HARVESTING OF PEARS UNDER WAY

With picking under way in the orchards of the valley and with six or seven cars being loaded the harvesting of the 1912 Bartlett pear crop is now on in full blast. Three cars have been shipped and additional shipments will be made from day to day until the season finishes. One or two of the orchards in the valley will delay picking until Wednesday or Thursday holding back the picking as much as possible. Within two days however every grove of bearing Bartletts in the valley will have been invaded. While California shipments were heavy last week the bulk of the crop has reached the market leaving the Rogue River fruit a splendid opening.

ENGINE SPARK IS CAUSE OF $5,000 RANCH FIRE

As the result of a spark from the county's road engine, 20 acres of 3 year old apple and pear trees, a fine barn and several acres of partially timbered land, was destroyed by fire Monday afternoon. The property known as the Gordon Place on the old Jacksonville road, belongs to Messrs. R. J. Root and W. I. Vawter and no insurance was carried. The loss is estimated at $5,000. The spark obtained its start in a stubble field and was beyond control before the road crew could extinguish it. Driven by a south wind it swept through the orchard which was sown interrow with hay, on to the buildings of the ranch, which were a complete loss. Immediately adjoining the property is a fine oak covered hill which was also swept clean.

The Proof Is In The Seeing

The Pierce acres, beyond the reservoir, are dotted with settlers who got on the land last spring, and who have made a very creditable showing. There are 72 acres still for sale—at way down prices—and in tracts of 5 acres and up. Let us take you out and show what is being done on this tract. The prices are right, and terms right, and the land right for garden and fruit purposes. Water is available for all parts of the tract. Let us show you.

WIDOW LOSES HER ALL IN SAN FRANCISCO BANK

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 13.—Two persons attracted attention in front of the building of the Continental Building and Loan Association today. One was Frank J. Brandon of the state building and loan commission. He is entitled to possession under a statute which the bank's counsel declares unconstitutional. Brandon sat all day on the steps because he could not get inside. The other figure was an aged woman who wept as she told how she had been induced to draw her last thousand dollars from a savings bank and deposit it with the Continental. Her bank book showed her deposit had been made after the investigation was begun.
