

What's the Use of Moving if Your Neighbors Move Too?

Our Correspondents

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

Among the callers last Sunday were Dr. Harry Hart and wife, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Ellis of Medford and Miss Cora E. Clannon of Quincy, Ill. The two named gentlemen own orchards near Medford, in Eden valley and Miss Clannon is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ellis. When they first arrived at the Sunnyside the ladies walked through the sitting room into the parlor and Dr. Hart and your correspondent stopped and were in conversation in the sitting room when Mr. Ellis came in and said that the ladies wished to meet the author of the Eaglets, so as a matter of course I had to march in and when they told me of having read my Eaglets for the last three years and how interested they were, I felt quite elated. Well, we had a very pleasant visit and they all seemed to enjoy their dinner as well as the visit to the Sunnyside.

EDEN PRECINCT

Your correspondent and husband have just returned from a three weeks' outing at the beautiful summer home of Furry brothers at Lost Prairie in the Dead Indian country. And I must say that their place is one of the finest for a summer outing in all that section, and as for hospitality, they excel. Last Friday morning there were fifty in camp, all neighbors. We enjoyed venison, fish from Fish Lake, and all the huckleberries we were able to get out and gather. We had to ride out two or three miles for berries in any great quantity but got plenty for table use quite near. The spring at Furry's place has no equal and has great medical properties. Meat and milk was free to all their guests as well as pasture for the horses.

CENTRAL POINT ITEMS

Mrs. Margaret and Laura Shuck of California visited friends here this week. S. A. Pattison left Thursday morning for Condon on a business trip. J. E. Murphy of Medford and J. E. Roswell spent Thursday at Rogue River on a fishing trip. Mrs. Ella Arnold returned to her home in Sheridan, Wyoming, Wednesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Smith, Mrs. R. L. Wilson, Mrs. Randle and daughter, Mrs. Lan, Miss Sarah Bebb, Miss Mee, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Herring were among our people in Medford Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Lee Watkins of Medford spent Thursday here. Miss May Davidson of Seven Oaks spent Thursday afternoon with friends here. Mrs. H. Price and children who have been living at Weed for the past two months have returned to this city. D. B. Hendricks and wife of Panama, California, are here visiting Mrs. Hendricks' sister, Mrs. W. E. Kahler.

FANS CROWD TO SEE BOXERS IN TRAINING

That local boxing fans are enthused over the Frankie Smith and Jim Horner bout scheduled before the Medford Athletic club next Monday night is evidenced by the number of fans who daily flock to the club gymnasium to watch the little lightweights go through their afternoon's training grind. After their bout Monday night neither boy will have any excuses to offer as to his physical condition, as the speed and wind of both boys are perfect, and they should be able to set a fast clip throughout the ten rounds. The fans moreover are apt to see some tall milling as each lad is anxious to score a decisive win. As there has been no bout in Medford the past two months owing to the warm weather a packed house is sure to greet the revival of the popular sport.

There will be one four round preliminary between a couple of local boys to precede the main event. General admission will be $1. Reserved seats on sale Hotel Nash.

PROHIBITION CANDIDATES TO SPEAK IN MEDFORD TONIGHT

E. Lee Paget, prohibition candidate for U. S. senator and O. A. Stillman, prohibition candidate for congress will be in Medford tonight in their auto water wagon and will speak at the opera house. No admission will be charged and a large audience is expected. The two men are said to be interesting speakers and will speak throughout the state. Today they will have a meeting at Jacksonville early in the day and tomorrow will speak at Talent, Phoenix and Ashland.
