GENERAL STRIKE STORY PROVES UNFOUNDED

VANCOUVER, B. C., July 26.—Owing to the fact that a number of day men working on the line of the G. T. P. east of Hazelton left work on Saturday the rumor arose that a general strike was to be called by the I. W. W. and that the strikers were armed with rifles and terrorizing the district, the police being unable to cope with the situation.

According to Messrs. Foley, Welch and Stuart, the railroad contractors, no such situation exists. The camps they say, are all working and it is the intention of the contractors to increase the number of men employed to rush the work to completion.

NOISE OF MERRYMAKERS DROWNS CRIES FOR HELP

CHICAGO, July 26.—The noise of merry-makers in the Columbia Yacht Club house less than 100 yards away causing cries for help to go unnoticed. Miss Louise McNavy is dead here today, having drowned in the lake before aid reached her. Illinois reserves preparing for a drill heard shrieks above the strains of music and arrived barely in time to save Miss Millie Mass from a similar fate. The two women were rowing when a boat capsized.

TWO DEAD, ONE HURT IN GREAT WIND STORM

NEEDLES, Cal., July 26.—Two Indians are dead and one fatally injured today as result of a terrific rain and wind storm which swept this city late yesterday. The Indians were bathing in the Colorado river when the storm suddenly broke with great violence. The fled along the railroad track, coming around a box car directly in front of a pile-driver which was being swept before the wind.

"THE FALL OF BLACKHAWK"

A beautiful, historically accurate, pictorial review of the Blackhawk war, faithfully depicting these stirring events which led to the wanton slaughter of countless white settlers. Involved the destinies of four of America's greatest statesmen (Abraham Lincoln, Jefferson Davis, Zachary Taylor and Gen. Winfield Scott) and ended in the downfall of a great Indian chief, conceded indisputable right to all lands east of the Mississippi as provided for in the treaty of July 15, 1830, will be shown at the Star tonight and Saturday.

Every man, woman and child should see this portraying as it does a leaf of American history as faithfully as it is possible for human intelligence.

HELD FOR MURDER OF YOUNG DIVORCEE.

GEORGE R. HARKNESS BEING TAKEN TO COURT.

Mrs. Florence C. Hopp, a young divorcee, was shot and mortally wounded at the York Hotel, in New York city, by a young man who says he is George R. Harkness, a real estate dealer, of Sea Cliff, L. I. The woman died an hour after being shot through the head. Harkness, who says the shooting was accidental, gave himself up to the police after informing the hotel management. He appeared stricken with grief by the death of his companion.

ABSINTHE BARRED FROM AMERICA

WASHINGTON, July 26.—In ordering the exclusion from the United States of absinthe, the "green devil," the government is following the lead of Switzerland which about a year ago decided to prohibit the drink and also placed the ban on its manufacture. The agitation in Switzerland was wide spread. The forces that opposed the prohibition law were also very active because the suppression of the industry meant a big loss to them.

Now the Pure Food and Drug Board, through Secretary Wilson, of the Department of Agriculture, has issued an edict that no more absinthe shall be imported into this country after October 1, and in a short time the Treasury will make this effective by issuing specific orders to all collectors of customs and port officials that they shall allow no more absinthe to be imported after the date named by the Pure Food and Drug Board.

DARROW ABOUT CERTAIN TO APPEAR AS WITNESS

LOS ANGELES, Cal., July 26.—That Clarence Darrow will take the stand in his own defense before the day closes to disprove the charge of jury bribing, was made certain during the morning session of the trial here today.

A change of plans by attorneys for the defense was indicated when Earl Rogers gave out a private tip that the next witness called would be Mrs. Darrow, wife of the defendant, and then the defendant himself. Just what Mrs. Darrow will testify to is extremely problematical, but it is thought she will be placed on the stand to deny portions of the testimony of John R. Harrington, who testified for the state that Darrow had approached him in an effort to inveigle him into the alleged bribery.

POACHER CAUGHT BY PROTECTION CRUISER

VANCOUVER, B. C., July 26.—The fisheries protection cruiser Newington yesterday brought into Esquimalt harbor the gasoline schooner Thelma of Tacoma, as a prize. The vessel was seized late Wednesday about two and a half miles off the west coast of Vancouver Island.

The poacher is the second captured by the Newington since she entered the service, the Bonita being taken about a week ago and the schooner Mrs. of Seattle, was warned when close to the line and let go.

WILL TELL MARSHALL THE NEWS AUGUST 17

SEA GIRT, N. J., July 26.—Governor Thomas B. Marshall of Indiana, it was learned here today, will be officially notified of his nomination on the democratic ticket for the vice presidency in Indianapolis on August 17. It is likely that Governor Wilson will attend the ceremony.

TELLS HOW BIG BUSINESS WORKS

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., July 26.—The "economist" of big business as represented by the sugar trust, exemplified in the production of considerable more sugar than the West Coast territory would consume under trust-inflated prices, and the dumping of this surplus at eastern points at a conceded loss to the combine in a market where competition supposedly existed, were expounded here today by W. H. Hannam, secretary of the alleged California subsidiaries of the American Sugar Refining Company at the continuation of the federal dissolution suit.

Hannam testified that it was regarded as economy to overproduce in the California refineries and to dump the surplus in Missouri River points in a lower market against New Orleans "competition." His testimony went far to establish the fact that the "supply" of sugar, in the western market at least, was not so much dependent on the quantity of sugar the Hawaiian plantations and other sources could produce as it was on an arbitrary decision of output by the sugar barons.

Hannam was asked the direct question, when he was taken over for income for the Western Sugar Refining Company, one of the defendants, if there had been any intent or purpose on the part of the California group, as far as he knew, to suppress competition or trade in Utah or the Missouri River section.

Hannam answered "no." But when asked by Dunne whether there had been any intent of suppressing trade when the Spreckels interests discontinued the old Watsonville plant, he made evasive answer.

The government attorneys objected to his question on the ground that Hannam was one of the defendants and consequently had a good deal at stake in making his reply.

Hannam denied that he was

Havenmeyer's California representative saying he was employed by the western company and that he followed the orders of Havenmeyer only when they coincided with those of John D. and Rudolph Spreckels.

A curious feature of the hearing is that not one spectator has been present to hear the developments, although this is one of the most important cases of public concern now in the courts.

MONTCLAIR, N. J., July 26.—Love for California ranch life and a decided aversion for the social duties which her husband's position required of her, is today assigned as the cause of the disappearance here of Mrs. Dorothy Marcus, wife of William Elder Marcus, a rich New York jeweler. Mrs. Marcus was Miss Dorothy Cooksey, daughter of George H. Cooksey of Pasadena and she was brought up on a Southern California ranch.

Before leaving her home and two children Mrs. Marcus penned a note to her husband which said that for two years she had tried to like social life, but that the duties pulled on her.

You Don't Pay the Ice Man

For a Jersey refrigerator. Instead you save the price of a common ice box several times over in the size of your ice bill. Besides the Jersey is a quality refrigerator. It is made of oak, real oak, carefully finished with nickel plated trimmings and will ornament any dining room, because of its classy appearance.

Notice the round corners, the panel construction, no projecting moulding, no cracks, no crevices.

The food chamber is as white as snow. The shelves are of heavily tinned wire. The circulation of cold air is after nature's own method and cannot possibly be improved on. The eight-walled method of building this refrigerator and the careful construction assure that you will never pay toll to the ice man.
