

GOVERNOR HADLEY OF MISSOURI GIVEN 41 MINUTES DEMONSTRATION

CHEER HADLEY AS CANDIDATE FOR PRESIDENT

Convention Goes Wild Over Missouriian Who Is Made Dark Horse Probability by First Outbreak of Enthusiasm Seen.

Steam Roller Not Feazed by Demonstration and Vote Shows Taft's Strength Untouched.

CHICAGO, June 19.—The United Press, on the best authority is this evening in a position to announce that Colonel Roosevelt will bolt unless the republicans unseat the Taft delegates, which he alleges were given by unfair means a place in the convention by the national committee.

RECORD ROLL-CALL

Taft Forces Voting Aye, Roosevelt No

Alabama—ayes 22; noes 2.
Arizona—ayes 6; noes 9.
Arkansas—ayes 16; noes 1; not voting 1.
California—ayes 2; noes 24.
Colorado—ayes 12; noes 6.
Connecticut—ayes 14; noes 6.
Delaware—ayes 6; noes 6.
Florida—ayes 12; noes 6.
Georgia—ayes 24; noes 4.
Idaho—ayes 9; noes 8.
Illinois—ayes 7; noes 51.
Indiana—ayes 29; noes 9, not voting 1.
Iowa—ayes 16; noes 19.
Kansas—ayes 2; noes 18.
Kentucky—ayes 24; noes 2.
Louisiana—ayes 20; noes 6.
Maine—ayes 6; noes 12.
Maryland—ayes 7; noes 9.
Massachusetts—ayes 18; noes 18.
Michigan—ayes 20; noes 10.
Minnesota—ayes 6; noes 24.
Mississippi—ayes 16; noes 4.
Missouri—ayes 16; noes 29.
Montana—ayes 8; noes 6.
Nebraska—ayes 6; noes 6.
Nevada—ayes 6; noes 6.
New Hampshire—ayes 8; noes 6.
New Jersey—ayes 6; noes 28.
New Mexico—ayes 7; noes 1.
New York—ayes 75; noes 15.
North Carolina—ayes 2; noes 22.
North Dakota—ayes 2; noes 8.
Ohio—ayes 14; noes 34.
Oklahoma—ayes 4; noes 16.
Oregon—ayes 5; noes 5.
Pennsylvania—ayes 12; noes 64.
Rhode Island—ayes 10; noes 6.
South Carolina—ayes 11; noes 6, not voting 1.
South Dakota—ayes 6; noes 10.
Tennessee—ayes 23; noes 1.
Texas—ayes 28; noes 10, not voting 2.
Utah—ayes 7; noes 1.
Vermont—ayes 6; noes 2.
Virginia—ayes 21; noes 3.
Washington—ayes 14; noes 6.
West Virginia—ayes 6; noes 16.
Wisconsin—ayes 6; noes 26.
Wyoming—ayes 6; noes 6.
Alaska—ayes 2; noes 6.
District of Columbia—ayes 22; noes 6.
Hawaii—ayes 6; noes 6.
Philippines—ayes 2; noes 6.
Porto Rico—ayes 2; noes 9.
Total—ayes 564, noes 519, not voting, 4.

CHICAGO, June 19.—Governor Herbert S. Hadley of Missouri, loomed large this afternoon as the vice presidential candidate of the republican party. Amid the wildest scenes of the convention, the first old-fashioned demonstration of the present meeting, Hadley and Roosevelt were cheered by the convention this afternoon for forty-one minutes—a handsome young woman, Mrs. Beckey Davis of Chicago leading the wind-up of the enthusiasm. There were those in the audience who did not hesitate to declare that the demonstration made Hadley a presidential possibility.

As the demonstration proceeded the Roosevelt supporters capitalized it for their own interest and converted it into a Roosevelt-Hadley cheerfest. It was preceding successfully along this line until a wildly enthusiastic

LIAR! LIAR! LIAR! YELL DELEGATES DURING DEBATE

Entire Day Spent in Wrangle Over Hadley Motion to Substitute Roosevelt List of Delegates for That Approved by National Committee.

Many Speakers From Both Sides Weary Audience by Invective and Ribald Abuse.

COLISEUM, CHICAGO, June 19.—At 11:29 the opening invocation was delivered by Rabbi Joseph Stoltz of Chicago, the delegates and spectators standing reverently on their feet. The prayer was long drawn out and many of the delegates seemed restless before it was concluded.

Root at once announced that the unfinished business was the Hadley amendment, substituting the Roosevelt list of delegates for that presented by the national committee. He stated that an agreement for time for division—an hour and half for each side—had been reached.

Governor Hadley opened the debate at 11:38. He was cheered enthusiastically by the Roosevelt men as he stepped to the front. Many of the delegates were on their chairs.

Hadley Defends Motion. Hadley declared that it was necessary that his amendment be carried, so that the will of the republican voters in the various states may be expressed. He criticized the Roosevelt ruling briefly, insisting that his original motion, made immediately after the convention assembled was proper.

"We had two courses confronting us," said Hadley. "One was to arbitrarily meet the unparliamentary ruling of the chair; the other was to bring the matter before this convention. We chose the latter course, and so bring this question before you again."

"We hold that there are seventy-eight delegates placed on the temporary roll by the national committee that do not belong there. We now ask that the names of the men voted for by four members of the national committee be put on this roll and the names of the men now on the roll eliminated."

Hadley repeated the Roosevelt charge that the action of the national committee was "naked theft designed to thwart the will of the people of the United States."

Reads Minority Report. Hadley then read the statement signed by four members of the national committee which was prepared by Senator Borah for presentation as a minority report on the contests. He held that the delegates in question should be refused votes until after their right to seats had been passed upon by the uncontested delegates to the convention. He stopped reading the list after mentioning Borah and Kellogg, but the New York men shouted: "Read them all; read them all!"

"It was found that William L. Ward had not signed the protest."

"Mr. Ward writes in the spirit of the protest," said Hadley, "but as he did not sit in all contests, he did not sign the formal document."

Enumerates Contests. Hadley then referred to the California contest, saying that it was shown conclusively that the delegates from the fourth district who were unseated by the national committee carried the state by 77,000 votes.

So far as Texas was concerned, he said, the Taft delegates seated were chosen by a convention which only had 209 delegates presented and represented only a small section of the republicans.

"No man should be a judge in his own case," said Hadley, and then he referred to the old English directory which incorporates that principle. "We submit this question with only this reservation," concluded Hadley, "and that is that these men who are unlawfully here shall not be permitted to vote."

At 11:29 the opening invocation was delivered by Rabbi Joseph Stoltz of Chicago, the delegates and spectators standing reverently on their feet. The prayer was long drawn out and many of the delegates seemed restless before it was concluded.

PROMINENT FIGURES WHO ARE WATCHING EVENTS AT THE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION IN CHICAGO

D. H. LAMBERTSON

JAMES B. GARFIELD (LEFT) AND GIFFORD PINCHOT (RIGHT)

MRS. WILLIAM E. BORAH OF IDAHO

FRANCIS S. TERRY OF SAN FRANCISCO

SENATOR W. J. KENYON OF IOWA

BRIDGE CASE IS TO BE PASSED ON BY CALKINS SOON

That Judge Calkins will pass on the motion to dissolve the injunction upon complaint of Benton Bowers and S. A. Carleton of Ashland, restraining the county from erecting a bridge over Bear creek in this city, by the end of the week, is the word brought by Jorter J. Neff who returned from Portland today after appearing in the suit for Contractor Perham. Judge W. D. Fenton appeared for the county.

"We argued the matter at length," states Mr. Neff, "and I am confident that we will win out. We proceeded upon the proposition that he money for this bridge was to come from the road and bridge levy for this year and did not effect the indebtedness of the county. I also filed a cross complaint asking that the treasurer of the county be restrained from using money collected for road and bridge purposes for paying the county debt."

"We will get a decision by the end of the week."

TANNER SLAIN AS HE SLEPT

PORTLAND, June 19.—W. S. Tanner, 23, was found dead in his bed in a downtown hotel today with a bullet wound in the back of his head. The murdered man was fully dressed.

Tanner came here from Albany, two weeks ago. His wife, who lived with him at the hotel, could not be found today. According to hotel employees who found the body, the Tanners were visited several times recently by a man whose identity has not been established.

Tanner's head had been terribly beaten. The room had apparently been ransacked.

From the fact that the initials I. W. W. were in the murdered man's hat, the police believe that the name Tanner may have been fictitious.

COPPER STOCKS STRONG IN STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, June 19.—Today's opening stock market developed little trading. Copper stocks were fairly active and strong. Later the market became more active and nearly all leading issues made small gains. American Can was the feature with a two-point rise, while Wabash sold down to a new low record. The market closed steady. Bonds were steady.

ROOSEVELT IN FINE FETTER FOR BOLT OR FIGHT

CHICAGO, June 19.—Colonel Roosevelt came from his apartment on the top floor of the Congress hotel this morning smiling and apparently in the best of spirits. A conference was held between the colonel, James R. Garfield, Gifford Pinchot, Governor Johnson, Senator Borah, William Flinn, George B. Cortelyou and several other lieutenants. Coming out of the conference, Garfield was asked what the prospects were for a bolt today.

"We cannot tell what will happen until we get into the convention," was all he would say.

Among the callers on Colonel Roosevelt today were Judge Wannamaker of Akron, Ohio; Ex-Governor Willson of Kentucky, who pledged support to the colonel's cause, and delegate Daniels, of Erie County, New York, a recent convert from the Taft delegates.

A large crowd watched Roosevelt's conference room, and when he emerged to go to lunch, carrying in one hand a book by Brandt Whitlock, he was loudly cheered.

When he received word at the Congress Hotel of the demonstration at the Coliseum, Colonel Roosevelt said "Dee-lighted. No demonstration could be too high for Mr. Hadley."

HARRY THAW SNUBS EVELYN AT TRIAL

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., June 19.—Evelyn Nesbitt Thaw was snubbed today by her husband, Harry K. Thaw and members of the Thaw family when she appeared in the supreme court to testify against Thaw in his attempt to gain freedom from MacTawean Asylum.

Thaw was examined at great length by W. T. Jerome, who twice prosecuted him for the murder of Stanford White.

It was the first time Thaw had seen his wife since 1909, and neither he, his mother nor his two sisters paid any attention to her.

FAVOR PARKER FOR CHAIRMAN AT BALTIMORE

BALTIMORE, Md., June 19.—Chances today strongly favored Judge Alton B. Parker for temporary chairman of the democratic national convention. The selection will be made by the committee on arrangements tomorrow. Parker has the support of Leader Murphy of Tammany Hall.

Plans are being made to strengthen the national ticket by inducing one of the defeated candidates for the presidential nomination to accept second place. Scores of Wilson men are conspicuous in hotel corridors and on the streets, wearing hatbands inscribed "Win With Wilson." Champ Clark's camp was established today in the Emerson hotel.

In striking contrast to the republican convention, contests here next week will involve only about forty delegates, according to Secretary Urey Wilson.

W. J. Bryan. It is conceded will be the predominating figure at Baltimore and he will remain in Chicago until the close of hostilities there.

All reports of wild claims as to the strength were held out by rival managers today, but none claimed a victory on the first, second or third ballot. All conceded a deadlock, and in this event Bryan is looming big as the possible compromise candidate.

PARDON GRANTED FRANKLIN MAYS

WASHINGTON, June 19.—Pardon for Franklin P. Mays was granted today by President Taft on the ground that the government prosecutors had used improper methods in securing his conviction for land frauds at Portland in 1907. This is the second pardon in the Mitchell-Herman land cases, William N. Jones having been pardoned by the president several days ago.

Nat Goodwin is to make a starring tour next season as Fagin in a revival of "Oliver Twist."

DISRUPTION OF WISCONSIN RANKS OVER ROOSEVELT

COLISEUM, CHICAGO, June 19.—Wholesale disruption of the Wisconsin delegation, with several desertions threatened, marked the entrance today of the La Follette workers into the convention.

Governor McGovern, elected chairman of the delegation, today received the resignation of Henry F. Cochems as a delegate. Several other delegates threatened similar action. It was rumored that McGovern himself might withdraw. His friends refused verification of that rumor, however, and he would not talk prior to the assembling of the convention.

Cochems, who nominated LaFollette for president four years ago, today came out with a second bitter attack upon the Wisconsin progressive, explaining his action in nominating McGovern for temporary chairman, and his resignation.

Cochems' Statement. "LaFollette himself and his men are out to lick Roosevelt, that's all," said Cochems. "They are utterly disregarding the progressive principles, the candidate of the people Theodore Roosevelt, just as LaFollette is, conducting a campaign of vengeance."

"I got sick of the whole dirty mess and simply quit to save my own self respect. I felt I would stultify myself to keep a seat on the delegation when instructed by LaFollette and do not wish to be accused of desertion or treachery. Now, I am free to make a progressive fight, as I see it."

Cochems entered the Roosevelt ranks today, but unofficially.

For LaFollette Only. Walter Houser, LaFollette's campaign manager; Colonel John J. Hannan secretary to the senator and Walter Rogers, Wisconsin national committeeman united today in declaring that Wisconsin, and also the North Dakota delegations would vote solidly at all times for the nomination of LaFollette. They said Wisconsin's 26 votes will be cast with the Taft forces, "against purging the temporary roll."

"The proposition of Governor Hadley and the Roosevelt crowd is utterly absurd—too wild-eyed for consideration," said Colonel Hannan. "Why should a personally-conducted roll of delegates as chosen by Hadley or anyone else be substituted for those chosen by the national committee?"

"We will vote to have the whole affair referred to the credentials committee." Manager Houser also declared the Roosevelt plan is indefensible.

CURRENT GROWS FAVORABLE TO A DARK HORSE

Progressives Divided, Part Favoring a Bolt and Part Favoring Fighting for a Progressive Platform to the End, Regardless of Nomination.

Taft Men Insist They Hold All Trump Cards and Will Nominate Their Man Through Enemies Division.

CHICAGO, June 19.—Whether it was to be a fight to a finish between the progressives or conservatives or a bolt in the interests of the Roosevelt candidacy, was the problem confronting the republican national convention, when Chairman Root called the second day's session to order.

The Roosevelt camp was divided. The men who declared that they did not care who was nominated so long as progressive principles were adhered to, favored fighting to the end. The professional politicians, who wanted to use the Roosevelt personality to strengthen their own leadership in states where progressivism was new and popular, were loudly counseling a bolt.

Progressives Divided. Other men, notably Senator Borah, were insisting that what should be done was to fight to the bitter end, and if beaten, take their medicine but keep on fighting.

Because of this difference of opinion in the progressive ranks, the Taft men are insisting they hold all of the trump cards and would nominate their man. But their appearance to be a strong current settling toward a dark horse candidate. This current seemed to be growing each hour and threatened to get beyond control of the leaders at any moment.

Police Guard Increased. The police guard both inside and outside of the Coliseum today was increased. There were 500 uniformed men on hand and at least that number of plain clothes officers.

Five minutes before the time set for the convention to assemble, Heney, Flinn, Hadley, Clapp, Kellogg, Johnson and Dixon were in conference. The Roosevelt leaders were divided on just when to make their fight.

Some wanted to stand or fall by the Hadley motion to substitute the Roosevelt delegates for the Taft men seated in the contests by the national committee, while others wanted the fight to mark only the beginning of hostilities. They conferred in whispers and it was plain from their attitude that the difference of opinion was serious.

It was just 11:16 a. m. when Senator Root's gavel fell heavily on the mahogany table in front of him.

Heney the Jonah "Sergeant, please clear those aisles for me," Root said to the police officer in command and the latter did so. While this was going on, Frank B. Kellogg, the Minnesota lawyer, laid the law down to the progressive leaders. He told them point blank that Francis J. Heney was a detriment to the progressive fight.

"He simply stirs up trouble," said Kellogg, "and acts as a firebrand on every occasion. We have a chance to win this fight, and ought not to throw it aside by letting him speak."

Kellogg had his way, and it was agreed Heney would be "gagged" as far as the Hadley motion was concerned.

The San Francisco graft prosecutor is the California member of the committee on credentials and if the fight goes there he will have plenty of opportunity to speak.

Progressive Program. Root stood watching the delegates taking their time finding seats for about five minutes. Then he sat down in his chair and took up a paper, which he read carefully.

Hadley came on the platform from the conference with his lieutenants with his program completed. He had agreed to present the proposition of

Hadley came on the platform from the conference with his lieutenants with his program completed. He had agreed to present the proposition of

Hadley came on the platform from the conference with his lieutenants with his program completed. He had agreed to present the proposition of

Hadley came on the platform from the conference with his lieutenants with his program completed. He had agreed to present the proposition of

Hadley came on the platform from the conference with his lieutenants with his program completed. He had agreed to present the proposition of

Hadley came on the platform from the conference with his lieutenants with his program completed. He had agreed to present the proposition of

(Continued on Page Two.)

(Continued on Page 2.)

(Continued on Page 6.)