Our Correspondents

Edward White, who has been an employe of the Clancy ranch for several months, has left here, and after spending a few days at Portland will return to his old home in Texas. Miss Ekron Gall is spending a few days with relatives in Ashland and Talent. Mr. and Mrs. Lambert and children of California are spending the summer at Nick Mitchell's. EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

Last Thursday morning I started from home for Grants Pass to visit Dr. M. C. Findley, the Grants Pass eye specialist. On my arrival in Medford about the first place I found myself was the Mail Tribune office to get a new list of the Eagle Point subscribers to that paper and to secure a copy of the latest. Then I repaired to the S. P. depot and sat down and read the Mail Tribune until train time. I boarded the motor car and started and was soon absorbed with what I was seeing along the route. What few bearing orchards there were along the route were simply loaded with fruit of all kinds, and one would judge by the appearance of the stubble and the stacks that the crop had been fully up to date. There was considerable alfalfa hay being cut and stacked and one unfamiliar with this country would wonder what is to become of all the hay that is stacked along the line.

of baptism by immersion and the result was that there was quite a crowd assembled. Rev. Davis preached at 11 o'clock and then we went down to Trail creek and he there baptised John and Katie Warner, and at the close of the services we all partook of the basket dinner. There was quite a number who came from Elk creek and some from the neighborhood of Central school house, and after partaking of as fine a dinner as anyone could wish I preached to a house full of attentive listeners. As I was away from home on Sunday I cannot tell of all that transpired that day as Mrs. Howlett seldom asks anyone their name, but among the visitors were Mr. and Mrs. George Garrett and her mother, Mrs. Clara Rader. Mrs. Rader is one of our old neighbors with whom we have been acquainted for almost fifty years and her daughter, Mrs. Garrett, and our girls were associated together in their childhood days, they having lived within a half of a mile of each other for about twenty years. But I see that I am making my letter entirely too long, so will stop right here and will try next Wednesday to tell the readers something else that will be of interest to them.

The enclosed petition numerous signed was presented to the city council on Monday night and evidence is being secured for prosecution.
