ELKS THANKED FOR HOSPITALITY

The local lodge of Elks are much gratified by the many letters they have received from other lodges throughout the country thanking them for the manner in which they entertained in Medford and at Portland during the convention. None of the letters however, were more pleasing to them than the one from Phil Metcaban, manager of the Imperial Hotel at Portland, which follows:

"On behalf of the Imperial Hotel Company, I wish to thank you and the members of the Medford Lodge No. 1168 B. P. O. Elks for the many expressions of appreciation which we have had from you and your membership since the recent Elks Reunion. We are certainly highly pleased to learn that the Medford boys were so well satisfied, but we do not think we are entitled to all the credit, for the reason that the Medford bunch was one of the best handled excursions which visited Portland during the recent convention. You were thoroughly organized and every detail was attended to before your arrival here, and further more, Medford was one of the very few, if not the only one, of the lodges handling special parties and excursions, that came up to their original estimate, and used all the reservations which they made. I personally know how hard you worked to make this thing a success, and am sure your Lodge must highly appreciate your valuable services.

"The Imperial Hotel Company was more than pleased that they had made the contract with you and the Medford Lodge, and wish you and all of you continued success and prosperity."

You Can Live On Wheat Alone

Expert analysis proves that wheat contains all the properties for the building of bone, muscle and tissue in just the right proportions. "Force" is all wheat, far richer than other cereals in digestible protein—the "meaty" element of food; the part that makes bone and sinew and builds the brain and nerves.

"FORCE"

is Cooked Wheat—Flaked, and Every Flake a Grain

Its delicious and unique flavor is due to the blend of barley malt.

Remember, if you would keep your children fit and well—feed them the best Wheat-Food, "Force"—they will like it—everybody does.
