William Stevens of Gold Hill is in deep mourning over the loss of thirty-eight thoroughbred white Leghorn chicks, which were slain in some mysterious manner over a week ago, during the temporary absence of the family from the ranch which is located in the west end of town. Until the present, the outraged proprietor has kept quiet concerning his loss, hoping to gain some clue to the identity of the parties who perpetrated the outrage. The chicks were released from the coop wherein the owner had penned them, and were evidently killed by blows upon their heads, presumably the work of mischievous youth with air guns. Mr. Stevens had but recently engaged in the poultry business, and the loss of so considerable portion of the spring hatch is a serious setback to his plans for another season.

T. J. James foreman of the composing room of the Oregon Journal is spending a few days in Medford on a vacation, Mrs. James accompanies him.

"MY FIGHT AND I WON" SAYS COLONEL ROOSEVELT

OYSTER Bay, July 15.—"It was my fight and my victory," said Colonel Roosevelt when he learned of the unseating of Lorimer. "The whole thing began when I refused to dine with him at the Hamilton club dinner. If I had sat quietly through that dinner there would have been no division in the senate committee. The whole thing would have been dropped. I made the stand and the fight kept growing on and on."

At the Hamilton club dinner two years ago in Chicago the colonel made a good deal of excitement the day of the dinner by refusing to attend unless the invitation to Lorimer be recalled. He won the point and was urged not to refer to the incident in his speech that night. He refused to heed the advice, however, and assailed Senator Lorimer bitterly.

DESPITE NINTH INNING RALLY MEDFORD LOSES

Grants Pass with the aid of the White oak tree standing near the fence in the left garden of the local ball park won Sunday's game from the local aggregation by a score of 5 to 4. The aforesaid tree converted a home run clout by Antle into a two bagger thereby preventing an even up score at the end of the ninth. But even at that the bases were full when the side was retired by a pop fly to second base.

Medford came to bat at the end of the ninth with a 5 to 2 score against her. The fans had it hoped that a rally couldn't come and were leaving. Then things began to happen which kept the local rooters on their toes.

Isaacs was first up and drove out a fly to deep right but Schmidt playing deep picked it easily. One gone. Then old Ike Butler came up and used his eye. He drew a pass to first. Gill came up and despite an ardent week at Portland connected nicely driving a hot grounder just inside of first base. It happened that the gate at the automobile entrance was open and out through this opening sped the ball to lose itself in the sagebrush.

When it had been found two runs were in. Score: 5 to 4, one down.

Pettis put in Tummy's place for a trout was next up. He tried hard but flew out to Faubian. Two gone.

Then it was that Woodrow Wilson Antle leaped into the breach. He connected and connected right. It looked like a tie score until the oak tree in the left garden took a hand and stopped the ball from going over the fence, converting a clean home run into a two-bagger. But the end was not yet. Miller of Gold Hill came up and walked. Young McFadden heaving for Grants Pass, growing wild. Marshall followed and drew a pass. Bases full. Burgess next up tried to win his own game but after two strikes were called on fouls he could only pop one to second. The game was over with a 5 to 4 score but it was some finish.

Medford opened with Clothier on the mound but the boy had hard luck. Weckler stabbed a good one on Clothier's error got to first. Then Baker landed on an inshoot and Crawford who was on, through a pass, came home. In the second inning Grants Pass got two runs across the plate on a close-foulline decision Umpire Brous calling a ball fair believed by many to have been foul. In the third Young Burgess went in and struck out the first three men to face him. In the fourth he struck out two and fielded a bunt nabbing the man at first. He was going good and kept it up to the close of the game. In the fifth however three hits gave Grants Pass two more runs. Burgess steadied then and save for a two-bagger which Weckler annexed without result, he allowed no more hits but played A-1 ball. He handled the stick in good shape too, getting three clean hits out of five times up and getting one of Medford's four runs.

Medford got her first two runs in the fifth. Marshall, Burgess, Isaacs and Schultz singled in an earned run. Then with the bases full the side was retired.

The score: Grants Pass— AB. R. H. E. Crawford, ss 4 1 0 0 Weckler, 2b 5 1 3 2 Baker, c 3 1 1 0 Holtz, 1b 5 0 0 1 Riggs, 2b 4 0 1 0 Faubian if 5 0 0 0 Sweetland, cf 3 1 1 0 Schmidt rf 4 0 0 0 McFadden, p 4 1 0 1 Total 37 5 6 4

Medford— AB. R. H. E. Schultz, 2b 4 0 1 0 Isaacs, cf 4 0 1 0 Butler, 1b 4 1 0 1 Gill, rf 5 1 2 0 Tummy, 3b 3 0 0 0 Pettis 3b, 7th 2 0 0 1 Antle, if 5 0 2 0 Miller, ss 4 0 1 0 Marshall, c 4 1 2 0 Clothier, p 0 0 0 1 Burgess p 5 1 3 1 Total 40 4 12 4

Summary—Bases on balls, off Clothier, 1; off Burgess, 4; off McFadden, 4. Struck out, by Clothier, 2, by Burgess, 7; by McFadden 5. Home run, Gill. Two base hits, Weckler, 3; Antle 1. Earned runs, Grants Pass, 1; Medford, 1. Left on bases, Grants Pass, 11; Medford, 14. Umpires, Coburn and Brous.

Twenty-five men died on bases. Almost a record. Grants Pass lost 11 this way, Medford 14.

Antle, who plays heady baseball when he wants to, pulled a bad one in the ninth when with two down, with one run needed to tie the score he stole third. The chance should not have been taken. But of course he has for his argument "I got away with it, didn't I?" He did.

The grandstand marveled at Pug's failing to connect with 'em. Antle broke Pug's bat in the third and after that the fisherman couldn't land. Frank though he ought to be at the river anyway—that's where his heart was.

Miller of Gold Hill who played shortstop for Medford, has all the earmarks of a corner. He handles himself well and swings easy at the ball.

Gill got home from Portland in time to rap out a home run.

Rudy Schultz got a hit in the fifth when it was badly needed and robbed a beautiful line drive at second. He is playing A one ball.

Chick won $2.50. Says he had a lunch. He's had 'em before when they didn't pay money.

Shorty Miles showed up in the seventh direct from Portland. Needed a pinch hitter but Shorty didn't feel equal.

Coburn, umpire for Grants Pass, pulled a few raw ones and got in bad with the fans. "Oh, you brother to Bill Taft" yelled one rabid fan, evidently a Roosevelt man.

Marshall caught a star game Sunday working the best yet on the local diamond.

Manager Furson should mark the foul lines and cut the trees. They cost him a game Sunday.

CLARK AND LA FOLLETTE AIDES CONFER WITH WILSON

SEAGIRT, July 14.—Speaker Champ Clark and Governor Woodrow Wilson talked two hours Saturday on legislation pending before the house of representatives. Speaker Clark arrived after the governor had been conversing some time with Charles R. Crane of Chicago and President Van Hise of the Wisconsin university, both prominent supporters of La Follette. Crane said he was going back to Chicago to work for Wilson and was glad to contribute to the

LOVE MESSAGE SADLY CHANGED: SUES TELEGRAPH CO.

NEW YORK, July 15.—An unusual and yet easily explainable error in the transmission of a telegraph message has resulted in a claim for damages against one of the telegraph companies for alienating a young woman's affections. The message as sent by the young man read:

"I love you forever."

When it was delivered to the addressee it read:

"I leave you forever."

Under the circumstances there was nothing for her to do but send back the young man's engagement ring and all his letters and accept another offer of marriage.

The company's defense is that the mistake was not due to negligence, but that the Morse spelling of "love" and "leave" is so much alike that trouble on the wires caused the error.

DECIDE YOURSELF

The Opportunity Is Here, Backed by Medford Testimony

Don't take our word for it. Don't depend on a stranger's statement. Read Medford endorsement. Read the statements of Medford citizens.

And decide for yourself. Here is one case of it:

A Beta 139 Front st., Medford, Ore., says: "I am just as willing to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills today as I was in September 1907 when I publicly told of my experience with them. I suffered from kidney trouble for at least five years and as time passed, I grew worse. Sharp pains darted through the small of my back and sometimes the attacks were so severe that I could hardly stoop. At night my back ached intensely and sound sleep was out of the question. Being told to try Doan's Kidney Pills, I got a supply and they soon gave me relief."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
