

GRILL HINES AS SENATORMAKER LORIMER CASE

Bitter Excoriation of Lumber Magnate as "Egotistical Monger of Bribes" Made by Reed of Missouri, Who Scores Seators.

Conspiracy Before the Act and Good Fellowship After With Self-Confessed Bribe Giver by Lorimer.

WASHINGTON, July 11.—With packed galleries and an attentive audience on the floor, Senator William E. Lorimer of Illinois this afternoon made his appeal to the senate to retain his seat in that body. He closed the debate and for the second time made a personal defense of his right to sit in the senate.

Lorimer was cool and collected and stood behind a desk littered with books, papers and notes. Maps and diagrams formed exhibits which he had ready to use. "I will show that not one vote was corruptly cast for me," declared Lorimer in opening his statement. "The senate was humbugged by my enemies into a second investigation. This is no joke, it is a serious matter. If the senate decides to adopt the recommendations of the minority of the investigating committee it will be a travesty on all civil jurisprudence and a mockery of legal procedure. It will mean that the senate has decided to follow the red flag of anarchy and adopt the principle of that arch-advocate of the recall of judges and judicial decisions.

Assails Newspaper
"If I had a law officer in Cook county who would prosecute violations of the law the knaves and criminals who control the Chicago newspapers would be in the penitentiary. I will prove before I conclude that they should be thus punished."

Lorimer traced an alleged conspiracy by which he said the owners of certain Chicago newspapers in 1895 sought to "loot" the school fund.

The "net robbery" by the Chicago Tribune, the senator declared, was $71,000 a year. The lease runs for 99 years and the "robbery," he alleged, would aggregate "$65,000,000 at the end of that time."

Lorimer cited other figures, which, he said, involved the Chicago Record-Herald, and declared:

"Mr. Lawson would be in the penitentiary if the district attorney would only prosecute him and if he wasn't owned by the press trust of Chicago."

WASHINGTON, July 11.—A bitter excoriation of Edward Hines, the alleged "senator maker" in the Lorimer case, as an "egotistical monger of bribes" was the dramatic contribution of the senate on Lorimer's right to his seat, furnished this afternoon by Senator Reed of Missouri. He scored senators for "skimming over" Hines' connection with the

JURY TRIAL FOR CONTEMPT CASES BILL TO PASS

WASHINGTON, July 11.—With democratic leaders expecting to muster a majority for passage of the measure late this afternoon the house resumed today consideration of the Clayton bill providing jury trials in contempt cases where the offense is not committed in the presence of the court.

Chairman Clayton, in charge of the bill, announced that the democrats had the vote to pass the measure, despite bitter opposition from the republicans. It was his plan, immediately after the vote on the contempt bill, to call up the Archbald impeachment resolution.

Although it has not yet been decided by the senate whether in the light of what is believed to be the practical certainty of the house passing the impeachment articles, the trial shall be held at this session, the house managers are making all preparations to that end.

America landed first and second places in the shotput with both hands, Ralph Rose defeating Pat McDonald, the big New York policeman. Nicklander, the Finnish heavyweight, was third. During the first half hour this afternoon America scored ten points in the 200 meter final and the shotput and now leads with a total of 82. Sweden is next with a total in all events of every character of 56.

Portland Boy Wins

The official figures for the shotput distances were:

F. T. Nelson of Yale and Marc S. Wright of Dartmouth tied for second place.

While the pole vault was being completed the gymnastic finals were finished, Italy winning first; Hungary second, and England third.

The American entrants for the Marathon, which will be run next Sunday, stopped active training today and will take only nominal exercise until the time for the start of the big race arrives. The chances of the Americans are declared by the experts to be very poor, and the British sharpshooters that none of them will show in the first twelve hours.

However, none of these same experts gave Johnny Hayes a chance in the London Marathon, which he won, so the Americans are not worrying.

According to the experts, Cockery of Canada and Wide of Sweden seem to have the best chance to win.

TURKISH MINISTER RESIGNS BECAUSE OF PEACE TALK

VIENNA, July 11.—High officials say today they believe War Minister Chekret Pasha of Turkey resigned as a protest against his fellow ministers' determination to end the war in Tripoli by concessions to Italy. DENEEN DEFIES ROOSEVELT PARTY; WILL FACE RIVAL

CHICAGO, July 11.—Governor Charles S. Deneen of Illinois in Chicago today in conference with his lieutenants is expected to announce his final intention to defy the "bull moose" party and refuse adherence to Roosevelt. That this action will be promptly met by the third party placing complete state and congressional tickets in the field in Illinois this fall is practically certain.

Medill McCormick's statement yesterday, made after a conference with Colonel Roosevelt, was regarded as a challenge to Deneen either to come into the Roosevelt fold or face a rival republican candidate at the polls.

At a conference last night, the old LaFollette crowd and the Roosevelt adherents compromised their differences and a call was issued for a state conference in Chicago next Monday. At that time a date will be set and a call issued for the state convention to select delegates to the Roosevelt national convention, August 5.

With Gov. Deneen's decision before Monday's conference, action probably will be taken at that time on a Roosevelt state ticket for Illinois.

SIX MINERS DEAD BY GAS EXPLOSION

WHEELING, W. Va., July 11.—Six men are dead as a result of a gas explosion of the Panama mine of the Ben Franklin Coal company, at Moundsville, ten miles south of here. There were 100 men working in the mine at that time, but only nine of these were in the entry where the explosion occurred and three of these were rescued shortly after the explosion, probably fatally burned.

At 12:40 the bodies of Joe Caraloonis and Joe Latachalski were removed from the Panama mine, both dead. The four other bodies, were in sight of the rescuers.

IOWA SITS DOWN UPON ITS GOVERNOR AND CHEERS TEDDY

DES MOINES, Iowa, July 11.—All Iowa today is talking of the dramatic closing of the Republican state platform convention last night when, after nominating two justices of the supreme court, the convention set down upon Governor B. F. Carroll, the only Taft man on the resolutions committee of eleven, and tabled his amendment to the progressive resolutions to endorse the Chicago platform by a vote of 774 1-2 to 334 1-2. Not discouraged, Carroll tried to have the platform amended to endorse "our national leader" but this was bootled down.

Inadvertently Carroll, in his speech warning the progressives that they might lose the legislature and defeat Senator Kenyon for re-election if they angered the Taft men, mentioned the name of Roosevelt and a demonstration followed. Banners were swung, T. R. banners were unfurled and the delegates cheered a picture of Roosevelt, hung from the gallery, for 15 minutes.

The platform is ultra-progressive, endorsing presidential primaries, elections of United States senators by the people, the initiative and referendum and even proposes to submit woman suffrage to a vote of the people.

On plank attacks the Chicago convention methods and absolves voters who refuse to vote for President Taft. Republicans are urged to support the state, legislative and county tickets, but can vote as they please for president with a clear conscience.

Following the convention 300 Roosevelt men, nearly all delegates, held a Roosevelt meeting and issued a call for a state convention, to be held July 24, at which time delegates to the third party convention in Chicago, and presidential electors will be chosen.

OROZCO CHEERED BY REBELS AT JUAREZ

EL PASO, Tex., July 11.—General Pascual Orozco who arrived in Juarez shortly before midnight last night was cheered by 3000 rebels. Rebel soldiers today are guarding the border for two miles above and below Juarez. Rebel leaders say it is to prevent deserters from taking advantage of General Huerta's offer of amnesty and surrendering to the Mexican consul in El Paso, but it is stated freely in Juarez that the patrol is to prevent General Orozco from fleeing to American soil.

BRYAN'S GALLANTRY ELIMINATED TAFT FROM DENUNCIATION

HELENA, Mont., July 11.—That William J. Bryan, at the last moment, eliminated from his famous Ryan-Belmont-Morgan resolution, at Baltimore, a denunciation of President Taft was the statement made here today by Robert Rose, former private secretary to the Nebraskan. Consideration for the feelings of Mrs. Taft caused Bryan to take this action. Rose was Bryan's confidential stenographer at Baltimore. He said today:

"As dictated to me originally by Mr. Bryan the resolution contained a caustic reference to the Chicago convention's steamroller and denounced Taft as the beneficiary of such methods and as the recipient of favors from the interests." When he entered the hall that night with the report Bryan was advised of the presence of Mrs. Taft in the hall. Disliking to do anything offensive to the first lady of the land, Bryan cut out all reference to the president when he presented the resolution. He afterward told me he eliminated this part of his resolution because Mrs. Taft occupied a box and he did not desire to do anything that might tend to humiliate her."

FREE CANAL IS PROTESTED BY GREAT BRITAIN

Government Notified That Proposed Legislation Exemption American Vessels From Tolls at Panama Is Regarded as a Violation of Treaty.

Germany, France and Other Shipping Nations in Accord With England—Canadian Pacific Real Objector.

WASHINGTON, July 11.—Alfred Jones, charge d'affaires of the British embassy here notified Secretary of State Knox today that Great Britain would regard the proposed Panama canal legislation which exempts American vessels from paying tolls, while denying that privilege to vessels of other nations, as a violation of the Hay-Panncocforte treaty.

Jones' letter stated that Great Britain's objections in detail are being forwarded from England.

Great Britain's objection to free use of the Panama canal by American vessels will be outlined in a formal note, expected soon, according to information at the state department today. An indignant protest is not expected, but the British view, alleging unfair discrimination against foreign ships, will be outlined in the note for presentation to the senate.

Consideration in the senate of the Panama canal bill will not be postponed, however, to await the receipt of Great Britain's statement, it was declared today by Senator Brandegee, chairman of the committee in charge of the measure.

Germany, France and other shipping nations are reported to be in accord with the British protest, but are letting John Bull act as spokesman, according to reports at the state department.

It is understood that part of Great Britain's objections are founded on the extensive interests of the Canadian Pacific railway, heavily subsidized by the dominion.

$1,900,000 IN SLUSH FUND 1904 CAMPAIGN

George B. Cortelyou Conveniently Forgets Details as to Who Put Up Coin and Says That Treasurer Bliss Destroyed All Records.

Senate Investigating Committee Tries to Bring Out Facts Regarding Campaign Expenditures for Roosevelt.

WASHINGTON, July 11.—George B. Cortelyou chairman of the republican national committee during the presidential campaign of 1904 was unable to tell the senate investigating committee today where it would be likely to find detailed records of the campaign contributions and expenses of that contest.

Personally, he said, he knew almost nothing about the funds, and he believed the complete records had been destroyed.

Cortelyou testified that he believed the campaign fund in 1904 amounted to a little less than $1,900,000.

Bliss Alone Knew Facts
"Cornelius N. Bliss of New York was treasurer of the committee in 1904," the former cabinet officer said, "and had been treasurer of preceding committees in national campaigns. Mr. Bliss retired from his position as treasurer of the committee before the 1908 campaign. His death occurred last year. At the time of his retirement, I understood he destroyed the records."

Cortelyou said he had heard nothing of the "Harriman fund," raised by the railroad magnate to save New York to the republicans in 1904, until after the close of that campaign. He was not aware that several big insurance companies had contributed $50,000 each to the campaign fund of 1904 until that fact was developed in the investigation of the insurance companies by a committee of the New York legislature.

Protests Ignorance
Senator Clapp asked Cortelyou whether he knew of any contributions by Chauncey M. Depew, J. P. Morgan, George W. Perkins, H. H. Rogers, J. H. Archbald or William Rockefeller of the Standard Oil Company and Speyer & Co., either made by them or in their behalf.

"I did not—I do not recall," were answers made by Cortelyou to all such interrogations.

MARSE HENRY'S ATTACK ANSWERED BY W. J. BRYAN

LINCOLN, Neb., July 11.—Under the caption, "Mount Watterson in Eruption," Bryan's Commoner today replies to the recent bitter editorial attack of Colonel Henry Watterson on William Jennings Bryan. The Commoner's "come-back" says in part:

"Well, Mr. Bryan confesses that he has not tried to please Mr. Watterson—that may account for any popularity Mr. Bryan enjoys. He confesses that he did not consult Mr. Watterson when he made his fight against Judge Parker for temporary chairman. He did not consult Mr. Watterson when he introduced the resolution against Belmont, Ryan and Morgan—wonder if Mr. Watterson feels slighted, like one of the financiers, because he was not included, and Mr. Bryan did not consult Mr. Watterson when he declined to join with Mr. Murphy in nominating a candidate for president.

"Mr. Bryan has pursued the course which seemed to him most calculated to advance the interests of the Democratic party, and, through the Democratic party, the interests of the country. He has done most of his work not only without Mr. Watterson's aid, but in spite of his opposition. He has lived to see the things he has advocated become the accepted doctrines of a great nation, and he awaits without fear the verdict of the people upon his work at Baltimore."
