

10,000 HEAR WILSON TOLD OF NOMINATION

Speech of Acceptance Made by Democratic Nominee Before Leading Democrats of Nation—Advocates Government for and by People

Touches Tariff and Other Public Issues—Speech a Lengthy one and Good Campaign Argument

SEA GIRT, N. J., Aug. 7.—With informality and simplicity as its keynote, the ceremony of formally notifying Governor Woodrow Wilson that he had been chosen as democratic nominee for the presidency of the United States was accomplished here today.

No set program marked the occasion. Early in the day scores of spectators began to arrive at the "little white house," and were greeted from the veranda by the governor, his wife and daughters, who cordially shook hands all around.

During the delivery of James' address he was frequently interrupted by applause, while Governor Wilson and his family beamed on all. At the conclusion of James' address, Governor Wilson replied as follows:

Wilson's Acceptance

We stand in the presence of an awakened nation, impatient of partisan make-believe. The public man who does not realize the fact and feel its stimulation must be singularly unsusceptible to the influences that stir in every quarter about him. The Nation has awakened to a sense of neglected ideals and neglected duties; to a consciousness that the rank and file of her people find life very hard to sustain, that her young men find opportunity embarrassed, and that her older men find business difficult to renew and maintain because of circumstances of privilege and private advantage which have interlarded their subtle threads throughout almost every part of the framework of our present law. She has awakened to the knowledge that she has lost certain cherished liberties and wanted priceless resources which she had solemnly undertaken to hold in trust for posterity and for all mankind; and to the conviction that she stands confronted with an occasion for constructive statesmanship such as has not arisen since the great days in which her government was set up.

Symptoms of Awakening

Nor was the country ever more susceptible to unselfish appeals or to the high arguments of sincere justice. These are the unmistakable symptoms of an awakening. There is the more need for wise counsel because the people are so ready to heed counsel if it be given honestly and in their interest.

It is in the broad light of this new day that we stand face to face—with what? Plainly, not with questions of party, not with a contest for office, not with a petty struggle for advantage, democrat against republican, liberal against conservative, progressive against reactionary. With great questions of right and of justice, rather—questions of national development, of the development of character and of standards of action no less than of better business system, more free, more equitable, more open to ordinary men, practicable to live under, tolerable to work under, or a better fiscal system whose taxes shall not come out of the pockets of the many to go into the pockets of the few, and within whose intricacies special privilege may not so easily find covert. The forces of the nation are asserting themselves against every form of special privilege and private control, and are seeking bigger things than they have ever heretofore achieved. They are sweeping away what is unrighteous in order to vindicate once more the essential rights of human life; and, what is very serious for us, they are looking to us for guidance, disinterested guidance, at once honest and fearless.

Rule of Justice

What is there to do? It is hard to sum the great task up, but apparently this is the sum of the matter: There are two great things to do. One is to set up the rule of justice and of right in such matters as the

TO INVESTIGATE HANFORD CASE

Government Probe of People Behind Accused Judge in His Misconduct on the Bench Is Plan of Attorney General Wickersham Says Berger

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.—A government probe of the alleged higher-ups behind Cornelius H. Hanford, former judge of the United States court for the western district of Washington, in his alleged misconduct on the bench is the plan of Attorney General Wickersham, according to announcement made this afternoon by Congressman Victor Berger of Milwaukee.

Berger all along has insisted that the investigation in Seattle by the sub-committee of the house judiciary committee showed there were rich men behind Hanford who should not go unpunished. Berger was closeted today for several hours with Attorney General Wickersham and later announced that a federal grand jury would probably convene in Seattle to expose alleged higher-ups.

It is predicted that if the investigation starts, prominent Seattle lawyers, business and political men will be drawn into the case. Berger flatly charges that Hanford was forced to resign to protect alleged higher-ups from disclosures.

L. E. HOOVER, LOCAL NURSERYMAN, HURT IN AUTO ACCIDENT

L. E. Hoover, a Medford nurseryman, who is touring Douglas county in his automobile, lies at Mercy Hospital in Roseburg severely injured internally, the result of an accident on the Looking Glass road, three miles west of Roseburg, Monday afternoon, when his disabled machine, which was being towed to town, plunged over a steep embankment. The automobile in its descent turned over twice on Mr. Hoover. His injuries are regarded by the attending physician as quite serious, and he will be laid up for several weeks.

Mr. Hoover is well known throughout the county having been engaged in the nursery business here many years.

FIRST WOMAN TO SWIM GOLDEN GATE TRIES AGAIN

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Aug. 7.—Hoping to be the first woman to swim San Francisco Bay, Miss Nellie Schmidt, who recently swam the Golden Gate, is training today for her second attempt to cross the bay from the Ferry building to the Oakland mole next Sunday.

During a previous attempt, the feminine swimmer was forced to quit midway across owing to the chill of the water. For this attempt she has been practising in the coldest waters of the bay.

PENDERGAST NOMINATES TEDDY

CHICAGO, Aug. 7.—In nominating Colonel Roosevelt for president at the progressive national convention here today, William A. Pendergast, controller of the city of New York, said in part:

"This great gathering owes its being to a mighty protest against those who have tried to poison the wells of democracy. Appreciating the stupendous task before it, the progressive party declines to accept the cynical doctrine of Napoleon that God is on the side of the heaviest battalions, and it professes sublime faith in the teaching of Abraham Lincoln that right makes might.

"My candidate is more than a citizen. He is a national asset. In this momentous period of political doubt, there is no man who presents such credentials as his. This candidate has success written in every page of his official career. He has fought the most vicious forces in American life and conquered them. He surrendered the presidency in the hope that other hands would prosecute successfully what he had not the

Roosevelt Heralded as the One Man who can Bring Equality of Opportunity and Reward to the People—Nominated at Afternoon Session

CHICAGO, Aug. 7.—Heralded as the one man of all others in the United States to bring equality of opportunity and equality of reward to its people through the medium of the new progressive party, Theodore Roosevelt was today nominated here for president of the United States.

After a series of partial disappointments in the conduct of its business, the progressive convention met this afternoon and after the adoption of new rules of the new party and announcement that its platform was adopted the roll call of the states was called. Alabama first on the list, gave way and New York was recognized. Comptroller Pendergast of the city of New York was absent and the convention awaited his return with impatience. Finally he was found and in a speech replete with praise formally put Roosevelt in nomination.

It was just 2:11 o'clock when Pendergast's peroration started the outburst which followed his speech. The delegates stood on chairs waving their handkerchiefs and cheering. A woman in the gallery lowered a large American flag, to which had been attached a big lithograph of Colonel Roosevelt. Then pandemonium broke loose, the din of the demonstration being deafening.

After the cheering had lasted twenty minutes, the fifers and drummers filed into the aisles and headed the procession adding to the enthusiasm with "Dixie" and the "Star Spangled Banner."

When thirty minutes of uproar had passed a new American flag with a circular arrangement of the stars was dropped from the girders of the Coliseum and the entire assembly stopped cheering and sang "America." The enthusiasm, however, redoubled as the song ended and Beveridge, who had tried for order, dropped back into the chair all a-grip.

ASSASSINATION FEARED BY SULTAN OF TURKEY

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 7.—Fearing assassination as a result of differences with Montenegro, the guard around the Sultan's palace was doubled today. It is also reported that the lives of foreigners are endangered.

Bulgaria, according to unofficial reports received here, is preparing to invade Macedonia.

time to finish. That task has been treated with intermittent loyalty and largely left undone.

"My candidate represents the most striking and eventful civic career in American history. He is one whose originality of thought stoops to give no quarter. None has been so powerful to awe him and before him the greatest captains of industry have lowered their lances. He is the only man in public life whom they genuinely fear. Against their opposition, which for vindictiveness, has never been equaled in politics, he has fought at times single-handed. To such a leader the hearts of millions of Americans are turning in this national crisis. Such a leader they ask you to give them in this hour as their hope. As the crusaders of old pledged themselves to God and country so do we consecrate our lives to a service that democracy ordained by divine power, may endure.

"As the leader of this crusade, I present to you America's greatest statesman and lion-hearted citizen—Theodore Roosevelt."

THEODORE ROOSEVELT

KANSAS VOTES FOR ROOSEVELT AS PREFERENCE

TOPEKA, Kans., Aug. 7.—That Kansas republicans prefer Theodore Roosevelt to President Taft is unquestionably indicated today in racially complete returns from yesterday's primary. In the contest for presidential electors the eight candidates pledged to Roosevelt were elected over the Taftites by majorities averaging 35,000. The progressive state ticket also was victorious by majorities running from 20,000 to 40,000.

Arthur Capper of Topeka, a progressive, was nominated for governor over Frank Ryan, a Taft republican, by a majority which now stands at 40,000. Complete returns may increase this figure.

With the exception of the race between Governor W. R. Stubbs and United States Senator Charles Curtis, in which Stubbs seeks Curtis' seat, the progressive victory was complete. At the present time, although the race is close, Stubbs is in the lead, and it is generally expected that the complete returns will give him the victory.

On the democratic side George Hodges is nominated for governor and H. P. Farrelly for United States senator.

WOMEN BUILD ROAD: USE PICK AND SLEDGE

LEANNA, Kans., Aug. 7.—Wielding heavy sledge hammers and breaking rock for the building of 800 feet of roadway, the women here, some of them clad in overalls, are today taking up the work on construction because the men of the town refused to continue it.

Using their allowance money, the women enlisted the aid of men and boys from neighboring towns to assist them in the work.

FINAL PEACE CONFERENCE TO AVERT CAR STRIKE

CHICAGO, Aug. 7.—In an effort to reach an amicable settlement between the 10,000 employees of the surface and overhead railway employees with the officials of the railway further conferences were held here today. There appears to be small hope of reaching an agreement.

SUFFRAGETTES GET FIVE YEARS FOR FIRING THEATRE

DUBLIN, Aug. 7.—For attempting to burn the Theatre Royal here, in which Premier Asquith was to have spoken during his recent visit to Ireland, Mrs. Mary Leigh and Miss Gladys Evans, suffragettes, were sentenced today to five years penal servitude.

TO MOBILIZE BIG WARSHIPS

Plans to gather Three Great Fleets at San Francisco, New York and Manila on Largest Scale yet Attempted is Announced

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.—Plans to mobilize three fleets of warships, at San Francisco, New York and Manila, to conduct a series of maneuvers on the greatest scale yet attempted, was announced here today by the navy department. The mobilization in New York is to take place October 14-15 and will bring together 120 warships—the greatest aggregation of warships ever assembled under the American flag.

The New York mobilization will be commanded by Admiral Oosterhouse and will be reviewed by President Taft and Secretary of the Navy Von Meyer. Forty vessels will gather at San Francisco in command of Admiral Southerland, while 20 warships will assemble at Manila.

Admiral Nicholson will be in command of the Manila squadron. The dates for the latter reviews have not been but probably will be held late in October.

JANE ADDAMS SEES HOPE FOR GIRLS IN TEDDY

CHICAGO, Aug. 7.—In seconding Roosevelt, Jane Addams of Hull House said in part:

"A great party has pledged itself to the protection of children, the care of the aged, the relief of overworked girls and the safeguarding of burdened men. Committed to these human undertakings it is inevitable that such a party should appeal to women and seek to draw from its reservoir their moral energy.

"We ratify this platform not only because it represents our earnest convictions and formulates our high hopes, but because the pull on our faculties calls us to definite action. We find it a prophecy that democracy shall not be actually realized until no group of our people shall fail to bear the responsibilities of self-government and that no class of evils lie beyond redress.

"The new party will become the American exponent of a world-wide movement towards more just social conditions.

BOOKKEEPER SWIPES $34,000 FROM FIRM

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Aug. 7.—Although experts are today working on the books of George W. Hinkle, a bookkeeper in the employ of his step-father, William Hinkle, stock broker, who disappeared after leaving a note which was discovered yesterday telling that the fugitive had embezzled $34,000 and was running away, the full extent of the speculations have not yet been determined. In his note Hinkle stated that he had but $60 in cash when he left.

JAMES BREAKS NEWS TO WILSON

SEA GIRT, N. J., Aug. 7.—In notifying Governor Wilson of his nomination Ollie James said in part:

The democratic party believes you possess in splendid fullness those great attributes of constructive genius, inventive intellect and restlessness will that so transcendently befit you for the great undertaking to which your party has commissioned you. As the democracy has bestowed on you its most exalted confidence, it has done so with abiding confidence in your service of all the people by striving for equal laws and equal opportunities, and so justly apportioning their burden as to meet in full and rounded measure all their hopes and expectations.

The principles for which your party fought and fell in the last campaign have so aroused the public conscience that they have drawn to the support of the democratic party practically all unselfish American citizens and have divided into irreconcilable factions the hitherto victorious republican party, which in the past triumphed by opposing them.

The democratic party is striving to give all the people a government so just and laws so righteous that monopoly can find no hiding place and oppression no haven that will make every home a fortress and every citizen a volunteer against the invader.

The republican party has taught the trusts that it only barks, that it does not bite. Prosecution against these outlaws is but the signal to play a rising market.

The democratic party is the friend of honest business, whether big or little, but is striving to make it impossible for criminal business to destroy legitimate business and to oppress the people.

James lauded Wilson's "boss extortion record in New Jersey."

The notification itself was made in a formal letter which was signed by all the national committee.

JOHNSON TO TAIL TICKET WITH TEDDY

Withdrawal of Ben Lindsey from Race After His Name is Before Convention, Makes Nomination of Johnson by Acclamation Certain

Adoption of Platform Delayed in Order to Cut it Down to Suit Roosevelt and Make it Popular

CHICAGO, Aug. 7.—The nomination of Governor Hiram W. Johnson by acclamation for the vice presidency on the progressive ticket became a certainty this afternoon when an agreement was reached whereby Judge Ben Lindsey was to withdraw in favor of Johnson after his name had been put before the convention.

CHICAGO, Aug. 7.—When the demonstration for Roosevelt following Pendergast's speech had subsided Chairman Beveridge recognized Judge Lindsey of Denver, who until late today, had been prominently mentioned as a vice presidential possibility. Lindsey, in an impassioned speech, seconded the nomination of Colonel Roosevelt, stamping the former president as America's greatest statesman. Lindsey's remarks were enthusiastically received.

Lindsey called Roosevelt "the one man in America who fights the fight of the average man." He said the only real opposition to the former president came from "dishonest business" and insisted that the Colonel was sure to win in November. Lindsey concluded:

"Dishonest business fears Roosevelt more than it does any other living man because he is just in everything."

Jane Addams of Chicago was then recognized and got one of the greatest demonstrations of the convention as she began her speech.

When Jane Addams concluded her speech she unfurled a big yellow "votes for women" banner, and the women delegates started a procession of their own about the hall.

When quiet was restored, Colonel Alex Hamilton of Georgia, General H. C. King of New York and T. P. Lloyd of Florida, seconded Roosevelt's nomination.

While Colonel Lloyd, a former confederate, was speaking, King, who fought for the Union, threw his arms around Lloyd's neck, the delegates cheering. General McDowell of Tennessee then also seconded Roosevelt's nomination.

Senator Joseph M. Dixon of Montana, who led Roosevelt's forces before the national convention, will be named as chairman of the national progressive committee. The national committee will be organized tomorrow and outline plans for the coming campaign. Both Colonel Roosevelt and Governor Johnson, if nominated, will speak in every state in the union.

GAINS AND LOSSES IN STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, Aug. 7.—At the opening of today's stock market Canadian Pacific declined two points and American Tobacco, Smelting and National Biscuit were off from one to three points. Prices were generally lower and there was a heavy undertone. About noon the market became more active and Reading, Lehigh Valley and St. Paul made good gains. The leading railroad shares were under slight pressure and a few of the higher specialties were distinctly weak. American Tobacco and Biscuit were among the weakest features.

The market closed irregular. Bonds were steady.

TRAINS ON PENNSYLVANIA SYSTEM ARE ALL DRY

CHICAGO, Aug. 7.—Beginning today all trains on the Pennsylvania railroad system and its branches will be "dry" as a result of a temperance agitation and the Pennsylvania state laws prohibiting the sale of liquors on railroad trains.
