Tampa, Fla.—In a letter from this city, Mrs. E. C. Corum writes: "I was all weakened and worn out with wome some Cardul as a tonic, and, from the first day, it seemed to help. I had almost lost my reason, but, thanks to Cardui, I did not. Soon, I felt and looked like a new woman.

think the remedy is wonderful. I recommend it to my friends, for I have received great benefit from it.' Cardul acts specifically on the weakened womanly organs, strengthening the muscles and nerves, and building them up to health. It helps to refresh the worn-out nervous system and relieves the effects of overwork, both mental and physical. Fifty years' successful use fully prove the merit of this purely vegetable, tonic remedy for women.

who have been benefited by Cardul.

The beneficial effects of this time tested woman's remedy, soon show themselves in many different ways.
