EAGLE POINT EAGLETS.

(By A. C. Howlett.)

Last Wednesday afternoon when last wrote for the Mail Tribune promised the readers that the next time I wrote I would give an account of some of the happenings in Eagle Point at the Fourth of July, but before I begin on that subject will men tion some of the things that happened that day. One important incident being the increase in the family of Mr. and Mrs. von der Hellen. Dr. Hott reports that a new baby girl came into that family and that the new arrival is fine and healthy and that the mother is doing finely, and we all know that Grandpa von der Hellen is just as proud as he can be.

That same evening a man giving his name as M. W. Pratt, a traveling lecturer, representing himself as a Free Methodist minister, lectured to a few of our citizens, taking for his subject "From the Home to the Gutter and From the Gutter to the Pulpit." In his lecture he gave : sketch of his life, telling how he fell into the habit of drinking, gambling and other forms of vice, and blamed our system of family government for it to a great extent, for his fall. After which he told us that we ought all of us vote the prohibition ticket and incidentally remarked that he paid his own way, paid full fare on the railroads, etc., and suggested that if any of us had a mind to we could hand him what we saw fit to help him along in his work, and although he gave a plain talk and said some good things, some of us thought that it would have looked better for him to have come with properly accredited upon by a stranger.

Mr. and Mrs. Hildreth Sr., of Butte Falls, and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Nelles and daughter, Miss Alma., spent the night of the third with us and on the morning of the third started for their home on Flounce Rock. Mr. Nellenow owns what is known as the Flounce Rock ranch, one of the lovely spots in Southern Oregon.

Prof. Charles E. Johnson and Miss Mary Goode also spent Wednesday night at the Sunny Side.

Rev. Simmons, our new Baptist minister, arrived on Wednesday to take charge of the church here. He has a wife and three children and expects to fill the pulpit here every charge of the work at Brownsboro

Well, the morning broke on us as an ideal morning and by the time the cocks were notifying the people of Eagle Point that another day was for that great events of the day. In a very short time all was bustle and more the farmers began to arrive and began to come into the Sunny Side of the prohibition party. stable, and by 10 o'clock every available space was taken for teams and I inquired if there was not room at the livery stable and was told that everything was "chuckablock." By the time I had all the horses cared for the man that generally attends to the barn was ill so I had to take his place. By the time mentioned the crowd began to gather for dinner, for Mrs. Howlett had announced that that she would commence to serve dinner at 11:30 a. m. and I was kept busy entertaining the guests and anhad eaten and I had eaten my dinner it was time to go to the ball grounds, in the forenoon, which resulted in the tire from a $20,000.00 ranch. Everything passed off very near the north school, nice lot, with pleasantly, and the boys strove hard fruit and trees. Harvey Smith caught the greased pig, and Dave Smith, his brother, bit the man in the face four times with eggs that looked through a hole in the canvas. The driving was a very tame affair, and the horse racing was not much of an attraction. The barbeened meat seemed to go abegging. not many liked it and the free meats did not take, for most of the people who did not go to the hotels brought their lunches with them or went to private families to eat. The celebration has been a grand advertisement for Engle Point as hundreds of people were here for the first time. The different places were well patronized and Spikers opera house was simply packed most of the day and night both, while at night the platform was well patronized at night More anon.
