WOLGAST WANTS

LOS ANGELES, Cal., July 12. The proposed return match on Labor Day between Ad Wolgast and Joe Rivers is in a precarious position today. Promoter McCarey, while still an understanding, has almost given up hope of staging the match.

According to persons close to Me Carey, the obstacle in the way of the match is the champion's demand. Wolgast, it is understood, is determined to ask far greater remnneration for his services than he received for the July 4 bout, $15,500. Rivers is ready to sign at the figure offered by McCarey.

Wolgast is known to have received several offers for battles between now and September 15. He is coasidering several propositions from New York and New Orleans promot ers, besides one from James Coffroth to meet Rivers in San Francisco.

Despairing of getting the lightweights together again, McCarey has lannehed plans for another Attell-Kilbane fight Labor Day. He expects to hear from Kilbane tomorrow.

NEW TODAY

We have calls for places every day and if they are not filled it is because we do not have the right place for the right party. Perhaps your place is the one we want listed. Several late calls are for bargains.

A party wants to buy a five room house, with enough fruit for the family and wants it near paved street. Is willing to pay $1000 or perhaps more for the right place.

Another wants a six to eight room house. It need not be anything fine, but must be a bargain. Any one having a place of this kind, and who would rather have the money, should not fail to list it.

A party has five fine sightly lots near Summit avenue and they will be sold for $1000.00 or the owner will sell any part of them. This is one of the sightly locations in Medford and anyone wanting an investment would do well to look them over.
