Crime of the Senate

WASHINGTON, July 13.—Senator William Lorimer of Illinois was expelled from the senate this afternoon by a vote of 55 to 28. By that overwhelmingly verdict his colleagues found him guilty of having been elected on May 24, 1909, by "corrupt methods and practices."

With Lorimer's dramatic assertion that his expulsion would be "crime of the senate," his colleagues voted nearly 2 to 1 to oust him as a beneficiary of fraud.

Lorimer did not vote on his own case but his aged colleague, Senator Cullom of Illinois, turned against him after having formerly voted to keep him in the senate.

With a smile on his face Lorimer arose from his seat and with a swinging gait walked toward the republican cloak room. As he reached the door, Senator Smoot grasped his hand and some friends from the house
