It is believed that financial and domestic trouble led the man to take his own life. He recently sold a ranch near Eagle Point for several thousand dollars and is said to have made one or two unfortunate investments with it. He had also become estranged from his wife who was suing him for divorce. He was ing in a vote ordering the paving of for irrigation purposes, George 65 years of age.

ESCAPES FROM M'NEIL'S ISLAND

TACOMA, July 17.-Walter Layman, a federal prisoner serving three years for counterfeiting Seattle last December, escaped the vigilance of the prison guards at the federal penitentiary on McNeil's Island yesterday morning and is still at large. Layman with several other convicts was put to work on the grain field adjoining the prison grounds. While the guard wasn't looking he strayed away. It was several minutes afterwards that the escape became known. The prison siren was immediately blown and a company of guards circled the island, Farmers were notified, Every avenue of escape is being guarded, and it is expected that Layman will be captured before nightfall. ***************

CAMPAIGN PUBLICITY.

EVIDENTLY there is to be no lack of funds in the coffers of the Bandana party. The Mail Tribune, in common with all other daily newspapers in Oregon received a long prepaid press dispatch containing details of the organization of the party at Portland. Needless to say, the money spent with telegraph companies is thrown away. It should be spent with the newspapers to secure gional Chemical company at Ashland publicity.
