

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. George Cook a former resident of Ashland was killed in a runaway at Clavis, N. M., July 15. Her sisters still reside in the valley. John W. Chapman, a half brother of George Merriman of this city is here from Red Lodge, Mont., for a visit. Mr. Chapman was raised in this valley. He was here last, six years ago and sees a great change in the city since then. B. F. Mulkey has returned from a short business trip to Ashland. Hammocks, sporting goods, blue flame, odorless oil stoves, refrigerators, etc. Prices right. Shapleigh Hardware Co., 28 South Central. Mr. and Mrs. John C. Merry are spending a few days in Medford with friends. Charles Brown spent Tuesday in Medford on business. Pasturage at Isaacs' ranch, 59-1 R-4. Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Severs of Talent spent Tuesday with Medford friends. W. R. Coleman and R. B. Dow have returned from a visit at Yreka Cal. Moved to 31 N. Grape street. The Medford Conservatory for music and languages. G. Tallandier, director. Open all summer. Mr. and Mrs. Claude Miles with a party of friends are camping in the Blue Canyon country. A. E. Kellogg, coroner, spent Monday in Medford on business. E. D. Weston, commercial photographer, negatives made any time or place by appointment. Phone M. 1471. Miss Margaret Shearer of Roseburg has returned home after a visit with friends in this city. Reginald H. Parsons has returned from a visit to Seattle. Wanted to trade acreage in Oakdale Park addition for a small house and lot in Medford. W. H. Everhard, 1013 W. 9th, phone 6671. Guy Leonard has returned from a visit with friends at Grants Pass. Fred Wagner formerly editor of the Ashland Tidings spent Monday in Medford on business. Apricots for sale. Telephone Pacific 591-J-1. 104* W. G. Aldenhagen has returned to his San Francisco home after a visit with friends here. Allen Christianson of Trail spent Tuesday in Medford on business. Kodak finishing, the best at Weston's, opposite book store. Miss Gertrude Fay has returned to her home at Klamath Falls after a visit with friends here. Mrs. Alice Falt of Roseburg is in Medford on a short business trip. Carlin & Taylor (John H. Carlin, Glenn O. Taylor), attorneys-at-law, over Jackson County Bank Building, Medford. William J. Cain is in Medford looking for a location. He hails from Wheeling, W. Va. W. W. Anderson of Klamath Falls is in Medford for a visit of a few days. See R. A. Holmes, The Insurance Man, over Jackson County Bank. Ray Lawton of Rockford, Ill., is here for a short visit. He is seeking a western location. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Crane of Grants Pass spent Tuesday in Medford on business. Apricots for sale. Telephone Pacific 591-J-1. 104* Harry Williams of Hill, Cal., is spending a few days with Medford friends. Arthur W. Clark, superintendent of the Clark & Henry Construction company is here looking after company interests for a day or two. Berlin, the ladies' tailor says to the ladies of Medford, "Get The Habit." Wear a Berlin Tailored suit for your own sake. 102* George W. Dunn with a party of friends motored to Medford from Ashland Tuesday. John W. Parker spent Sunday at Crater Lake with friends. S. A. Nowell, ladies' tailor, 4th floor M. F. & H. bldg. Walter Mundy has returned from an automobile trip to Crater Lake and Klamath Falls. Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Beveridge have returned from a trip to Salt Lake City. Apricots for sale. Telephone Pacific 591-J-1. 104* Dr. E. H. Porter with a party of friends has returned from an automobile trip to Crater Lake. Beds, Beds, Beds, $1.00 per week at the Park View Hotel, 123 South Holly. 112 The people of Crescent City are advertising an automobile, baseball and water carnival and fair, to be held

August 26th to 31st inclusive. Automobile races on the five-mile stretch of beach will be one of the features, while races of sail and motor boats, and all kinds of water sports will be held on the bay. There will also be agricultural and horticultural exhibits, and stock and poultry shows.

Berlin, the ladies' tailor of original designs, says he has surprised some of the Medford ladies with his work of the latest creations in tailor made garments. 103*

Mrs. C. R. Fraser stopped off at Grants Pass Monday to spend a few days with her C. A. Fraser of the Southern Oregon Produce Co. Her home is in Medford, but she has been spending the past two weeks or more at Portland, Seaside and Salem.

E. A. Lagergren of Grants Pass, but miraculously escaped serious injury fifty feet down a well Sunday, July 22. He was working at the bottom of a fifty-five foot well when he was partially overcome by the gases generated in the shaft, and attempted to climb up the ladder to the top. He was within five feet of the top when he lost consciousness and fell to the bottom, luckily not striking the curb in the descent. There was no water in the well and Mr. Lagergren struck on his back, which was severely sprained, and he was otherwise bruised, injuries from which he will readily recover, however. He was removed from the well with a rope which other workmen lowered to him.

The returning mining men are all enthusiastic over the meeting held at Yreka last week, the people of that city having made good in every respect, both as regards the program at the congress, and the entertainment of delegates when the congress was not in session. F. J. Newman of this city is very loud in his praises but regrets that Jackson county had no exhibit.

Voters of Jackson County Attention! There will be a meeting of all voters who wish to join the new National Progressive Party at the Hotel Medford on Tuesday evening, July 23, at eight o'clock for the purpose of selecting delegates to the state meeting to be held at Portland Thursday, July 25, when five delegates to the National Convention to be held at Chicago August 5, will be chosen.

All voters irrespective of former party affiliations are invited to be present and take an active part in the formation of this new party in Jackson county which will be a part of the new National Progressive Party now rapidly forming all over the United States to take an active part in national and state politics along progressive lines entirely independent of the old parties. (Signed.) A. K. WARE, President Roosevelt Club. GEO. E. BOOS, Secretary Roosevelt Club.

Card of Thanks. We wish to express our thanks to our friends and neighbors and to the Rogue River Valley Canal Company for their assistance while Marie Bradshaw was lost Saturday and Sunday. 104*

MR. AND MRS. A. W. BRADSHAW and ROGUE RIVER COMMERCIAL ORCHARD CO.

The Daily Hint from Paris.

August 26th to 31st inclusive. Automobile races on the five-mile stretch of beach will be one of the features, while races of sail and motor boats, and all kinds of water sports will be held on the bay. There will also be agricultural and horticultural exhibits, and stock and poultry shows.

Berlin, the ladies' tailor of original designs, says he has surprised some of the Medford ladies with his work of the latest creations in tailor made garments. 103*

Mrs. C. R. Fraser stopped off at Grants Pass Monday to spend a few days with her C. A. Fraser of the Southern Oregon Produce Co. Her home is in Medford, but she has been spending the past two weeks or more at Portland, Seaside and Salem.

E. A. Lagergren of Grants Pass, but miraculously escaped serious injury fifty feet down a well Sunday, July 22. He was working at the bottom of a fifty-five foot well when he was partially overcome by the gases generated in the shaft, and attempted to climb up the ladder to the top. He was within five feet of the top when he lost consciousness and fell to the bottom, luckily not striking the curb in the descent. There was no water in the well and Mr. Lagergren struck on his back, which was severely sprained, and he was otherwise bruised, injuries from which he will readily recover, however. He was removed from the well with a rope which other workmen lowered to him.

The returning mining men are all enthusiastic over the meeting held at Yreka last week, the people of that city having made good in every respect, both as regards the program at the congress, and the entertainment of delegates when the congress was not in session. F. J. Newman of this city is very loud in his praises but regrets that Jackson county had no exhibit.

Voters of Jackson County Attention! There will be a meeting of all voters who wish to join the new National Progressive Party at the Hotel Medford on Tuesday evening, July 23, at eight o'clock for the purpose of selecting delegates to the state meeting to be held at Portland Thursday, July 25, when five delegates to the National Convention to be held at Chicago August 5, will be chosen.

All voters irrespective of former party affiliations are invited to be present and take an active part in the formation of this new party in Jackson county which will be a part of the new National Progressive Party now rapidly forming all over the United States to take an active part in national and state politics along progressive lines entirely independent of the old parties. (Signed.) A. K. WARE, President Roosevelt Club. GEO. E. BOOS, Secretary Roosevelt Club.

Card of Thanks. We wish to express our thanks to our friends and neighbors and to the Rogue River Valley Canal Company for their assistance while Marie Bradshaw was lost Saturday and Sunday. 104*

MR. AND MRS. A. W. BRADSHAW and ROGUE RIVER COMMERCIAL ORCHARD CO.

The Daily Hint from Paris.

August 26th to 31st inclusive. Automobile races on the five-mile stretch of beach will be one of the features, while races of sail and motor boats, and all kinds of water sports will be held on the bay. There will also be agricultural and horticultural exhibits, and stock and poultry shows.

Berlin, the ladies' tailor of original designs, says he has surprised some of the Medford ladies with his work of the latest creations in tailor made garments. 103*

Mrs. C. R. Fraser stopped off at Grants Pass Monday to spend a few days with her C. A. Fraser of the Southern Oregon Produce Co. Her home is in Medford, but she has been spending the past two weeks or more at Portland, Seaside and Salem.

E. A. Lagergren of Grants Pass, but miraculously escaped serious injury fifty feet down a well Sunday, July 22. He was working at the bottom of a fifty-five foot well when he was partially overcome by the gases generated in the shaft, and attempted to climb up the ladder to the top. He was within five feet of the top when he lost consciousness and fell to the bottom, luckily not striking the curb in the descent. There was no water in the well and Mr. Lagergren struck on his back, which was severely sprained, and he was otherwise bruised, injuries from which he will readily recover, however. He was removed from the well with a rope which other workmen lowered to him.

The returning mining men are all enthusiastic over the meeting held at Yreka last week, the people of that city having made good in every respect, both as regards the program at the congress, and the entertainment of delegates when the congress was not in session. F. J. Newman of this city is very loud in his praises but regrets that Jackson county had no exhibit.

Voters of Jackson County Attention! There will be a meeting of all voters who wish to join the new National Progressive Party at the Hotel Medford on Tuesday evening, July 23, at eight o'clock for the purpose of selecting delegates to the state meeting to be held at Portland Thursday, July 25, when five delegates to the National Convention to be held at Chicago August 5, will be chosen.

All voters irrespective of former party affiliations are invited to be present and take an active part in the formation of this new party in Jackson county which will be a part of the new National Progressive Party now rapidly forming all over the United States to take an active part in national and state politics along progressive lines entirely independent of the old parties. (Signed.) A. K. WARE, President Roosevelt Club. GEO. E. BOOS, Secretary Roosevelt Club.

Card of Thanks. We wish to express our thanks to our friends and neighbors and to the Rogue River Valley Canal Company for their assistance while Marie Bradshaw was lost Saturday and Sunday. 104*

MR. AND MRS. A. W. BRADSHAW and ROGUE RIVER COMMERCIAL ORCHARD CO.

The Daily Hint from Paris.

August 26th to 31st inclusive. Automobile races on the five-mile stretch of beach will be one of the features, while races of sail and motor boats, and all kinds of water sports will be held on the bay. There will also be agricultural and horticultural exhibits, and stock and poultry shows.

Berlin, the ladies' tailor of original designs, says he has surprised some of the Medford ladies with his work of the latest creations in tailor made garments. 103*

Mrs. C. R. Fraser stopped off at Grants Pass Monday to spend a few days with her C. A. Fraser of the Southern Oregon Produce Co. Her home is in Medford, but she has been spending the past two weeks or more at Portland, Seaside and Salem.

E. A. Lagergren of Grants Pass, but miraculously escaped serious injury fifty feet down a well Sunday, July 22. He was working at the bottom of a fifty-five foot well when he was partially overcome by the gases generated in the shaft, and attempted to climb up the ladder to the top. He was within five feet of the top when he lost consciousness and fell to the bottom, luckily not striking the curb in the descent. There was no water in the well and Mr. Lagergren struck on his back, which was severely sprained, and he was otherwise bruised, injuries from which he will readily recover, however. He was removed from the well with a rope which other workmen lowered to him.

The returning mining men are all enthusiastic over the meeting held at Yreka last week, the people of that city having made good in every respect, both as regards the program at the congress, and the entertainment of delegates when the congress was not in session. F. J. Newman of this city is very loud in his praises but regrets that Jackson county had no exhibit.

Voters of Jackson County Attention! There will be a meeting of all voters who wish to join the new National Progressive Party at the Hotel Medford on Tuesday evening, July 23, at eight o'clock for the purpose of selecting delegates to the state meeting to be held at Portland Thursday, July 25, when five delegates to the National Convention to be held at Chicago August 5, will be chosen.

All voters irrespective of former party affiliations are invited to be present and take an active part in the formation of this new party in Jackson county which will be a part of the new National Progressive Party now rapidly forming all over the United States to take an active part in national and state politics along progressive lines entirely independent of the old parties. (Signed.) A. K. WARE, President Roosevelt Club. GEO. E. BOOS, Secretary Roosevelt Club.

Card of Thanks. We wish to express our thanks to our friends and neighbors and to the Rogue River Valley Canal Company for their assistance while Marie Bradshaw was lost Saturday and Sunday. 104*

MR. AND MRS. A. W. BRADSHAW and ROGUE RIVER COMMERCIAL ORCHARD CO.

The Daily Hint from Paris.

ETHEL METCALFE IS FOUND AT HAMMOND

ASTORIA, Ore., July 23.—Ethel Metcalfe, who disappeared from Oakland, Ore., June 26, was located at Hammond, Ore., a small mill town near here and brought to Astoria today by police officer Bryant. George Gray, with whom she is alleged to have eloped, was also taken into custody.

According to Miss Metcalfe's statement to the officers, her parents knew of her intention to leave Oakland with Gray, despite the fact that they offered a reward of $150 for the capture of the pair.

The sheriff at Roseburg was notified.

LAWLER REFUSES TO DISMISS GLASS CASE

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., July 23.—Superior Judge W. P. Lawlor today denied the motion to dismiss the indictments pending against Louis Glass, vice president and general manager of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company, charged with bribery of the Schmitz board of supervisors.

The indictments against Glass are the last of the numerous charges brought against public officials and utility corporation officials as the result of the Ruef-Schmitz prosecution.

In denying the motion to dismiss the court intimated that he would direct the district attorney to proceed with retrial of the case on July 30.

PREACHER FOLLOWS LABOR'S EXAMPLE OF PICKETING

LONDON, July 23.—Taking his cue from the labor unions, the Rev. Mr. W. H. Langdon, vicar of St. Andrews' Church, has adopted "peaceful picketing" as a means of driving Mormonism out of that community. Under his direction, members of his congregation patrol the approaches to Stockwell Hall, where a band of Mormon missionaries has been holding meetings, and by persuasive arguments try to keep prospective attendants from entering the building. The Mormons have already succeeded in proselyting a number of young women in the neighborhood whom they intend sending to Salt Lake City.

MAZAMAS ARE BACK FROM MT. HOOD TRIP

PORTLAND, Ore., July 23.—Forty members of the Mazama club, an organization of mountain climbers, returned today from an ascent of Mt. Hood. One of the members, George N. Riddell of Portland, ascended from Cloud Cap Inn to the summit, a distance of three and one-half miles, and a rise of 5,000 feet, in one hour and 52 minutes.

The former time was 4 hours and 10 minutes for this climb. The Mazama party included 16 women. 104*

PLAYS WITH MATCHES IS BURNED TO DEATH

TAOCHIA, Wash., July 23.—Playing with matches in the yard of her home last evening resulted in the death of three old Loretta Surfbus. Her mother was seriously burned beating out the flames from the child's clothing and is in a serious condition since the death of her daughter.

ENGLAND'S ENLARGED NAVAL PROGRAM SLAP AT GERMANY

BERLIN, July 23.—All newspapers commenting on the government's supplementary naval estimates today agree that England's enlarged naval policy is aimed directly as a slap at Germany. The semi-official comments carry a tone of disquietude.

Negro Slain in Consort.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., July 23.—Melvin Laseid, a negro saloonkeeper, was stabbed to death early today by his consort, Grace Shields. The woman was cut across the leg during her flight was Laseid. She was later charged with murder. The woman claims self defense.

Talked Too Much.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., July 23.—Ernest E. Kir, former attorney for the Free Speech League of San Diego, was held for trial here in the superior court on a charge of failure to provide for a minor child. Bail was fixed at $2,000.

The lowest grade molasses from beet sugar, which is unsalable as a food product, has been found to make an excellent binder for road surfaces when mixed with lime water.

An adjustable frame, in which several pieces of crayon can be fastened to draw parallel lines at various distances apart on a blackboard, has been patented by a New York man.

COUNTESS DE MONTIGNOSO REPORTED ILL AND FACES AN OPERATION

From Naples comes a despatch saying that the Countess de Montignoso, whose escapades as Crown Princess Louise of Saxony gave rise to scandal in royalty, is so seriously ill from peritonitis that an immediate operation is necessary. She is alone at Fiesole, Enrico Toselli, once her husband, who divorced her some time ago, offered to assist her today. He told his friend that he would help her as long as she needs assistance, but that he had no intention of becoming reconciled to her.

GALLOWAY REVERSED IN UNIVERSITY CASE

SALEM, Ore., July 23.—In an opinion by Judge McBride, the supreme court reversed Judge Galloway in the University of Oregon case and the two bills making appropriations for the university will go on the ballot. The court held that there were enough valid names on the petitions to entitle them to filing, and that it was not necessary for each sheet to contain the form of petition. The court held that it could inquire into the facts. Judge Eakin filed a dissenting opinion.

ARCHBALD CASE WILL GO OVER UNTIL FALL

WASHINGTON, July 23.—The house judiciary decided this afternoon that if the impeachment of Judge Robert W. Archbald of the commerce court is put over until fall, a probe of the beef trust will be initiated instead. A sub-committee is now preparing the evidence to be presented against the beef barons.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY FOR RENT—A two room furnished house, screened porch, 229 South Grape. 109

Oregon Agricultural College

This great institution opens its doors for the fall semester on September 29th. Courses of instruction include: General Agriculture, Agronomy, Animal Husbandry, Dairy Husbandry, Bacteriology, Botany and Plant Pathology, Poultry, Husbandry, Horticulture, Entomology, Veterinary Science, Civil Engineering, Electrical Engineering, Mechanical Engineering, Mining Engineering, Highway Engineering, Domestic Science, Domestic Art, Commerce, Forestry, Pharmacy, Zoology, Chemistry, Physics, Mathematics, English Language and Literature, Public Speaking, Modern Languages, History, Art, Architecture, Industrial Pedagogy, Physical Education, Military Science and Tactics, and Music. Catalogue and Illustrated Literature mailed free on application. Address: Registrar, Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, Oregon. School Year Opens September 29th.

MCUSKER IS OUT FOR CONGRESS

PORTLAND, Ore., July 23.—Thomas R. McCusker, who was state campaign manager for Senator LaFollette in his contest to secure Oregon delegates to the republican national convention, today announced his candidacy for congress from the second district of Oregon. McCusker has signified his intention of running on platform embodying the ideas set forth by Senator LaFollette in his campaign for the presidential nomination. Opposed to him on the republican ticket will be Congressman A. W. Lafferty, who was renominated on the regular republican ticket, but who has since come out in support of Theodore Roosevelt and his third party proposition. McCusker also announced that he will immediately establish LaFollette headquarters in Portland with a view to furthering the Wisconsin senator's race for the presidency in 1916.

WOMAN GIVES HER BABIES DOSE OF POISON

CHARLOTTOWN, P. E. I., July 23.—Working on the theory that she is insane, a determined effort is under way here today to save the life of Mrs. McGee, a farmer's wife convicted yesterday of murdering her five children. Mrs. McGee admitted that she gave the children match heads dissolved in water, explaining that the struggle for existence had been too hard.

Eight Girls Burned.

LONDON, July 23.—Eight girls trapped in the top story of a burning warehouse in the Morgan district perished here today. Five others were seriously injured. It is expected that more dead will be found in the ruins when they cool.

BULL MOOSE IN SOUTH IS WHITE

JACKSON, Miss., July 23.—Following the cancellation of plans for a progressive republican convention to be attended by both white and negro republicans it was announced here today that the progressive party in Mississippi is to be solely a white man's party. It is understood that Senator Dixon of Montana, Colonel Roosevelt's campaign manager urged "Liby Whittam."

WOULD ABOLISH TIGHT SKIRTS FOR MOTHERS

ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 23.—To discuss a movement to abolish tight skirts, Mrs. James Nugent, president of the Missouri branch of the National Congress of Mothers, today called a meeting of the presidents of Missouri societies of the congress. "I will appeal the skirt question to the mothers," Mrs. Nugent said. "And they should appeal to their daughters' sense of modesty and decency. If the daughters were unresponsive mothers should exert their authority. I believe in women wearing comfortable garments, and I advocate short skirts. But some of the skirts are too short. I am opposed to these and the tight skirts. The latter are too tight to be comfortable and are indecent and immodest as well."

MISS STODDARD OF SAN DIEGO OUT FOR CONGRESS

SAN DIEGO, Cal., July 23.—A woman candidate for congress entered the lists here today when Miss Helen Stoddard filed papers for the congressional nomination from the eleventh district on the prohibition ticket.

American Shooting Experts Win Against All Nations. Individual Clay Bird Championship—Won by J. R. Graham, shooting a REMINGTON-UMC Pump Gun and Arrow Steel Lined Shells, score 96 ex 100. Team Championship—Five high men in victorious American team shot REMINGTON-UMC Arrow Steel Lined Shells. Revolver and Pistol Championship—A. J. Lane, shooting REMINGTON-UMC Metallic Cartridges, made the best individual score and a world's record in the team competition, score 509 ex 600; won the individual competition at 30 metres, score 287 ex 300, and won first in the team competition at 30 metres, score 292 ex 300. Remington-UMC Steel Lined Shells were chosen on this remarkable record; 15 out of 17 big national handicaps—including the 1912 Grand American. Remington-UMC Metallic Cartridges are world's record holders. The scores hung up by Mr. Lane, are additional shooting testimony to their accuracy and sure fire. Write for Complete Catalogue Remington Arms-Union Metallic Cartridge Co. 299-301 Broadway, New York City

The new bungalows built by H. E. Gates on Rose avenue are sold as soon as they are finished. There must be a reason—there is. In quality, location and price he has no competition. H. E. GATES ROSE AVE. Illustration of a hand pointing.

Weeks & McGowan Co. UNDERTAKERS Day Phone 2071 Night Phones: F. W. Weeks 2071 A. E. Orr, 2092 LADY ASSISTANT

A smart little one piece frock of navy blue cashmere with the new drop shoulder seam and long sleeves. Gathered white lace tucker, plied yoke and sleeve ruffles.