EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett

The last time I wrote for the Mail Tribune I had so much to write that I had to postpone writing some of my items until today, Wednesday, and now will start off just where I finished Monday.

About the most notable incident that has come to my knowledge is so much out of the ordinary that I hesitated about writing it up, but on the advice of two of our prominent citizens have concluded to give it to the public. On Thursday of last week there was a man by the name of R. N. Cote put in his appearance and commenced to deliver pictures that he had taken to enlarge and it appears that he had taken one of our mayor's wife, Mrs. Wm. Von der Hellen, and the charge is that he, R. N. Cote, went to the store of Von der Hellen Bros. and collected his pay and then went to the residence of the mayor and collected the amount of Mrs. Von der Hellen whereupon the aforesaid mayor learned of the act, went to home of Mr. Henry O. Childreth, Mrs. Childreth being there alone except her small children, to find the said R. N. Cote, and finding him there asked Mrs. Childreth to retire to the kitchen as he had some business with the man, and then made a demand on Mr. Cote for the money, using language that is not fit to put in print, but informed Mr. Cote that he was the mayor and that if he did not deliver the money he would beat him to death and with the threat grabbed him by the throat, with the result that some of the neighbors hearing an unusual noise ran to the house and found the two men in a regular knock-down and drag-out fight. The marshal was among them but he made no arrests, for reasons best known to himself. When Mr. Childreth heard of the affair he went to the recorder to have the mayor arrested, but he, for reasons best known to himself, declined to interfere. He then went to Judge Watkins and secured a warrant for the arrest of the mayor charged with assault on one R. N. Cote and the mayor was duly arrested by the marshal, pleaded guilty and was fined five dollars and costs. This was Monday morning.

Mrs. C. D. Stout and daughter, Miss Ora, came out last Sunday to spend a while at the Sunnyside with her husband, who has charge of the construction of the new steel bridge across the Little Butte.

Last Monday Mr. J. T. Sumnerville, wife and son Lee, W. V. Tower and wife, and F. D. Tower, all of Medford, came in from Crater Lake for dinner. They report having quite a time on account of the snow and rain, but felt that they had been repaid for all their troubles and hardships they underwent. They report that there are just hundreds of people going to the lake this season in automobiles.

Albert Anderson of Grants Pass, a member of the firm of Albert Anderson Co., who are in the concrete paving business, called for dinner Monday. He has a young orchard in the edge of our town and came out to look after it.

At a meeting of the school board they employed Mrs. George Von der Hellen to teach the primary department at a salary of seventy-five dollars a month.

Last Monday evening Mr. T. L. Benson, wife and two children, and Mrs. Benson's brother, Victor Barrett, and wife, called for supper. Mr. Benson is living on the old France Plymouth place and Mr. Barrett is living on the old Chamber's place.

Monday afternoon Mrs. Howlett received a message over the phone ordering a chicken dinner for a company of eight at one o'clock Tuesday and promptly at the hour designated two autos came dashing up to the Sunnyside and Mrs. J. A. Westlund, Mrs. Julia Perl, Mrs. A. A. Davis, Miss Aileen Perl, Miss Dorothy Wickes, Miss Marjorie Westlund and Miss Lillian Westlund, all of Medford except Miss Marjorie Westlund who is from Chicago visiting her aunt and uncle. They were accompanied by Budman Taylor who was driving the auto for Mr. Perl. Talk about a time, they surely had it and was with great reluctance that they finally tore themselves loose from the table and began to get ready for the return trip. Of course, they all had to be introduced to the writer of the Eaglets and it almost made me blush to hear the compliments they paid me.

T. R.'S CAMPAIGN EXPENSES BEFORE CONVENTION GIVEN

CHICAGO, Aug. 23.—United States Senator Dixon, director of the progressive campaign issued a statement tonight in which he declared the campaign expenses of the progressives before the convention amounted to less than $160,000 and said, "I read these stories about our expenses during this primary campaign with considerable amusement at first. I knew they had been given circulation by the republican organization but took them as a joke until I discovered certain editorial writers were using these false reports as a basis for some of their writings. Outside of the money contributed by local leaders in Ohio, Pennsylvania, Illinois and Massachusetts for the primary campaign in these four states, the entire Roosevelt pre-convention campaign cost less than $160,000. I think $150,000 would be a nearer figure for the total.
