

JUDGE LINDSEY AS RUNNING MATE FOR ROOSEVELT

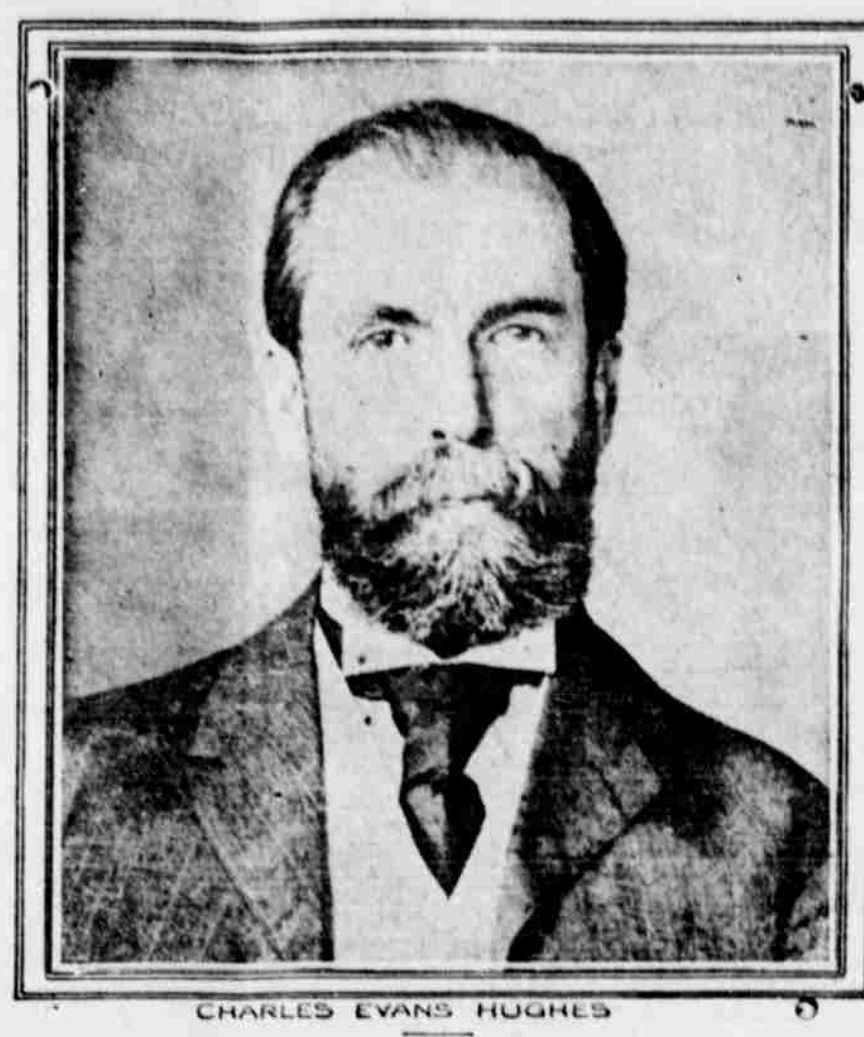

DENVER, Colo., June 13.—Charging a Roosevelt plan to capture the votes of a million women who will hold the balance of power throughout the nation next November, the Denver Republican declares today that Judge Ben B. Lindsey of the juvenile court here, noted writer and reformer, may be Roosevelt's running mate.

Mrs. Sarah Platt Decker, and Lindsey, the paper says, conferred here before Judge Lindsey started east, with the result that Mrs. Decker agreed to throw her influence among the western suffragists on a ticket headed by Roosevelt and Lindsey, whether this ticket is a regular republican ticket or a bolt ticket.

In return for this, says the Republican, Mrs. Decker is to get the nomination to congress from a Colorado district, receiving Roosevelt's personal support.

1500 CARPENTERS OUT ON STRIKE

LOS ANGELES, Cal., June 13.—Acting upon order of their officers 1,500 men affiliated with Los Angeles Building Trades Council, struck today. Only men who were at work on jobs other than union labor was employed were called out.

Work on a half a dozen buildings in course of construction in the business district was suspended. Contractors late today were making strenuous efforts to fill the places of the strikers with non-union men.

Appointed by the strike committee, 100 unionists toured the city, visiting small as well as large jobs, to urge workmen to join the strike.

According to Secretary Mooney of the council, scores of non-union carpenters, steam-fitters, plasterers and plumbers applied today for union cards.

IRISH SUFFRAGETTES START WINDOW SMASHING CAMPAIGN

DUBLIN, June 13.—Irish suffragettes came into vigorous conflict with the authorities here today when they tried to emulate the deeds of their English sisters by carrying on a window-smashing campaign.

After the women had shattered forty-two windows in the post office, customs house, land commissioner's office and the police and military barracks, the police arrived on the scene and several of the suffragettes were arrested.

EXECUTION OF BROTHERS INDEFINITELY POSTPONED

SALEM, Ore., June 13.—The execution of George and Charles Humphreys, brothers, convicted of the murder of Mrs. Eliza Griffith scheduled for tomorrow, today has indefinitely postponed through the serving of a stay of execution on Warden Curtiss of the penitentiary here. An appeal is pending before the supreme court.

FIGHTING TO KEEP RIVER OFF SUGAR PLANTATIONS

NEW ORLEANS, La., June 13.—A desperate fight is being made today to keep the flood waters of the Atchafalaya from inundating several valuable sugar plantations in LaFourche Parish. Hundreds of cattle, isolated, are almost certain to die of starvation.

Moulten declares he is not quitting because of the recent trouble and probably will return to resume work at the prison as a guard.

MANY ACRES ARE SIGNED FOR WATER

The first day of the campaign for the securing of 10,000 acres for the completion of the proposed Roguelands Canal netted 1569 acres, the result of the efforts of the Medford committee under the guidance of George E. Boos, representative of the Rogue River Valley Canal Co. This with the 900 acres previously signed up makes a total of 2469 almost one-quarter of the total amount necessary.

Among the larger signers Wednesday were: Hoover and Ingalls, 156 acres; Hillcrest orchards, 50 acres; A. C. Abrams, 50 acres; John T. Sullivan, 180 acres; R. P. Cowgill, 330 acres.

This does not include any number of land owners who signed up for amounts from five to forty acres. The largest land owners who are favorable to the project have not been asked to sign up, the entire committee appointed at the meeting Tuesday not yet getting into action.

The Commercial club has sent out letters to the members of the committee asking that the members begin work at once, in order that all the signatures and the total acreage be signed up, in time to begin the preliminary work this year. As soon as the 10,000 acres is secured, a representative of the Roguelands company announced last night, that work would commence, which will mean the expenditure of over a million dollars.

COURT GIVES DECISION IN HILL'S ELECTION SUIT

SEATTLE, June 12.—University students who are not self-supporting are not entitled to vote in municipal elections if their parents live outside of Seattle. This was the ruling made by Judge R. B. Albertson in the recount suit of H. C. Gill against Mayor Cotterill.

Five students were thus disqualified and their votes were disallowed yesterday. Of these one vote had been for Gill. In all, 29 students are to be examined in addition to the fourteen who have already testified.

Grants Pass After Aviation Meet.

The celebration of the coming Fourth was discussed pro and con at the regular monthly meeting of the Commercial club. President Hobart stated that he himself would like to celebrate if the town could find the features to make an attractive and successful program. An aviation meet appealed to him if the cost would not be prohibitive. The best figure yet obtained for this feature was $1,000. Attorney O. S. Blanchard was in favor of celebrating, but his idea of a proper observance of the day was to hold a big picnic in the park or some available grove, and with sports, barbecue, fireworks, etc., give the people a safe and sane day with it, with everything free, and Grants Pass playing host to all of her friends who would come.—Rogue River Courier.

SEEKS DISMISSAL OF INJUNCTION

Porter J. Neff, attorney for the city and for E. G. Perham who has the contract for the construction of the injunction suit brought by Benton Bowers and S. A. Carleton of Ashland to restrain the county from erecting the bridge over Bear creek.

Mr. Neff as attorney for the contractor plans to file a cross complaint in which he will admit that the charges in the complaint filed by Bowers and Carleton are correct where they allege that the present indebtedness of Jackson county is illegal, being in excess of the $5,000 limit imposed by the constitution. Mr. Neff will then ask a dismissal of the temporary injunction, for if the present debt is illegal, the county is not in debt, and can proceed the construction of the bridge over Bear creek. Early action is expected.

EIGHT YAQUIS KILLED IN HALTING OF S. P. TRAIN.

TUCSON, Ariz., June 12.—Eight Yaqui Indians were killed and a score wounded by guards protecting construction work along the Southern Pacific's right of way between Limones and Porcero, Sonora, last today.
