LOSS OF MEMORIES FOIL SLUSH PROBE

WASHINGTON, July 12.—Baffled in its search for the campaign contributions in the year of 1904 by the defective memories of both the republican and democratic managers and that their testimony that all records had been destroyed the senate investigating committee today faced a dilemma.

The committee decided today to continue its hunt. George R. Sheldon, who was treasurer of the national republican committee in 1904, will be called shortly. While no definite arrangements have yet been made, it was understood Postmaster General Frank H. Hitchcock, Taft's manager in 1908 and Norman E. Mack of New York, Bryan's general in the same campaign, will be called.

BLONDE BOSS ROASTS BRYAN

contributed to the campaign of 1904. Of course that came from the common people, of whom he is the guardian. None of it came from the trusts or malefactors of great wealth."

Resuming his criticism of President Taft, Lorimer read further from Taft's letter to Colonel Roosevelt, in which he said: "I want to win and so do you."

"Was I warned?" exclaimed Lorimer. "Was I given a sword and told to defend myself?"

Nation Against Him

"No, they wanted to sneak up in the dark of the night with a club and beat out their enemies' brains. That is the way they wanted to win. Was ever any mortal more completely surrounded by conspirators and intrigue? The president of the United States, the ex-president, William J. Bryan, the trust press of the country—all joined in a conspiracy to destroy one man and satisfy the malice of the most corrupt set of newspaper owners known to this country."

"The men prosecuting this case are capable of conspiring to do anything, even to taking a life, to destroy the man marked for elimination."

Discussion of the Helm committee was then taken up by Lorimer. He said the men composing it were "creatures of Governor Deneen," and the press trust. Healy, his counsel, he said, was the most bitter enemy of Lorimer in Illinois.

"He knew the political situation," continued Lorimer, "and was in a position to ferret out fraud and corruption. The committee was not appointed until the senate adopted its resolution declaring Lorimer entitled to his seat. Then began the shameful hippodrome, the calling of Hines and the asking questions to bring out testimony that might be impeached by Funk and Kohlsaat. And then came the priestly Kohlsaat, the man who never betrayed a confidence, and he was interrogated concerning his editorial relating to the alleged $100,000 corruption fund."

Senate a Violator

"I believe the senate violated a fundamental law of this country by appointing another committee of investigation, but I have no complaint to make of that action."

The minority view of the investigating committee was next taken up. Lorimer declaring he "would point out mis-statements of fact, evidently made for the purpose of poisoning senators."

It was explained by Lorimer that he did not take the stand during the first inquiry because he believed it "beneath the dignity of a senator to take notice of insinuations."

Addressing himself to Senator Crawford, (republican, South Dakota) it was explained that Governor Deneen evaded answering a telegram of inquiry sent by Crawford. "I was taught at my mother's knee that to act a lie, is more heinous than to tell one," the "Blond Boss" exclaimed.

Speaking Weakens Him

After speaking an hour, Lorimer visibly weakened. He was bathed in perspiration. His hair was tousled in moist disorder. It was with great physical effort that he continued. His voice grew husky, and he frequently leaned on his desk, in apparent exhaustion.

"Every member of the Illinois general assembly had money at times," Lorimer continued. "It is ridiculous to create the impression that all of this was given for Lorimer votes."

The so-called "confessors" were discussed by Lorimer. He began with Charles A. White.

"If you have any case here, you must stand or fall on White's testimony," the senator declared. "It is in the record that White is perjurer, admitted under oath. Lee O'Neil Browne was charged with bribing White to vote for Lorimer when he was on trial in Cook county. All efforts of the state's attorney were directed to proving the fact. The whole case depended on whether White told the truth."

Discusses Betrayers

The statement in the minority report that four members of the legislature confessing to having been bribed was bitterly denounced by Lorimer.

"This is not innuendo, or insinuation, but a deliberate statement, which is not supported by any facts in the record," said Lorimer. "Only one man—White—confessed he received money as a bribe to vote for Lorimer."

SOCIETY GIRL DANCES IN SILK ROBE

WEST END, LONG BRANCH, N. J. July 12.—The SPIRIT of the Elkwood race meet in the afternoon spread to the Takamassee hotel in the evening and resulted in one of the most peculiar contests ever held in the West End. Soon after dinner a discussion arose between two young men at the hotel as to which of two young women possessed more dinner gowns.

It was decided to leave the question to the young women, who were Miss Trixie Grossman, daughter of William Grossman of New York, and Miss Rosa Sternlicht, also of New York city. A purse was made up and Miss Grossman and Miss Sternlicht agreed to go to their rooms and return to the ballroom, where a dance was in progress, as many times as they could change into different gowns.

After appearing in 38 different gowns Miss Grossman did not appear again as quickly as Miss Sternlicht in the 39th, and her supporters feared she had lost until she came down in the elevator in a bathing suit. Judges who had been appointed agreed that the bathing suit was a gown. After this decision Miss Sternlicht announced that the 39th was her last available frock and that her bathing suit was a Deal Casino.

The judges were sure that Miss Grossman had nothing to wear after her bathing suit and were about to declare a tie, with all bets off, when Miss Grossman, who had disappeared again, walked into the ballroom with a gown which was so absolutely different from any that had appeared that she was immediately awarded the decision.

ERROR DEPRIVES PRESIDENT OF PLACE ON NEVADA BALLOT

CARSON CITY, Nev., July 12.—President Taft may be without representation on the official ballot of the republican party of Nevada at the November election by an oversight which now seems irremediable. The state convention which elected delegates to the Chicago convention neglected to nominate presidential electors, and how to get their electors on the ballot is the problem of the regular organization.

Party leaders conferred today as to the possibility of holding another convention, but they fear the Roosevelt forces on another trial might capture the organization. A petition naming the delegates to the progressive convention to be held at Chicago was circulated today and freely signed by well-known republicans.

SAMUEL GOMPERS GREETS GOVERNOR WOODROW WILSON

SEA GIRT, N. J., July 12.—Governor Woodrow Wilson was in conference for more than an hour Thursday with Samuel Gompers and other officials of the American Federation of Labor. After the meeting Mr. Gompers said:

"We discussed with the governor the platform adopted by the Baltimore convention and expressed ourselves as being in entire accord with the planks which apply to legislation affecting the rights of the working people. I think the platform goes as far as a great political party can declare under present industrial and political conditions—that is, with any degree of assurance of being enacted into law."

Mr. Gompers said that he and his colleagues were acting as "envoys of the American laboring man." When he was asked whether the Federation of Labor would support the democratic ticket, he said:

"We are going to report to our colleagues and they will make a declaration, or authorize us to make it."

He described the republican platform as "a magnificent piece of literary production and punctuation, but insofar as it affects the working people and their rights it is conspicuously lacking."

Smuggler Confesses.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., July 12.—According to federal officers here, Billy Gerald, alleged smuggler of Chinese, has confessed and has divulged the name of the leader of a band of smugglers that has given the immigration authorities grave concern for more than a year.

According to Gerald's alleged confession, more than 2,000 Chinese have been smuggled into America through southern California each year for half a decade. It was also intimated that well known persons were connected with the work.

Gerald was captured early this week. Federal officers are patrolling the Catalina channel for other suspects.

S.S.S. CURES ECZEMA, ACNE, TETTER ETC.

While Eczema, Acne, Tetter, Salt Rheum, etc., are troubles which affect the skin, their source is far deeper than the outside cuticle. These afflictions are caused by irritating humors, or uratic acid in the blood. Such impurities inflame and irritate the delicate network of fibrous tissue which lies just beneath the surface of the outer skin, and the inflammatory discharge thus produced is forced out through the pores and glands, and is continually scratched off the flesh is left raw and more susceptible to other infection. It can very readily be seen then that to produce a cure the circulation must be purified and cleansed. This S. S. S. will do. It goes down to the very bottom, removes all humors and impurities, neutralizes the excessive acids of the system and in this way removes the cause of disease. Local application of the system and in this way soothes the irritation and assist in keeping the skin clean; they never produce a cure because such treatment does not reach the blood. S. S. S. restores to the thin, acid blood all its lost properties, makes it pure and rich and enables it to nourish the skin and keep it soft, smooth and healthy. Book on Skin Diseases and any medical advice free to all who write.
