Our Correspondents

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS.

(By A. C. Howlett.) County commissioner James Owens was among us last Saturday. Mrs. Middlebush and her son Clarence of Trail were business visitors among us Saturday. Gus Nichols had a runaway last Saturday his horse took fright and went dashing down the street toward the depot, breaking the shafts and harness considerable. Frank Johnson and his son were also among us last Saturday. Nichols & Co. have completed their lee plant and are turning out about 1600 pounds a day. They have built a wood building on the rear of their brick to cover their gasoline engine and a part of the machinery and have things fixed up fine. O. C. Davis reports that he butchered a 16 months old calf that dressed 424 pounds, that is some calf for its age. The dance given by the Eagle Point ball team last Friday night was a grand success. I heard one man say that there were so many there that they could hardly find room to dance. There were about ninety tickets sold I understand although I have not been able to learn definitely the number. W. E. Hammel attended the dance and the next morning went to Medford. Merrill and Marvin Goode twin brothers were pleasant callers last Saturday. George Givens, Henry French and Ed Foster were doing business with our merchants Saturday. Mr. J. R. Henderson who has a homestead on Reese creek was badly hurt last Saturday morning he was helping Mr. Ed Conley raise a barn, the two men were working together, and Mr. Conley was on top of the frame work about twenty feet high and let an eight pound hammer fall it striking Mr. Henderson in the back about half way between the neck and the hips, and he, Mr. Conley rushed to town for medical aid but I have not been able to learn the particulars as to the result, as I have been away to Agate and Table Rock Sunday afternoon and Monday forenoon, but if I can learn more will give it next time. Henry Meyers and son of Lake creek were pleasant callers Saturday. T. F. Ayres, wife and daughter, Mrs. Newport were visiting their daughter and sister, Rosa Saturday while in town. T. L. Cramwell of Grants Pass called Saturday evening to make arrangements to have his wife stop at the Sunny Side for a week so that she can recuperate her health. Rev. Lamar preached his farewell sermon Sunday, he has been pastor of the Baptist church here for the last three and a quarter years and in making his closing remarks Sunday morning, spoke of the strong ties existing between himself and his charge, and how with regrets he was leaving them, and also paid his church a compliment by stating that they had contributed more toward the maintenance of the church, in proportion to their ability than any other church in the bounds of the Rogue River Baptist association. Mr. Lamar, while not what would be called a fluent preacher is looked upon in these parts as a good devoted Christian gentleman and is a good pastor, and leaves many warm friends behind him. He goes from here to take charge of the Central Point-Merlin work. He will be succeeded by a man by the name of Simmins. Thomas and Lyle Carlton of Ashland were pleasant callers Sunday. Owing to the rain the ball boys did not play last Sunday. The next time I will tell of the Table Rock meeting. Medford Printing company carry a full line of legal blanks.

EDEN PRECINCT ITEMS

Ed Hamlin of Eden valley was in Phoenix Tuesday. C. Carey of North Talent spent Sunday and Monday in Ashland. Mrs. Bert Pechey visited her grandmother Mrs. Stancliff Saturday. Dr. Frank Roberts of Myrtle creek was visiting his father and brother in North Talent the last of the week. J. S. Spitzer and wife of Talent were in Medford Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Reese of Ashland visited home folks in North Talent Sunday. Mrs. James Morton of Phoenix left for California last Thursday. Miss Sybil Fish, who has lately returned from school at Oakland, Calif., is visiting Mrs. Joe Rader.

CENTRAL POINT ITEMS.

Mr. Duncan returned from a northern trip Tuesday morning. Mrs. Court Hall of Medford spent Tuesday here. A. B. Cornell and Mr. Trimble of Grants Pass spent Tuesday in our city. Died Tuesday at 10:30 a. m., Mark Hetherly at the residence of his grandmother, Mrs. Julia Owens, funeral was held this afternoon. The burial took place at the Central Point cemetery. Little Lois Grim daughter of councilman D. C. Grim, has been quite ill for several days. Our tonorial artist, S. E. Boswell, has let the contract for a beautiful new bungalow. Mrs. G. W. Stacey and two daughters, Alberta and Bessie of Beagle left for Dunsmuir, Calif., last Thursday.

DEBENGER GAP ITEMS.

Walter Chapman of Beagle's was a business visitor at Central Point last Monday. E. Kirchgessner M.D. of Riverdale was a professional visitor at Gold Hill last Friday and Norman Gage of Debeneger Gap was a business visitor at the same place and date. Rex H. Lammman, ex-editor of the Gold Hill News, visited from last Friday until Monday with Dr. Kirchgessner of the Riverdale ranch and also friends at the Debeneger Gap ranch. Mrs. G. W. Stacey and two daughters, Alberta and Bessie of Beagle left for Dunsmuir, Calif., last Thursday.

RIVERSIDE RIPPLES

Mrs. McQuilken of Ashland is visiting with Mrs. Gay and Miss Harper. Mr. Stine of Medford was at Riverside Monday taking fire insurance. Mrs. I. T. Galligar, R. C. Stead and G. B. Alden insured with him. Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Nye, the former's father and Mrs. G. B. Alden were calling on Mr. and Mrs. Hare Sunday. Also, in the same locality another 40 acre gold mining proposition, with 10 acres of hay grain and potatoes, 4-room house, fine springs, daily mail, and the 40 acres goes for $1000. Those who really wish to sell are marking their property with me where it is attractive, and I am finding the buyers. City property for sale and exchange for property in the valley. Mrs. Woolvorton, Miss Bertha Woolvorton and Miss Anna McKeown went to Rogue River Monday to attend the ice cream social given by the ladies of the Rogue River Improvement club. Mr. Kalteier and his uncle from Omaha were Sunday callers at the home of Mrs. Gay and Miss Harper. They are touring the west and say that Rogue River valley is ahead of any part of the country they have visited and they were very much pleased with this particular part of the valley. Miss Vera Miller of Gold Hill was calling on Riverside friends Monday. Mr. R. C. Stead is still adding to the beauty of his place. He now has the cement steps finished, a cement walk and a very pretty fence across the front of the yard. Mr. H. B. Nye has two very rare plants which he carefully transplanted from the back yard to a prominent place at the front of the house. Since they have fully developed they prove to be Nicotiana Tabacum and Verbascum Thapsus otherwise known as tobacco and common Mullein. Mrs. W. W. Hittle returned Sunday from Portland where she attended the Rose festival and visited a sister the past two weeks. Mr. I. T. Galligar was in Medford Saturday to settle insurance claims on his house which burned to the ground recently. All claims were satisfactorily settled by the company. Other Medford visitors Saturday were C. D. Woolvorton and H. B. Nye. The Recreation club were out in goodly numbers Thursday in spite of the rain. The club met with Mrs. Woolvorton. Each member gave original ideas on housekeeping. Mrs. Miller read an original poem which was full of wit and humor and showed that we have not yet discovered all of our local poets. Each lady gave her favorite cake recipe for the rest to add to their collection of good things and Miss Woolvorton and Mrs. Miller gave some excellent musical selections, both vocal and instrumental. The hostess then served most excellent refreshments. Next meeting will be July 18 with Mrs. G. B. Alden.
