON COSTS $200 FINE

ROSEBURG, Ore., June 7. - Dr. E. V. Hoover, formerly mayor of Rose burg and candidate for the state legfollowing his conviction for selling venison. The trial attracted great attention, owing to Hoover's prominence. Tom Russell, who resides in the hills back of Riddle, was fined $50 on a charge of having venison in his possession. He was arrested on Sunday on information furnished by Deputy Game and Fish Warden Sam L. Sandry of Woodville.

COUNTY COURT TO AID FIRE PATROL

The county court at a special session Wednesday granted to the Jackson County Fire Patrol Association an appropriation of $500 per month for the months of July, August and September, with the provision that the money should not be spent for the hiring of fire patrolmen and that any amount remaining after the season was passed should be returned to the county. The original amount asked by the representatives of the association was $2000: This amount was to employ four additional patrolmen and to help to defray the general expenses.

With the amount appropriated the timber interests outside of the na tional forest will be protected by six teen patrolmen.

TENNIS SEASON

The tennis season of 1912 for the The tennis season of 1912 for the Rogue river valley opened Thursday, June 6, at Ashland. Grants Pass, Medford and Ashland were well represented, each town having several players present. The outlook for tennis was never so bright as at the present time. With the public opening of the Oakdale grounds, Saturday, June 8, there should be great interest shows.

The Southern Oregon Tennis assointion will meet the latter part of June to decide on the date for the tournament. Most of the clubs favor one week of tennis to the regular monthly meet that has been in vogue for the last thre years. Some of the clubs are in favor of holding the meet at Colestin, combining tennis with an outing in the mountains.

The results of the meet at Ashland were as follows: Men's Singles-Turnbo of Grants Pass beat Burns, Ashland; Engle of Ashland beat Anderson of Medford; Beeson of Medford beat Gardener of Talent.

Men's Doubles-Turnbo and Jester of Grants Pass beat Walker and Mc-Callan of Ashland; Johnson and Beeson of Medford beat Morse and Morse of Talent and won one set from Turnbo and Jesler of Grant
