EAGLE POINT EAGLETS
By A. C. Howlett
Among the items I had left over from my last are the following: Mrs. May Bond of Lakeview, who has been here for some time taking advantage of our healthful climate to try to be cured of rheumatism, and she has so far recovered as to be able to return last Sunday.
George Haker and wife of Medford called for dinner last Monday. Mr. Haker was soliciting for the Valley employment office business and his wife for their rooming house in Medford.
Mr. Elker of Agate has been supplying our neighborhood with a fine lot of Loganberries the past week and he seems to find a ready market.
Mr. and Mrs. Suddath, the lady and gentleman who are engaged to teach our school, were here the last of last week looking over the ground and making arrangement with Professor P. H. Daily to move into their home. They expect to be here by the last of this or the first of next week. Mr. Suddath is employed as principal and his wife is to have charge of the intermediate department, and Miss Mamie Wright will have charge of the primary department. It is not decided as yet whether the school board will elect a teacher for the high school department or not, but as there will be considerable many children who have passed to the high school grade it is thought that perhaps it will be necessary to open up the fourth room.
P. H. Daily, our former principal, moved to Medford on Tuesday. He has been elected to take charge of the Washington school in Medford. While perhaps it may be for the best that we change teachers, still Mr. Daily has during the two years he has taught proved himself to be not only a good school teacher, but a good citizen and a faithful worker in the church and Sunday school, and it is with regrets that we have to tell him farewell, but we have hopes that he may return and live among us again.
B. W. Reed of Dudley, who, with his wife, has been on a trip back to the eastern and middle states visiting friends and relatives, returned last Monday, leaving his wife among her people. She expects to return in September of October. He says that they had a very pleasant trip and found things cheerful, that he missed the most of the extreme hot weather on his return trip.
J. C. Hain of Medford called Tuesday for dinner. He is in the advertising business.
Last Saturday night, the 7th, the Eagle Point lodge of I. O. O. F. installed their new officers as follows: C. S. Painter, N. G.; B. H. Bryant, V. C.; C. A. Bacon, secretary; W. L. Childreth, treasurer; Homer Hass, R. S. N. G.; Norman McQuoid, L. S. N. G.; Clay Cole, R. S. V. G.; W. J. Phillips, L. S. V. N.; G. H. Wamsley, W.; R. G. Brown, C.; Scott Bruce,

NEW TODAY

A party with two fine modern bungalows, and several choice lots and one hundred and forty acres in tracts in the valley would like to trade all of his holdings for an alfalfa ranch either here or in some other good Pacific Coast locality. He has good property, and will give a good trade to someone wanting to retire from a $20,000.00 ranch.
I am prepared to furnish lot and build a bungalow to suit the purchaser. Very little money needed. Call and become acquainted with the proposition.
A five room house on Maple street, near the north school, nice lot, with fruit and trees. Sewer and water on place and paid, is offered for $1050.00. This will make some one a good little home and get away from the rent proposition.
Five acres of bearing fruit in the Orchard Home district, near the city. Baldwin and Spitzenberg and Newtown apples, and a fine assortment of peaches and pears, and some almonds. One of the best paying orchards in the valley. $3600.00.
