

NO REFEREE YET FOR VERNON FIGHT

LOS ANGELES, Cal., June 14.—Baffled at every turn in his efforts to settle definitely the question of a referee for the Rivers-Wolgast battle July 4, Promoter McCarty, in desperation, has issued orders to add 3,500 seats to the Vernon arena, trusting that some good fortune will come to his aid.

McCarty yesterday announced that Jim Jeffries had consented to referee with the aid of two judges. Almost immediately, however, Jeffries made another of his mysterious disappearances, and after burying himself for several hours is said to have re-appeared with the announcement that he had re-considered and positively would not referee. McCarty last night begged Jeffries to take one more long think and speak again to-night.

At Venice Tom Jones, Wolgast's manager, is kicking his heels and waiting. It is Jeffries or Jack Welsh or no fight, Jones says. If he doesn't have his way he will take his pugilist and give San Francisco an opportunity to pour some money into his pockets July 4.

SAN JOSE BANKER HANGS HIMSELF IN BARN

SAN JOSE, Cal., June 14.—James A. Costa, a prominent private banker of this city, was found dead Thursday by his wife, hanging in the loft of a barn at his residence.

Costa, who was found on the morning of February 28 tied to a chair in his bank with the safe door open and papers littering the floor, stated that he had been robbed of $4000 by two men. Since then he had been moody and despondent. Recently he closed out his banking business. No trace of the men whom Costa claimed had robbed him was ever found, and the fact that he carried a heavy burglary insurance aroused some suspicion and the insurance was not paid.
