EAGLE POINT EAGLETS By A. C. Howlett

Last Sunday morning about ten o'clock there were seven motorcycles came dashing up and stopped under the boughs of a silver poplar tree between the Sunnyside and the Sunnyside barn and the following persons filed into the Sannyside and informed Mrs. Howlett that they would be on hand for dinner; Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Plymire, O. G. Vro-T. Wilson, O. P. Vroman and F. P. Hicks, all of Medford. After they had made sure that they had secured an interest in the three large turkeys that were in the oven, they took in to the foregoing, there was also at up in Central Point. the same time the following persons took dinner with us, A.
