Our Correspondents

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

S. S. Aikin of Prospect was a pleasant caller Thursday night. Larken Reynolds, F. T. Newport and James Gillaspay were among the guests Thursday night, the first two named are of the carpenters crew of the P. & E. R. R. and Mr. Gillaspay is one of the brakemen of the same company. Mr. J. Cadzow, E. Wheeler and Ed Watson were with us Thursday night. They were here working in the interest of the Eagle Point-Butte Falls telephone company. They were starting in to place another line on the poles between here and Derby, as there are so many phones already on the line that it does not do good service and there are five more applications for new phones between here and Butte Falls. H. H. Miller and O. S. Lawrence of Medford came out Thursday to bath William Vonder Hellen's house that he has been having remodeled. E. L. Wainstaff has been putting an addition to his residence. Fred Polonzo, wife and son Robbie were pleasant callers Thursday night for supper. The whole family seem to be enthusiastic over baseball and Robbie is one of the main players in the Eagle Point team. Speaking about the ball team reminds me that the committee have roofed the grandstand and made everything comfortable for the spectators. Our new bakery is proving quite a success as well as a great convenience for those who wish to procure victuals in that line and we predict a good business for him in the future. Mrs. J. B. McNicholl has an add in the classified list today. Rev. George S. Paddock, the state superintendent of the International Sunday School Society, of Portland, will preach at Antioch Sunday, June 23, at 11 a. m., Agate 3 p. m., and Tablerock in the evening. Mr. Paddock is the state superintendent of the Congregational churches of Oregon and one of the leading preachers of the state. He is making a tour of this part of the state and will during the week preach at Dardenell S. H. 17, Sams Valley 18, Trail 19, Elk 20, Peyton, 21. Wilbert Ashpole was out Friday to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Ashpole. While here he inspected our park ground, and remarked that it could be made one of the most beautiful parks in the country. The committee have been to work on the ground clearing away some of the underbrush leveling the ground and getting it ready for the grand celebration of the Fourth of July. The committee intends to spare no pains, but will do everything in their power to make it as pleasant as possible for all that come. Heath and Diamond are having a cooler attached to their new store where they can keep eatables cool and fresh. A lady friend of mine who has been sick for some time met me Friday and gave me a good scolding for not putting in the Mail Tribune that she was sick and on another occasion a man found fault with me because I inquired of him every time we met how his wife was, when she was sick, and I told him the same reason, that is that I thought it would make their friends uneasy to read that they were sick, and for that reason I have refrained from mentioning cases of sickness in the neighborhood, and I am glad to be able to truthfully say that there is generally very little sickness in this neighborhood—for I don't like to report hospital news.

CENTRAL POINT ITEMS.

The Misses Foley who have been attending high school here returned to their home at Kanes creek Saturday. Mrs. V. Bursell returned the last of the week from a visit to Portland and Eugene accompanied by her sister Miss Corum of Eugene. Miss Miller of San Francisco is here visiting her sister Miss Mary Miller. The Central Point Cubs motored to Rogue River Sunday and played a game of ball with the Rogue River team. Mrs. Dean and daughter of Willow Springs were shopping in our city the last of the week. Mr. Berlin of Medford, spent a few hours here Sunday morning. Peter Applegate of Salem is here visiting his son Clyde Applegate and family. Seth DeVoe of Grants Pass was here Saturday visiting friends. Mrs. Boise, Mr. Noves, J. B. Stevens were among the Tolo people shopping here Saturday afternoon. Mrs. J. O. Isaanson, Mrs. Hongland, Mrs. W. C. Owens, Miss Teade, Neale, Mrs. Cook, Mr. Young, J. D. Samuels, Miss Edith Brown, Miss Mary Miller were among the Central Point people at Medford Saturday. Central Point first team played Grants Pass here Sunday, score being 4 to 0 in favor of Grants Pass.
