

The Man From Montclair

By Winsor McCay

Our Correspondents

KANE'S CREEK

Mrs. Lawrence of Blackwell spent a few days recently on upper Kane creek the guest of her son, James and family.

George Higgenbotham and wife were guests of friends of upper Kane Creek Sunday.

Mr. Opp, the mining man, of Jacksonville, is looking after his business interests at the Braden mine this week.

Mrs. Swenden has returned home from Fort Klamath after spending several months. She said that the Rogue river valley was good enough for her and Medford in particular.

What came near being a curious accident happened to Mr. and Mrs. Johnson of the Braden. The horse they were driving became frightened in some way and ran away, throwing Mr. Johnson and the baby out, while Mrs. J. jumped out, receiving some very painful bruises.

Weather Prophet Foster predicts some very warm days for the next two weeks unless there is a change in the temperature.

Elmer Higgenbotham and wife attended the dance in Gold Hill Saturday night and report a fine time.

Pearl Bean and family spent Sunday in Gold Hill with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Cisty of near Central Point motored over Sunday and spent part of the day with Mr. and Mrs. Lewis and family.

H. Natt of Grants Pass was in this neighborhood one day recently looking after his mining interests.

Gold Hill business visitors from Kane Creek this week: George Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. George Higgenbotham, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Mardon, Anna Higgenbotham, Mr. Foley, George Mardon, Mr. Martin, James Lawrence, John Raids and the Misses Katie and Maggie Foley.

TABLE ROCK

Miss Ethel Garrison of Medford is the guest of Miss Clara Collins. Ed Vincent is running a header on the south side of the river.

Mrs. E. A. Vaughn of Michigan is visiting her brother W. L. Byrum. Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Huntberry and daughter Josie, of Vancouver, Wash., were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hall for a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Alsworth of Portland called on Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Washburn a few days ago. They had come from Portland in their auto and intended to return with it but they found the roads in such a frightful condition that they decided to take their auto to San Francisco and send it back by the sea route and return to Portland by train.

Mr. Pipes of Sams Valley is binding grain for Mr. J. C. Pendleton. Mr. Le Ron who has been working for Mr. Reese has gone away. James Reese taking his place.

The river is full of salmon and many are being caught. One fisherman hooked twenty steel heads and landed eight of them without changing his position.

There will be an ice cream social at Table Rock soon. Announcement later.

Many people are getting their work in shape for a few days outing in the hills.

Arkansas will pass on the state-wide prohibition question at the fall election.

EAGLE POINT EAGLES.

(By A. C. Howlett.)

The last time I wrote I promised to tell about the shower party that was given in honor of the approaching wedding of Mr. E. S. Hock and Miss Mamie Wright. Last week there were invitations sent out to almost every one of the citizens of Eagle Point to attend a shower party at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gover on Thursday evening and with the invitation a request to bring something that would be useful to the couple who were to be married and the result was that there was simply an immense crowd gathered and each one brought something that would be useful—this was all done without the knowledge or consent of the bride to be and one can well imagine Miss Mamie Wright's surprise when she was marched out on the porch in the presence of that vast crowd to be called on to make a short speech tendering her thanks etc. The arrangement was all made to keep her at Miss Mable Warneley's until the crowd had collected with the presents and they were safely "corked" then the arrangement was to have two little girls take a little express wagon and deliver the goods to her. When the first load came Miss Mamie started to tender her thanks when some one checked her by saying "hold on that ain't all" and then another load came and then she started to speak again when she was stopped again and another load was brought and finally she broke down and woman like wept but soon recovered herself and made a nice little speech expressing her thanks. Then Mr. Hock was called on for a speech and he said "Oh, let my wife do it." Well to make a long matter short they had one of the little enjoyable times that are so common in Eagle Point and the following Sunday, July 28, Mr. Ed S. Hock and Miss Mamie Wright were joined in wedlock by Rev. L. L. Simmons at the home of her mother in the presence of the following witnesses: Mrs. Joseph Moomels, Carl Ringer, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Florey, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Jones, Henry Daley, Miss Loreta Childreth, Miss Yousia Blass, Miss Matwin, Miss Lord, Miss Wood Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Grover and two children, Verda and Ruth, Grandma Heckathorn and Grandma Thomas, and several other whose names I was unable to learn as I was in Medford at the time.

Well the next thing is the woman's suffrage meeting in the park on Wednesday, July 24. The woman's aid met that day in the park and the Medford ladies had a good opportunity to meet a number of the leading ladies of the town. They talked the matter over but did not organize a W. S. club but I understand made a very favorable impression and this coming November we expect to pole a goodly number of votes in favor of the ladies movement.

I unintentionally omitted to report in my last that Senator Von der Hellen was made extremely happy on account of the arrival of a new granddaughter in the family of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ed A. Evanson on July 22 in Medford, Oregon.

Miss Mable Thomas spent the night with us last Friday on her way to the Ed Higgenbotham neighborhood to teach a three month's school.

Mr. M. S. Coe and our county surveyor Mr. Frank A. Grisez called for supper Friday evening. They are surveying off a tract of land for Mr. Coe.

R. H. Dopp who has been working in the Buzzard mine came out and reports that the company is having a lot of ore hauled out to have a thorough test of it made.

Mr. McClanahan and Dave Pence came out last Saturday to bring Mrs. Alfred Reed, Master Richard Reed, and Miss Macina Orana of Pittsburg, Pa. They took the evening train for their home.
