FEAR ALASKA VOLCANOES WIPED OUT FISHING TOWNS

SEWARD, Alaska, June 12.—A cannery tender from Uyak, on the Shelikof Strait shore of Kodiak island, brought word today that the people there are safe but it is thought that seven fishing villages with a total population of about 200 on the Alaska peninsula in the immediate vicinity of Katmai volcano were destroyed by the eruption last Thursday.

The volcano has resumed its normal state and the atmosphere is clearing so the boats will be able to get into the stricken district with relief.

At Uyak the fall of ashes amounted to four inches. People there are suffering. This is one of the places on Kodiak island where it was feared the greatest damage was done.

JUNEAU, Alaska, June 11.—Gov. Clark received today a dispatch from Kodiak saying that Kodiak island is covered with 12 inches of ashes but that the ashes have stopped falling.

The message says the conditions there are terrible and that the people were taken off by the revenue cutter Manling. On some parts of the island according to the message the ashes are twenty feet deep.

Governor Clark has cabled to Washington asking $100,000 from congress for relief purposes.

Congressmen Attend National Convention

NEEDLES, Cal., June 12.—Six men are believed to have been drowned in the swollen Colorado river, according to telephone messages received here today from Old Fort Mojave.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—Thousands are hoped in Louisiana, according to dispatches received by the war department here today, following the breaking of every protection levee west of Bay Louisiana from Labadieville to the Gulf of Mexico, a distance of 90 miles.

LOS ANGELES, June 12.—"Captain" C. E. White, the man who held the "stakes" in the alleged bribery of George N. Lockwood told the jury in the Darrow case today how he had given the prospective McNamara father the first payment of $500 just prior to the arrest of Bert H. Franklin.

White was under cross examination when adjournment was taken for the day. The usual daily sensation of the trial was furnished by F. A. Dickelman's story which tended to show that Darrow had been the leading hand in what seemed to have been a flagrant corruption of important witnesses for the prosecution.

On cross examination, however, it was brought out that Dickelman had not been subpoenaed by the prosecution when taken in charge by the defense and that he was not in California and that in his affidavit to District Attorney Fredericks prior to leaving Los Angeles, Dickelman had not positively identified J. B. McNamara as J. B. Brice, Dickelman also testified money was given him by Bert Hammerston was for the purpose of returning to Los Angeles from Chicago should he desire.

Hundreds of Medford Citizens Can Tell You All About It.

Home endorsement, the public expression of Medford people, should be evidence beyond dispute for every Medford order. Surely the experience of friends and neighbors, cheerfully given by them, will carry more weight than the utterances of strangers residing in faraway places.

Read the following: H. J. Durfee, 22 N. Bartlett st., Medford, Ore., says: "I was troubled by my kidneys off and on for years. If I contracted a slight cold, it always settled in these organs, causing my back to become very lame, weak and painful. Last summer I was suffering in that way and on a friend's advice, I procured Doan's Kidney Pills. I found this remedy to be exactly as represented and in a few days the trouble left. I know of many other persons who have obtained benefit from Doan's Kidney Pills."

FELT BAD ALL THE TIME

Shellhorn Lady Suffered a Great Deal, But Is All Right Now.

Shellhorn, Ala.—In a letter from this place, Mrs. Carrie May says: "A short time ago, I commenced to have weak spells and headaches. I felt bad all the time, and soon grew so bad I couldn't stay up. I thought I would die. At last my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, and it helped me; so he got some more. After I had taken the second bottle, I was entirely well. I wish every lady, suffering from womanly trouble, would try Cardui. It is the best medicine I know of. It did me more good than anything I ever used."

Cardui is a woman's tonic—a strengthening medicine for women, made from ingredients that act specifically on the womanly organs, and thus help to build up the womanly constitution to glowing good health.

As a remedy for woman's ill, it has a successful record of over 60 years. Your druggist sells it. Please try it. N. B.—Write to Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions, and 64-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent in plain wrapper, on request.

SIX LOSE LIFE COLORADO FLOOD

NEEDLES, Cal., June 12.—Six men are believed to have been drowned in the swollen Colorado river, according to telephone messages received here today from Old Fort Mojave.

The messages stated that a barge on which six flood workers entered Bullhead canyon late yesterday, floated ashore, overturned, near the fort today.

The crest of the present flood reached Fort Mojave early today. Several barges were carried away and the course of the river considerably changed.

Several hundred men are working near Needle strengthening levees and moving portable property. It is believed, however, that the town is safe.

ROSE SHOW NOT STOPPED BY RAIN

PORTLAND, Ore., June 12.—Despite the piteous rain, Portland's Rose Festival continues at its height today. Today's program was an extensive one. In the morning there were band concerts throughout the city and at noon, prizes were awarded in the rose show.

This afternoon the rose show is formally open to the public and a parade of five hundred decorated automobiles is being held through the business and residence sections of the city.

In the evening the allegorical electrical parade symbolizing "the carnival of nations," with Rex Oregonus, King of the Festival at the head, will be held.
