RECENT INMATES OF ROYAL ARRESTED

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 28.—While investigating white slave cases Tuesday, Detectives Long and Martin found Charlotte and Kate Diamond in a room with a 15-year-old girl, Irene Lamar, whom they state they were taking from Medford to Grays Harbor, but as the room was littered with empty beer bottles and cigarette stubs, the women were held for contributing to the delinquency of a minor and were bound over to the grand jury, this morning. Eva Goldstone, who was found in the hotel, was arrested on a vagrancy charge and she, with the others, will be given a hearing Friday.

The three women mentioned in the above despatch were inmates of the Royal rooming house in this city, which was closed last Friday by the police. The Lamar girl is said to have come to Medford with a street carnival three months ago and since that time has been an inmate of the Royal. No investigation as to her age was made by the authorities while she was here.
