

SOCIETY

A number of ladies were invited by Mrs. Alan Brackinreed and Mrs. Porter J. Neff to the home of the latter on Belmont street Monday afternoon to enjoy an interesting musical program given by local talent with the exception of the Misses Westerlund of Chicago. Miss Ruth Bower, who received her musical education in Washington, D. C., and is at present a teacher in this city, opened the program with a Scherzo by Chopin, whose compositions are always a delight to the genuine music lover. Three vocal numbers were then given by Miss Grace Brown. Miss Brown is in Medford on a short vacation after a year's study with Mrs. Rose Bloch Bauer of Portland and the improvement in her voice shows what systematic training and conscientious work will accomplish in a comparatively short time. The numbers given were an aria from Samson et Delilah by Saint Saens, aria from Jeane d'Arc by Teikowsky and "Memories" by Charles Wakefield Cadman.

Miss Lillian Westerlund accompanied by her sister Miss Marjorie Westerlund was heard in two violin numbers the rendition of which showed talent and careful study. They were a minuet by Beethoven and the "Berceuse" from Jocelyn by Godard.

Miss Geraldine Theiss, in soprano solos gave the last three numbers of the afternoon. Mimi's song from "La Boheme" was followed by the Jocelyn "Lullaby" with violin obligato by Miss Westerlund, and "Where Corais Lie" from the exquisitely beautiful group of "Sea Pictures" by Sir Edward Elgar, the English composer.

The remainder of the afternoon was spent in social converse. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses.

The guests present were the Misses Lillian and Marjorie Westerlund, Mrs. John A. Westerlund, Miss Ruth Bower, Miss Bertha English, Miss Geraldine Theiss, Miss Grace Brown and Mrs. Harry Hicks.

Miss Helen Charles of Los Angeles and Miss Jessie Pringle of Tresson, Mo., were honor guests at a bridge party given Wednesday afternoon at the home of Miss Bertha English. Miss Helen Dahl and Miss Sara Rellay won highest scores, occupying the head table during the entire afternoon. Miss English's guests included Misses Helen Charles, Jessie Pringle, Fern Hutchinson, Lucille Marshall, Bess Kentner, Sara Rellay, Helen Dahl, Aletha Emerick, Hazel Davis, Gladys Heard, Ruth Merrick, Mayme Deuel, Bertha Everhard, Mesdames Colvig, Burgesch, Redfield and Rothermal.

A pleasant afternoon was spent at the home of Miss Cordelia Goffe on Millionaire Row, Tuesday of this week by a number of young ladies invited to meet Miss Jessie Harritt, a visiting guest of Miss Goffe from Salem. The hours were spent in sewing until the serving of refreshments. Those enjoying Miss Goffe's hospitality were: Miss Jessie Harritt, Miss Mildred Gerig, Miss Lucy Williams of Arkansas, Miss Fern Jerome, Miss Opal Daly, Miss Tracy and the Misses Mac Clatchie.
