SPECIALTIES FEATURE OF STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—Specialties, with much strength behind them, were the feature of today's opening stock market. Sears Roebuck and Westinghouse Electric gained from one to two points, while the active list showed but nominal changes, with a mixture of gains and losses. Canadian Pacific and Southern Pacific were heavy and the Hill issues were under recent best prices. Steel and Copper were under pressure and the trading was very light. Reading was the feature of the active group. The market closed irregular. Bonds were steady.

"SEEING" IS HELD IN JUSTICE COURT

A "seeing" took the place of a hearing in the courtroom of Justice of the Peace Taylor this morning instead of the customary "hearing." The assault case preferred against C. J. Lidberg, a deaf mute, by his sister-in-law, Mrs. Anna Galitsky, who is likewise afflicted, was tried out. A recollection was effected by Mrs. Lidberg, after much wigwagging and wringing. The progress of the case was slow but there was no doubt about its ending. The three left the court arm in arm after a furious oscillatory making up scene. The trouble grew out of a family quarrel. Lidberg was charged with slapping his sister-in-law.

BORDWELL DENIES STEFFENS STORY

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Aug. 9.—"I did not at any time prior to the plea of guilty discuss with Lincoln Steffens any plan for the McNamaras to plead guilty." This statement was made by Superior Judge Walter Bordwell, trial judge in the McNamara trial, over the objection of the defense. In the trial of Clarence S. Darrow for alleged jury bribing today. Judge Bordwell was called by the state to impeach Lincoln Steffens' magazine writer, who swore that the jurist was cognizant of the negotiations for the McNamara plea of guilty. Following the sentencing of J. B. and J. J. McNamara to San Quentin for the dynamiting of the Los Angeles Times building and the murder of twenty-one men, Judge Bordwell issued a public statement in which he said that the bribery of jurors and nothing else caused the ending of the famous trial.

COST $17,000 TO LAUNCH PARTY

CHICAGO, Aug. 9.—A statement of the expenses of the progressive national convention issued here today shows that it cost the new party just $17,000 to meet here, while it cost $96,000 for the republican national convention to re-nominate President Taft. The seat sale to the progressive convention and the individual contributions totalled $19,000, leaving a surplus of $2,000 in the progressive treasury. The progressive national committee continued today its work of canvassing the various states regarding the progressive outlook. Chairman Joseph M. Dixon has appointed Geo. W. Perkins, former member of the banking firm of J. P. Morgan and Company, chairman of the executive committee, and Perkins will name a treasurer and other officers for his committee.

ILLINOIS BEAUTY TRIED FOR MURDER

CHICAGO, Aug. 9.—Determined efforts were begun today by the state to fix the death penalty on Mrs. Florence Bernstein, accused of the murder of her husband and whose trial opened here today. Mrs. Bernstein admitted the killing of her husband, George Bernstein, a prosperous salesman, in their home, but bases her plea on self defense. "My husband came into the bedroom with a revolver in his hand and threatened to kill me," she said. "I struggled with him and the gun exploded five times during the tussle." Mrs. Bernstein is said to be the most beautiful woman ever tried for murder in Illinois, if not the entire country.

PRICE OF BEEF JUMPS TWELVE CENTS IN TACOMA

TACOMA, Wash., Aug. 9.—The wholesale price of beef increased from 11 to 12 cents here in the last twenty-four hours. The supply is extremely low and the wholesale price is expected to increase from one to three cents. Retail prices of beef are raising accordingly and there is a general trend toward an increase in the price of other meats. Scarcity of stock is assigned by butchers and packing firms as the cause of the increase. By winter meats are expected to reach a price placing it beyond the reach of the poorer classes.

LLOYD'S CONVINCED OF WILSON'S ELECTION

LONDON, Aug. 9.—Convinced that the democratic nominee is to be the next president of the United States Lloyd's today fixed a 50 per cent premium for insurance against the election of Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey.
