

TAMMANY BOLTS TO CHAMP CLARK ON TENTH BALLOT

BALTIMORE, June 29.—A sensational break in the New York delegation gave that state's ninety votes to Champ Clark on the tenth ballot in the democratic national convention this morning, carrying the speaker to 554 out of the 1088 votes, but left him still 170 votes short of the two-thirds necessary to a choice. The balloting continued at an early hour this morning with the Clark forces outwardly confident and the Wilson managers doggedly asserting the final break would come to the New Jersey governor.

The ninth ballot showed a gain of three and a half for Clark. Wilson gained one, Underwood lost a half and Harmon three. When the roll in the tenth was reached on New York there was a hush that preceded the announcement. Then Murphy announced: "New York casts her 81 for Champ Clark."

The rest of the announcement was drowned in the uproar that swept the hall. The Clark people with a yell leaped to their chairs and the demonstration was under way. Missouri's standard left its place, Arkansas followed, and Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky and a dozen other states fell into line in the parade around the hall. The band played "Tammany," which helped to increase the uproar. Half a dozen Clark banners appeared and soon the aisles were filled with a struggling mass of yelling enthusiasts. The parade became a riot.

When someone tried to tear the Massachusetts standard out of the struggle began to look serious. It was forced back into place, only to appear a few minutes later in the parade. During its height there were a number of fist fights. The demonstration continued twenty-one minutes before the roll call could be resumed. Then Murphy concluded his announcement, "and under the unit rule cases 99 for Clark." Another outburst followed this statement.

A counter demonstration in favor of Wilson followed the Clark demonstration. Bryan entered the hall during its progress and the cheering became deafening. As soon as the uproar was quieted the roll call proceeded until Oklahoma was reached. One of the delegates started to declare he believed Clark would win, but the others of his delegation declared they would not be given to be dragged around by Tammany Hall and intended to keep on voting for Wilson. This started a Wilson demonstration.

When it was at its height Bryan entered the hall, wearing a look of determination. The delegates surrounded him to counsel, but he ignored them. He gazed at the wild disorder, finally moving over to the seats of the Oregon delegation, which led to the belief that when that state was called he would endeavor to secure recognition and make a speech. When the demonstration had lasted thirty-five minutes the noise began to cease and again the call of the roll proceeded.

The subsequent ballots showed little change in the relative positions of the candidates after the New York ninety delegates had swung to Clark. After the announcement of the twelfth ballot at 3:05 a. m. the convention adjourned until 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon. The candidates on the twelfth ballot stood: Clark 549, Wilson 354, Underwood 123, Harmon 29, Marshall 31, Kern 1, Bryan 1, not voting 1.

When Kansas was called it developed that the delegation was trying to break its instructions, and the chairman admitted that the delegates wanted to vote nine for Clark to eleven for Wilson, but that the instructions demanded that two-thirds of the delegates agree on a change before it could be ordered. The Clark men still retained control under the instructions and insisted on the twenty votes being voted for Clark. The Wilson men insisted that Wilson was the second choice of the convention which elected the delegates.

CHAUTAUQUA OPENS AT ASHLAND NEXT TUESDAY, JULY 2

Tuesday, July 24, is the opening day of the Twentieth Annual Assembly of the Southern Oregon Chautauqua. The program this year is "chuck full" of strong attractions and has enough of all kinds of good things to suit the young and the old, the music lover, the fellow who likes sense and the fellow who enjoys nonsense; it is certainly an all-round program and every number is high class. The Chautauqua for years has been advertising to better each year than ever before, and it looks as though they intended to make good their promise this year and have a lot extra besides.

The Assembly opens with the Chicago Operatic Co. who hold for two whole days, four programs. No company now in this country has gained such notable comment from critics of music. Aside from the brilliance of the ensemble, each of the artists has achieved no small degree of personal prominence on the concert stage. On the 5th and 5th, the Schumann Quintet hold forth; this aggregation has in it four men who played for many years in the great Thomas Orchestra of Chicago and needless to say they "are up and coming." Later on in the session come Byron's Troubadours who have been exceedingly popular on the Chautauqua platform.

Aside from the musical features of the Assembly, the program is replete with lectures by many notable men and women including William Spurgeon of London, Frank P. Sadler, the Ben Lindsey of Chicago, Charles Edward Russell who gives the better side of Socialism, Mrs. Florence Atkins of Nashville, Tenn. One of the most interesting and unique entertainments on the list is that of McCormick and his Scotch Collie dog Bronte, the smartest dog in the world. Fred Emerson Brooks, the poet humorist, will also be a strong card. Prof. Larimore, the Physical Director of the San Diego Y. M. C. A. has charge of the Boys' and Girls' clubs throughout the Assembly and will put on the big closing event, the big annual "circus."

The Assembly has added a new feature this year in the story teller, Miss Dougherty of Kansas City, who is here for all the session; specially attractive to the children and the parents. Miss Dougherty is hired for the whole school year by the School Board of Kansas City for just this particular line of work.

CORNELL WINS 'VARSITY EIGHT'

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., June 29.—Cornell won the varsity eight, Wisconsin second, Columbia third, Syracuse fourth, Stanford last.

The six crews got away together, but Syracuse soon took a slight lead. Wisconsin then forged ahead, taking a lead of a boat-length. Stanford was last.

As they cleared the half mile Wisconsin was first. Syracuse was next and Cornell was in third place. Stanford splashed badly in the first half mile.

At the mile and three-quarters, Cornell took the lead, Syracuse second and Wisconsin third. The others were close together but Stanford was struggling behind the field.

At the two miles Cornell led by one length.

Official time 19:21 2-5.

WITNESS SAW JUDGE HANFORD WHILE DRUNK

SEATTLE, Wash., June 29.—"I saw Judge Hanford intoxicated—he was staggering toward me as I was standing one Sunday in September or October in 1911 in front of the public library. This was about six o'clock in the evening. His condition was such that he was either very drunk or very ill. He staggered from one side of the street to the other. I did not know Judge Hanford but I observed his staggering walk for some distance, once he danced off into the gutter."

This was the testimony of John Bathurst, for five years United States commissioner at Tanana, Alaska, and now city weight master at Seattle, this morning before the congressional committee investigating the Hanford impeachment charges, in answer to a series of questions propounded to him both by the investigators and E. C. Hughes, of counsel for Hanford. Bathurst preceded this morning by R. E. McFarland, former clerk of the superior court in Tacoma, and A. M. Oleson, an insurance agent who was formerly in the employ of the Burns Detective Agency. McFarland's testimony concluded the inquiry into the Oleson case.

EXPECT DEADLOCK TO CONTINUE OVER INTO NEXT WEEK

BALTIMORE, June 29.—That New York expects the deadlock to last over next week was indicated when Secretary Smith directed all the delegates to retain rooms until further notice.

While this was going on a number of Underwood leaders got after the Alabama congressman on the telephone. They were said to believe they could not hold his delegates together for him much longer and wanted him to say to whom the votes were to be swung if the break came. The sixteenth ballot being without result, the seventeenth ballot was ordered:

It resulted Clark 545, Wilson 362 1/2, Underwood 112 1/2, Harmon 29, Marshall 30, Kern 4 1/2, Bryan 1; not voting 3 1/2.

CHANGES SLIGHT; FIFTEENTH BALLOT WITH NO CHOICE

BALTIMORE, June 29.—There was no change in the fifteenth ballot until Maine came. Clark gained three votes, the state dividing, Clark 1, Wilson 8.

In North Carolina, Clark gained 1 1/2 votes, in Tennessee Clark gained two votes.

Alaska went solid for Clark, a gain of two from the Wilson ranks. Wilson came within one-sixth of a vote of reaching the one-third mark in the delegates with his vote. His managers freely asserted he would get this on the next ballot, thus placing Wilson in a position effectively to prevent Clark getting the two-thirds vote needed to nominate.

Underwood gained one from Clark in Connecticut on the sixteenth ballot. Idaho's vote was challenged but Governor Hawley insisted that the delegation was instructed to vote as a unit and that it could not split its votes. Chairman James ruled that the state-convention instructions committed the delegation to vote for Clark as long as they had a "reasonable hope that Clark could be nominated."

MOST REMARKABLE GUN IN WORLD

WASHINGTON, June 29.—The most remarkable gun in the world is just now receiving its tryouts at the army aviation camp, at College park, Md. Probably Uncle Sam will accept it as an official arm, and man its fleet of aeroplanes with it.

The gun is the invention of Lieut. Col. I. N. Lewis, of the army. It is a rapid-fire arm, manufactured especially for aeroplanes. It is small enough and light enough—weight 25 pounds—to be carried on the lap of a passenger in a biplane. Moreover, it is the only air-cooled rapid fire gun ever invented. It looks almost like a toy, but tests by officers unfamiliar with its mechanism and not used to firing at targets from the air, have proven its deadliness.
