WILL REGULATE SPEED OF TRAINS

Mayor W. H. Canon announced today that at the next regular session of the city council he will introduce an ordinance regulating the speed of locomotives and trains through the city of Medford which will fix the maximum speed at 10 miles an hour. The mayor takes this action as a direct result of two accidents within two weeks at the Jackson boulevard crossing in this city. A large number of cities regulate the speed at which trains may pass through the city and there is no question as to the city's authority to take such action. The ordinance will effect the speed of Southern Pacific trains between the Crater Lake junction on the north and the Ice plant on the south.

VAIN PLEA FOR HARMONY MADE BY SENATOR KERN

BALTIMORE, July 25.—As Bryan concluded, John W. Kern pushed his way down the aisle and was recognized by Chairman Mack. Kern was plainly nervous as he stood waiting while cheers and jeers went up from the galleries and floor.

"After forty years of service to the party I have earned the right to a hearing by the democratic convention. I am from the state of Indiana which will shortly present a candidate in the person of Governor Marshall. I desire to take no part in the convention that may hurt Mr. Marshall's interests.

"I am going to appeal for that kind of harmony which will bring about victory, for that kind of harmony that will change gloom to shouts of gladness. My friend Judge Parker sits before this convention, representing the national committee, I not to another faction, thank God, but another section. If my friend will join me now in the selection of another man satisfactory to him and who can agree with me and withdraw in favor of that distinguished New Yorker, Senator O'Gorman; or Senator Calhoun of Texas, Senator Luke Lea of Tennessee, Henry D. Clayton of Alabama, ex-Governor Campbell of Texas, or Folk of Missouri, or Senator Shively of Indiana, I think we can restore harmony to the party."

Parker sat silently in his chair, his jaw set firm and making no move to answer the speaker. It was plain that Parker had determined not to withdraw. When the tumult began to quiet down slightly Kern began anew. But while his lips were seen to move, it was some minutes before he could be heard:

"You men cannot expect victory if you humiliate the man who led your forces four years ago. You may put him to the wheel but when you do you bring pain to the hearts of six million loyal democrats. You may kill him but you do not commit homicide when you kill him—you commit suicide.

"If the fight is to go on, there is only one man who can lead this fight. I mean that great American, W. J. Bryan. The leader must be worthy of the cause. I have tried to get harmony but seem to have failed. I now ask that your leader for sixteen years the man that the people love, shall be the candidate against Judge Parker in my stead."

HUNGER STRIKE CREATES SCENE

LONDON, June 25.—A wild scene was enacted in the house of commons today as the result of the forcible feeding of suffragettes who declared a "hunger strike" in Holloway prison.

George Lansbury stepped toward the ministerial bench, and shouted at Premier Asquith:

"You are beneath contempt. You call yourselves gentlemen, yet you forcibly feed and murder women. You ought to be driven from public life. You will go down to posterity as the murderers of innocent women."

Speaker Lowther ordered Lansbury taken from the house.

Lansbury said:

"I refuse to leave while this contemptible thing is being done—while women are being murdered and driven mad."

After a scene of great confusion he was induced by friends to leave.

BELL PLAYS TRAITOR TO PROGRESSIVE CAUSE

BALTIMORE, Md., June 25.—During the fight over the chairmanship, Theodore Bell of California was recognized by Mack but he couldn't be heard for more than a minute. Bell was temporary chairman of the democratic convention at Denver four years ago. He said that he stood for just the same kind of democracy that he did at Denver four years ago. He admitted that Bryan was responsible for his selection as temporary chairman and insisted that he placed his stamp of approval on his democracy.

Bell said that it was a matter of keen personal regret that he could not be in accord either with Bryan or Kern. He said that much as he regretted breaking with his old friends he would have to support Parker for temporary chairman.

From July, 1910, to January, 1912, union labor in Los Angeles, Calif., increased 160.5 per cent, or from 6,182 to 16,105.

INVOCATION BY CARDINAL GIBBONS

BALTIMORE, Md., June 25.—It was 12:17 when Chairman Mack rapped the convention to order and directed the sergeant-at-arms to clear the aisles. This was a somewhat difficult task and while the officials were at work Judge Parker sauntered leisurely to his seat, apparently unnoticed.

At 12:14 Assistant Secretary Tom Smith of New York began reading the call for the convention. When he concluded Mack introduced Cardinal Gibbons who delivered the opening invocation.

As soon as the cardinal concluded his invocation, the silence broke into applause and cheers. Mack again ordered the aisles cleared, but his directions were jeered by the crowds who simply refused to move.

need a definite constitutional amendment which shall prevent socialistic souls from forcing personal continuation in office for long periods or for life, and the personal selection of a successor in office and the constitution provision should go one step further than our recently assailed tradition. The provision should limit to a single term.

Tariff Is Blamed

"In this great country which boasts of a wealth of one hundred and thirty billion as against eighty billion for Great Britain and Ireland, sixty-five billion for France and sixty billion for Germany, all are conscious that too large a part of our wealth has been secured by a small percentage of our population and that the cost of living rises faster than the average income.

"The principal cause of all this is to be found in the tariff statutes and in the combinations restraining trade and competition, created for the purpose of wringing from the public every dollar which the tariff statutes make possible.

"The average duties under the tariff in 1879 was 4 1/2 per cent, now the average is 50 per cent.

Protected interests benefited by two increases during the war, the first to an average of 7 1/2 per cent, the second to 47 per cent. That high average, then excused only by the exigency of war, is exceeded now, as the average is nearly 50 per cent.

Enrich Few, Spoil Many

"The republican party has thus geared the machinery of government to enrich the few at the expense of the many. That increase of 30 per cent in the average has taken thousands of millions from the general public and devoted it to the creation of swollen fortunes.

"An awakening of the people led the republican national convention of 1908 by its platform to promise a revision. Congress passed and the president signed the Payne-Aldrich bill.

"One outcome of this breach of faith was a democratic house, which has acted so wisely and courageously as to arouse the enthusiasm of the people and inspire the democratic party with justifiable hope of early opportunity to render a public service sorely needed.

"For the ills that flow from that tariff increase from an average of 20 to 50 per cent the republican party is responsible. For the continuance of that rate against the efforts of a democratic congress, a republican president is to blame.

Campaign Contributions

The reason for the inactivity of the republican official is plain. The tariff beneficiaries are, and for many years have been, contributors to campaign funds of the party, in which turn protected the special privileges enjoyed by the donors. But competition prevented in some instances the collection from the people of the full sum stipulated in the tariff. To secure it all, tempted the cupidity and stimulated the ingenuity of the beneficiaries. But one way could be devised—combination to control the prices up to a point where the statutes let in foreign competition. The same party which shut out foreign competition was found willing to permit the formation of combinations which effectually banished home competition. The common law on the subject and the Sherman act were treated by republican officials as repealed by implication. Need it be said that the protected interest, for these larger privileges, made contributions?

We are indebted to the president for the evidence that his predecessor, having first enjoyed an interview with George W. Perkins, restrained his attorney general from bringing suit against the harvester combination.

Whatever excuse may be offered, the ugly truth is that the republican national machine has received the money of the corporate and individual beneficiaries of the tariff and combinations and in return has compelled us to keep high the tariff rates and their attorney generals to extend their aid to prevent prosecution.

In the light of all the testimony and of the admissions, I submit that the jury of the people should find as a general verdict that the failure of the executive and legislative branches of the government, both federal and state, to protect the people from the special privilege hunters and graft-seekers is deeply rooted in a corrupt alliance between the latter and the leaders of the republican party. Upon that verdict but one judgment can be entered—that of eviction.

Calls Them Hypocrites

On one occasion a president of the United States has been known to solicit the financial assistance of a great railroad leader, whose railroad lines the executive department might hold either a stern or mild and gentle sway. The presidential attitude was gentle and polite, but firm and insistent.

Like the hypocrites of old who loved to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, who prated of their virtues and gave thanks that they were not as other men, so have corrupt republican leaders covered their vile misdeeds by hypocritical professions of righteousness.

In jeopardizing our form of government and those dearly bought liberties which the fathers therein secured to us, the republican apostles and promoters of misrule, federal usurpation and corruption threaten the very foundations of the greatest cathedral built by modern civilization.

Should Be Destroyed

For their crimes against American citizens the present leaders of the republican party should be destroyed, for making and discharging the bargain to take care of tariff-protected
