CENTRAL POINT ITEMS

Miss Agnes Dunlap is visiting relatives in Grants Pass this week. J. A. Yeatman returned to his home in Oakland, California, Tuesday morning. Mrs. J. O. Inneson spent Tuesday in Grants Pass. City council met in regular session Monday night with Mayor Cowley, Recorder Jacobs and all councilmen except Councilman Moon, present. After allowing bills for July and ordering all street work discontinued, the matter of a new pump for water system was brought up. After discussing the matter until 1 a. m. Tuesday the mayor and recorder were instructed to let the contract to the United Iron Works company. A pump is to be installed and ready for service in thirty days after signing the contract. The council also changed the hours for irrigating on Sundays. You can now irrigate from 6:30 a. m. to 8 a. m. Mayor Cowley spent Tuesday morning in Medford. Martena Neal of Seven Oaks was the guest of Miss Audrey Holmes Tuesday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Bert McLain entertained Mr. and Mrs. Smith at dinner Sunday. A number of our young people attended "Louisiana Lou" at Medford Tuesday evening. J. W. Smith is visiting his son Tom at Edgewood, Cal., this week. Miss Rose DeFord of Sams Valley visited friends here this week. H. E. Bedford of Medford spent Wednesday here. Mr. and Mrs. Faber entertained the members of the M. E. Sunday school board at their home Tuesday evening. The evening was spent in social amusements after which elaborate refreshments were served. All present report spending a very enjoyable evening. Miss Nettie Lewis, Miss Rose DeFord, W. D. Lewis and S. A. Pattison were passengers from here to Medford Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. I. F. Williams has returned from a visit to Grants Pass. Mrs. Bertha Young of Grants Pass is visiting her mother, Mrs. W. J. Nichols in this city. I. F. Williams has purchased a new Flanders 20 car. It is rapidly becoming an expert chauffeur.

DEBENGER GAP

Mrs. George Epperly and three children of Grants Pass came to Beagle last Wednesday where they will spend a week visiting with their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Stacy and family. Dr. E. Kirchgessner reports a fine big baby girl born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rodgers of Beagle on July 27. Theodore Glass of Beagle went to Eugene last week to take charge of a threshing machine for a thrasherman of that vicinity. Miss Nellie Dawson of Medford is visiting friends and relatives in the upper Rogue River country this week. The harvesting machinery of this side of the valley is kept pretty busy as there is considerable grain to be harvested this fall. Rex H. Lampman of Gold Hill is visiting friends at Riverdale and Debenger Gap this week. Ben H. Lampman, editor of the Gold Hill News and Paul Brosius of Gold Hill started on a hunting trip to Huckleberry mountain last Saturday.

TAFT RETURNS HOME FROM CINCINNATI TRIP

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—Returning here today from Cincinnati after attending the funeral of John W. Heron, father of Mrs. Taft, the president went immediately to the executive offices.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

The last time I wrote I believe I promised to tell this time about the grand social we had last Thursday night at the parsonage of the Baptist minister. There had been special invitations given out to almost everyone in our valley with the instruction to be sure to keep it a secret, to a Pound Social at the parsonage, with the understanding that the people were to meet at Mrs. Owens' and march in a body, each one being requested to bring something that would be useful to the family. About the time for the people to begin to gather Mrs. Suddarth one of our new teachers, took the notion to invite the minister and his family to take a walk up the hill near town and by that means keep them from seeing the crowd collecting at the Eagle Point Hotel as per agreement, and also give them a chance to get in and take possession of the parsonage. The plan worked to a charm and about 8 o'clock the company that had formed on that side of the creek began to march across the bridge and your correspondent joined them just as they were entering the yard gate, and I began to wonder if I was going to be in an old H. W. ladies' party all alone but at the rear of the procession I began to see a few men and felt quite relieved. But when we reached the house the door was unlocked and the company marched in and deposited the goods in the kitchen. It up the house and began to look around for some of the inmates, for they have three children and we naturally supposed that they would be at home but to there was no one there and then some of them began to feel as though they had been sold and would have no fun in the line expected but soon some one was seated at the organ and Frank Nichols had his violin and Harold Simpson had his horn so the music commenced and we were being entertained in that way when here came the minister Rev. L. L. Simmons and family and Mrs. Suddarth as innocent as a little lamb. Well now talk about any one being surprised, they hardly knew what to say or what to think and when they went into the kitchen and saw the stack of things on the table and floor they came to the conclusion that the preacher was being pounded sure enough. Well after the first excitement was over we then had some fine singing interspersed with instrumental music which was kept up until late bedtime when we quietly retired hoping that we may all live to enjoy another such a time. The following persons were present and each tried with the other to see who could make the occasion one of real pleasure and solid enjoyment. Mrs. A. J. Florey, her daughter Miss Marguerite and little boys, Judd and Theodore, Mrs. J. W. Grover and daughter, Mrs. Painter, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Stewart, Grandma Heckathorn, Mrs. Suddarth, Mrs. S. H. Harnish, Mrs. Frank Brown, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Daley, Mrs. M. L. Dally, Mrs. F. Salter, Mr. and Mrs. Warnstorff, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nichols and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bryant, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wolfer, Mrs. A. N. Thomas, Mrs. James Ringey, Mrs. W. L. Childreth, Mrs. D. C. Cull-sade, Harold Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Owens, Mrs. Lottie Van Scoy, Miss Louisa Blass, Miss Genett Hazelton, Miss Bermuda Lewis, Mrs. Wm. Kaighton, Mrs. Jo Mooman, Mrs. Jessie Vernon and Mrs. Lottie McQuaid. I have written the above names from memory and may have omitted some but think that I have given all of them, and let me tell you when you get all of them folks together with the minister and his family, and your correspondent to report you may rest assured that there will be something doing.

Well here I am at the bottom of my 11th page and still have a batch of Eaglelets long enough to make another letter as long as this but the next time will tell who was here Sunday and what was done and who is to present the Catholic church with a new bell.

RIVERSIDE RIPPLES.

Mrs. D. H. Stead was in Medford visitor Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Galligar of the Del Rio, Rock Point and Mrs. Orr of Medford left Thursday for an overland trip to Crescent City, expecting to be gone about ten days. Mrs. Gay and Miss Harper have just completed the purchase of the orchard tract adjoining them, owned by Mr. Gilbert of Medford. Quite a party of Riverside people visited Ray Gold Sunday. They were Mr. and Mrs. Nye, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Stead, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Stead, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Alden, Mrs. C. H. Alden, Anna McKeon, George Jacobs and Mr. Norton. Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Woolverton have been entertaining Medford friends the past week. Mr. Jernsta, who spent several days fishing, Mr. and Mrs. De Armond and Miss Mamie Clark. Miss Bertha Woolverton is visiting Medford friends this week. A party of four headed by Richard Swacker brought in a fine two-year-old buck deer Monday. Harold Aten, who has been working on a fruit ranch near Eagle Point, is back at work on his ranch. Mrs. Nye and Mrs. Sprague were calling on Riverside friends Monday afternoon. Prof. Reddie of the state university and his son, Maelvor Reddie, Herbert Mathews from Boston, who is to teach at Roseburg the coming year, and Alexander Martin, a student of the state university, are camping at the Rozalis ranch, guests of Mrs. Gay and Miss Harper. Mrs. Porter entertained the Recreation Club Thursday and all who could attend had a very enjoyable time. Each member responded to roll call by giving their ideas on the much discussed subject, "Woman's Suffrage." Mrs. Nye and Mrs. Gay read articles along these lines, then Mrs. Porter, assisted by Miss Martha and Master Harris Porter, served a very delicious lunch. On account of the very busy season and the hot weather, it was decided that the next meeting would be in four weeks instead of two.
