EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

The Eagle Point Sunday School celebrated their annual anniversary last Sunday evening, and although I did not have the pleasure of attending the report comes to me that there was an immense crowd for a small place like Eagle Point, the church building was simply packed, seats brought in, was filled and quite a number had to stand. The exercises were conducted entirely by the small children. I understand that there was one girl took a part that is about fourteen years old, and all of the rest of the entire program was carried out by the smaller children and in some instances they brought down the house. I would send a copy of the program but it was destroyed before I could or either did see Mrs. P. H. Daily as she was on the committee who had charge of the arrangement, and here I wish to say that the friends of the Sunday school seem to feel a great degree of gratitude to Mrs. P. H. Daily, Mrs. Bryant, Mrs. Mooman and Mrs. Grover for the unceasing efforts they put forth to make the entertainment the grand success it was.

During the time the boys were playing ball last Sunday Mrs. Charles Brewett spent the time visiting Mrs. Owlett, she said that it would not look well, or she would not feel right for her to go in the forenoon and teach a Sunday school class and in the afternoon go and spend the time watching a ball game.

Mr. and Mrs. Walters who are spending the summer upon Rogue river spent the night with us Sunday taking the E. P. Prospect stage Monday morning.

Our school meeting passed off quietly last Monday, there seemed to be an unusual interest taken in the meeting as almost every merchant and business man in town was there. The result was Fred Palonzo was elected director for three years and J. V. McIntyre our banker, as clerk. The report of the out-going clerk showed that there had been paid out during the past year thirty-four hundred dollars.

The annual school meeting for the Antelope district elected Mr. Frank Derrick as director and Miss Bonnie Rader as clerk.

Ed Cornell, U. S. guard for the George West came in Tuesday afternoon and spent the night with us, starting for the Prospect country Wednesday morning.

For fear I get another scolding for not reporting had news, I will have to report the news that our old and highly respected townsman J. J. Fryer, had the misfortune to fall into an irrigating ditch last Monday and had considerable difficulty in getting out as he is quite advanced in age, being 84, and the result is that he is in rather a serious condition. Dr. Holt, who is in attendance, phoned for his daughter, Mrs. Floyd Pierce of Forest creek and she came over Tuesday. Mrs. Fryer having gone to Seattle to visit her daughter Mrs. Charles Jones.

KANES GREEK ITEMS

The Misses Katie and Maggie Foley have returned home from Central Point at which place they have been attending high school.

Mrs. Tom Cook and children of "Garden Row" left on Sunday morning for Eugene, Oregon to spend the summer with her parents and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Opp, and the children of Jacksonville, spent Sunday at the Braden mine.

TABLE ROCK.

Haying will be on in full blast in a few days.

S. C. Collins was chosen director, and J. H. Lydiard was chosen clerk, at our annual school meeting.

Miss Sue Lydiard, who has been holding the chair of domestic science at Belhaven college, Jackson, Miss., and Miss Eva Lydiard who has been teaching German in the Minot, North Dakota high school, are spending vacation with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Lydiard.

NEW TODAY

Here is a fine paying orchard, of 12 acres, on Ashland road beyond Talent. Beautiful hill slope and no smudging required. The orchard has 500 bearing peach trees, 100 bearing apricot, 24 large bearing apple trees, besides walnuts and a large number of younger pear trees. Place is nicely irrigated from a private pumping plant, and the fire-room cottage has gas light and heat. We would like to show this choice place to anyone wanting a fine orchard at reasonable terms. $6000, if taken soon.

A cozy six-room home, with fire place and strictly modern in Siskiyou Heights. A finely sloping lot 70x150. All walks are of cement, $3250, $1000 cash. Balance on terms to suit.

Anyone with $1000 to invest will do well to examine the five fine lots in west Medford, a block from two different paved streets. They would please you.
