RIVERSIDE RIPPLES

Mrs. H. B. Nye is enjoying a visit from her mother, Mrs. Gregory, who lives in Medford.

Messrs. Alden, Slead and Woolverton purchased about 100 loads of fertilizer at Tolo and began hauling it this week.

Mrs. Campbell of Medford, visited her sister, Mrs. Porter, the past week. Darleigh Slead hooked a 22-pound salmon last week, being the first one caught in these parts this year.

Miss Vera Jermata of Medford is the guest of Miss Bertha Woolverton.

Mr. Woolverton has turned the stream of water in Millers Gulch on to his place and has a fine flow of water for irrigating. He has about 3-4 of an acre of onions which bid fair to be more than an ordinary crop and a garden which it would be hard to beat.

About 20 were in attendance at the Rock Point school meeting Monday afternoon. Mr. Cooke resigned from the board leaving three places to be filled. Mr. I. T. Gallager was elected for a three year term, Mr. Isaac Porter for two years and Miss Harper for clerk. It was also voted to make a few much needed improvements for the school.

Miss Lizzie Wallace and Miss Bertha Woolverton attended church at Rogue River Sunday.

CENTRAL POINT ITEMS

A. W. Moon and family and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Myers have returned from Portland.

At the school election held Monday afternoon Frank J. Taylor was elected director and John W. Jacobs was elected clerk, both by unanimous vote.

Miss Viola Smith of Ashland visited here Monday.

W. T. Stidham and his mother Mrs. N. Stidham and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Purkeppie left Monday morning by automobile on a tour of eastern Oregon.

C. F. Cooper of Medford, Mrs. Chas. Johnson of Peoria, Ill., F. D. Feebly of Chico, Cal., S. T. Pulham of Seattle, W. F. Brown of Ashland, Geo. E. Hasey of Columbus, Wisconsin were in our city Monday.

Mrs. T. F. Knackstedt and daughter, Rev. Hearst, Mr. Littlefield, R. C. Reame, Henry Holton, Mr. and Mrs. H. Farnum and S. A. Pattison were among the Central Pointers in Medford Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Court Hall and Miss Gladys Boltz of Medford spent Tuesday here.

Thomas Kincaid returned to Portland Tuesday evening after visiting his mother here the past ten days.

Mr. Duncan has resigned as superintendent of the local V. M. C. A. and left this week for the north.

Mrs. Wm. Puhl and daughters who were injured in a runaway Sunday evening while passing through this city are reported doing nicely.

Mr. Young has rented the Olson residence property at the southeast corner of Fifth and Cherry street and will take possession this week.

At the raid made on the Chinese colony here Sunday evening no opium or gambling devices were found.

The city council will meet in regular adjourned session tonight (Wednesday).

Mrs. Laurine Dawning has returned from a visit with relatives on Applegate.

Mr. and Mrs. Gleason, W. D. Lewis, W. H. Ferguson, W. A. Byburn were among Central Point people at Medford Tuesday afternoon.

John Grievos of Prospect was here after supplies the first of the week.

NOTICE

We will no longer be responsible for our son's Carl F. Martin, debts or actions. J. G. and Mary R. Martin. Dated, June 18, 1912.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett

Thomas E. Nichols has moved his family into the new brick store, meat market and residence building. He and his nephew Artie who built the house had it so arranged that they each have rooms upstairs so that everything is as handy as a pocket in a shirt.

Our enterprising citizens who live on First street in the Ulrich addition have had a part of the street graded and it is now ready for the gravel to be placed on it. The property owners did the grading and the town is to do the rest, according to reports from headquarters.

Miss A. C. Murphy, daughter of one of our old boarders, and for some time section boss on the part of the P. & E. R. R. in this section, and Mr. Wene Pashek of The Dalles, were pleasant callers Saturday morning on their way up to "Dick" Slinger's, where Miss Murphy taught school for some time.

John Daley, one of our old citizens who has been interested in the Buzzard mine came in Saturday to visit his parents and brother.

W. L. Childreth in conversation with your correspondent remarked, "If I have sold out my blacksmith shop I don't know where I could go to find a more desirable place than Eagle Point for a home, although I would like to have my boys on a farm." Mr. Childreth has been in Kansas, Missouri, Oklahoma, Dakota etc., and says that Eagle Point, Jackson county, Oregon, is good enough for him, and his head is level on that point.

W. F. Hoffman of Lake Creek was here for dinner Saturday and reports the death of his infant son, aged six weeks, on the 14th of this month. Interment was made Sunday in the Brownsboro cemetery, religious services were conducted by a Seventh Day Baptist whose name I didn't learn.

Word came to me Saturday that the daughter of Len Jones of Dudley, fell and broke her arm last Friday.

Last Saturday morning the family was aroused at the Sunny Side by the arrival of Mr. Murphy of Medford with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Allen. Mrs. Allen's father had died in Ashland that morning and Mr. Murphy came out with his auto to the Corbin orchard for them and they came here, as all of her things were here and took the train for Medford. Her father, Mr. H. E. Stone, has been a resident

NEW TODAY

Here is a fine paying orchard, of 12 acres, on Ashland road beyond Talent. Beautiful hill side and no smudging required. The orchard has 500 bearing peach trees, 100 bearing apricot trees, 24 large bearing apple trees, besides walnuts and a large number of younger pear trees. Place is nicely irrigated from a private pumping plant, and the floor room cottage has gas light and heat. We would like to show this choice place to anyone wanting a fine orchard at reasonable terms. $6000, if taken soon.

A cozy six-room home, with fire place and strictly modern in Siskiyou Heights. A finely sloping lot 79x150. All walks are of cement. $3250, $1000 cash. Balance on terms to suit.

Anyone with $1000 to invest will do well to examine the five fine lots in west Medford, a block from two different paved streets. They would please you.

of Ashland for a number of years and was the owner of considerable property there. He was aged 74 years.

Last Sunday was quite a day in Eagle Point as the Gold Hill ball team came up and played against the Eagle Point team. The score stood Eagle Point 11, Gold Hill 15, but the boys had lots of fun and all passed off pleasantly. We had the usual crowd here for dinner and just as Mrs. Howlett was preparing to put dinner on the table she was called to the phone by Mr. Bert Harmon of Medford and asked if she could serve a chicken supper at six o'clock, in the screened porch, for a company of fifteen, to which she responded that she could. Promptly at 12 noon dinner was announced and the Gold Hill party were invited to the table on the screened porch and that table was soon filled and the rest of the Gold Hill company were invited to the dining room proper and they entered on the duties of the hour as though they enjoyed it. There were not so many as there were two weeks ago but enough to have a good time and they had it. Among those who came in addition to the people who came to see the ball game were Dr. Martin C. Barber, wife and children, Mrs. Osborne and Dr. Grant, recently from the east. After dinner they went on up to Brownsboro.

About 5:50 p. m. three autos came in and the following persons marched to the supper table: Mr. and Mrs. L. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Grey, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Bert Harmon, Mrs. La Claire, Mrs. George Roberts, Mr. P. W. Watson, Master Winsor Gale, Mrs. L. W. Remi of North Bend, Wash., and Master Jos. Haekins, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. After supper they took a walk around town, came back and visited for an hour or so and went on their way rejoicing vowing that they would come back occasionally and have another good time. Mrs. Grey and Mrs. Harmon were the hostesses of the occasion, superintending the company and settling the bills.
