

SOCIETY

An event of not a little interest to the members of the younger social set of this city occurred Tuesday afternoon, when Miss Jeannette Brackett Osgood was united in marriage to Mr. Albert T. Brown. The affair took place at the home of the bride on North Orange street, where the rooms were transformed into a summer bower by a tasteful arrangement of palms, ferns and pink and white sweet peas. The ceremony was preceded by two very pleasing vocal solos by Miss Phoebe Hance, "Springtime" and Mrs. Bond's "A Perfect Day." Miss Lilla Grigsby played the Mendelssohn wedding march. The bride, gowned in white silk marquise over white satin and carrying a bouquet of bridal roses and lilies of the valley, entered on the arm of her brother, Mr. Thomas W. Osgood.

Rev. W. F. Shields of the Presbyterian church officiated, using the beautifully impressive ring service. After the ceremony light refreshments were served. About eighteen guests were present, including the relatives and intimate friends of the young couple. Mr. and Mrs. Brown left Tuesday evening for a short trip north, being at home to their friends after September 15 at their residence at 1622 West Fourth street.

Both bride and groom have many friends in this city who extend sincere wishes for their happiness and success in the new life.

Thursday afternoon Mrs. C. A. Meeker entertained her class of piano pupils and their friends at her home, 315 North Bartlett street. A program consisting of piano solos and duets, was given by the pupils, after which a jolly time was spent in playing games. Dainty refreshments were served. Those present were: Aegnes Bennett, Helen Philbrook, Ethel and Stella Anderson, Lucretia Bateman, ary Tinker, Bernice Smith, Hazel and Julia Wiley, Mabel Keizer, Fern McKilligan, Flora Eastman, Naomi Brown and Vera Roundtree.

An interesting meeting of the C. W. B. M. of the Christian church was held at the home of Mrs. Quigley on North Fir street Wednesday afternoon. An unusually good attendance was noticeable. The topics under discussion were missionary work in Mexico and the life and achievements of Jacob Kenoly, a noted worker in that field. After the business meeting, refreshments were served and a short period of sociability enjoyed.

The Alpha Delta society, whose members include the young ladies of the Christian church, met for the monthly business meeting at the home of Mrs. E. E. Eads Wednesday evening. The following officers were elected: President, Miss Myers; vice-president, Mrs. Boyd; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Eads. The business session was followed by a social hour and light refreshments served.

Mrs. Mabel W. Babson, late of the Chicago Musical college, has been added to the teaching force of the Medford Conservatory. She will assist Mr. Tallandier as teacher of piano, also introducing a new department for children only. The conservatory is now conveniently located on the second floor of the College building, on North Grape street.

Mrs. William Budge and daughter, Jean, returned Friday morning from a trip including several points in Colorado, Washington and Oregon. While gone Mrs. Budge spent some time with her parents in Colorado, also with relatives in Tacoma, and witnessed both the Golden Potlatch carnival at Seattle and the Elks' convention at Portland.

Mrs. J. M. Keene entertained with a dinner Tuesday evening at her home on South Oakdale avenue for her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Barneburg of Ashland, and a cousin, Miss Grace Barneburg of San Luis Obispo, Cal. Dr. and Mrs. Keene and Miss Barneburg recently motored to Crater lake.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Fields and daughter, Miss Willow Fields, who motored from Portland to Medford a short time ago, returned to their home after making the Crater lake trip. While in Medford Miss Fields was the guest of Miss Fern Hutchison.

Miss Carrie Louise Alton, who spent the past winter season in Medford and delighted many with her splendid work both as violin soloist and teacher, is now located at Portland, where she will open classes in September, at present engaging in solo work at social affairs.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Harvey, former residents of Carroll, Ia., are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Coffin, Ross court. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey have decided to locate permanently in Medford. They will occupy one of the Gates bungalows on Rose avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis and Mrs. Helen Gale returned from a short trip to Crater lake Thursday evening. Mrs. Gale and little daughter, Rowen, leave Sunday for a visit with friends at Marshfield and other points along Coos Bay.

Miss Maise Foster and Miss Woody of Portland, who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. George King at the King camp, spent a few days in Medford this week. Miss Woody then returned to Portland, Miss Foster to remain until September 1.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Isaacs and son, Miss Grace Brown and Mrs. White motored to Evans creek the forepart of the week, returning through the Willow Springs country.

Miss Ethel Primm has reached her home at Hannibal, Mo., after a trip including several visits en route. She sends greetings to her many friends in this city.

Mr. John H. Garnett of the Garnett-Corey company, left this week for a visit of two months with a son and daughter at Kansas City.

The members and a large number of the friends of the Queen Esther Circle were delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. Harry Whetsel, West Main street, Wednesday afternoon. Roses, sweet peas, nasturtiums, in great profusion formed the floral decorations on the spacious porch, living room, dining room, also on tables on the beautiful lawn, which was the scene of the several games and contests and afforded much merriment for the occasion. There was fun for all and a number of prizes of choice candy was given the successful contestants. After an enjoyable session spent in social chat, refreshments of delicious, ice-cream punch and cake were served on the lawn while listening to the enchanting strains of music from the Victrola which rendered the songs of Tetrazzina Melba and others. Quite a neat sum was realized for the circle and all seemed reluctant to leave and expressed themselves as having had a "good time."

Master John B. Patton celebrated his sixth birthday Friday afternoon at his home on South Grape. The decorations were of pink and white. Games were played, refreshments were served and all report a jolly, good time. Those present were Charlotte and Marjorie Hoy, Mary Foster, Eunice Parker, Thelma Gannaway, Eileen and Dorothy Reddy, Dorothy Von der Hellen, Maurine McKenley, Blanche McKee Frances Smith, Robert and Lawrence Duff, Walter and Tom Ran, Werner Hoy, Louis Quisenberry, Jim and Edward Smith, Paul Gannaway, Russell Sealy, Lelo and Joe Herran, Daniel Von der Hellen, Paul Reddy, Jay Hale and James and Marcella Smythe of Spokane, Washington.

The ladies of the W. R. C. gave a surprise farewell party August 6th at the home of Mrs. Mary Roseberry, 615 North Bartlett street, in honor of Mrs. H. G. Miller, who left this week for her new home near Roseburg, Oregon. Those present were, Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Paul, Mrs. Burke, Mrs. Andrews, Mrs. Boardman, Mrs. Metz, Mrs. McKinnis, Mrs. Thomas Roseberry, Mrs. Mary Roseberry and Mrs. H. G. Miller. Refreshments were served consisting of ice cream and cake, also lemonade, orangeade and other good things. All present had a nice time and late in the afternoon departed for their homes, wishing Mrs. Miller much joy, pleasure and happiness in her new home.

Mrs. W. C. Debley entertained informally Thursday evening for Miss Irene Hurley of St. Paul. Miss Geraldine Miksche gave a few vocal solos and Miss Grigsby a number of piano selections. Miss Hurley was a former classmate of Miss Miksche's at St. Katherine College, St. Paul. Guests present were Miss Hurley, Miss Miksche, Miss Lilla Grigsby, Miss Della Beck and Miss Liella Debley.
