

Laying All Jokes Aside, It Is Really Hot

By "Bud" Fisher

CAMERON WOULD OUST ESTERLY

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 31.—The first step in the fight of George J. Cameron, removed from the office of District Attorney by Governor West, to oust H. M. Esterly, appointed by the governor to succeed Cameron today is taken by Cameron's filing information in the circuit court in quo warranto proceedings against Esterly. The announcement was made that Cameron's attorneys would appear today before Judge McGinn and apply for an order to restrain and prohibit Esterly from exercising the functions of District Attorney and ask that Cameron be reinstated.

WOULD LIFT PAST OF WELLS LOUNSBERRY

TOPEKA, Kan., Aug. 31.—The past of Wells Lounsberry, the Oregon orchardist wounded last Friday while attempting to hold up a Union Pacific mail car, is the object of a nation wide search by government officials, and requests have been received from all parts of the country asking that an investigation be made, in an effort to connect him with unavowed train robberies for twenty years. From Denver comes the report that he has been identified with crimes in that city, during July. A suitcase furnishes the Denver clue.

It is believed that Lounsberry went to Kansas City from Denver and intended to come back here to get his grips and mail. A worn suitcase with all of Lounsberry's traveling possessions was found at a Denver hotel. Check number 38 was found in his possession, and it corresponded with the number of the case at the hotel.

The suit case was opened by government and police officers and the contents bore out the reports that Lounsberry had been in Denver at various times and had operated here as a footpad. The grip gave the government officers the first correct spelling of the bandit's name.

TO STUDY RAILROAD POSSIBILITIES IN ALASKA

PORTLAND, Or., Aug. 31.—Major Jay J. Morrow, with a corps of engineers, today received word from Washington of his appointment as a member and chairman of the newly created Alaska railroad commission. The other members, according to the letter from Washington received here, are A. H. Brooks, vice chairman, chief of the bureau of Alaska mineral resources and geological survey, civil engineer; Leonard M. Cox, of the U. S. navy, principal assistant of the bureau of yards and docks at Washington, and C. M. Ingersoll, member

A Little Talk About the Star Theater

By Mgr. Sather. We don't claim that we have the best theater in the west, but we do claim that we have one among the best. We get the best pictures to be obtained, irrespective of cost. We try to get pictures that will please everybody, men, women and children of all classes and we usually succeed. Correct effects are never accidentals. Its no accident that makes our pictures so steady, clear and free from eye strain. It's simply because we have the best operator to be obtained, and the latest and most modern machinery made, our new curtain is now completed, and in use. It was made by ourselves after weeks of experimenting, and which we think shows a better picture than the most expensive patent curtain made. Then again we have one of the best pianists on the coast, who knows how to play the pictures, our drummer is second to none, we have a theater that could not be more sanitary, and better ventilated, kept cool at all times. Now this may sound like an essay on the supremacy of our theater, over all other theaters on earth, but it isn't that really. We talk a whole lot, but we try always to back our talk up with actual deeds. We set a splendid standard a year ago and have maintained it. Do you recall who it was gave you the first good pictures you ever had in this city? Who was it put on the first musical accompaniment to the picture that enhanced its value over fifty per cent? That never spared pains and expense to give you the best? What's the answer? This is the "excuse" our patrons have for liking our show, and it isn't such a worse "excuse", is it?

The Pierce Acres

Are the only available small tracts at the exceedingly low price of $135 to $250 per acre, within a mile of the town schools. They carry perpetual irrigation water rights, and are being closed out by Mr. Pierce, that he may devote all his time to developing the part he has reserved for himself. Others are developing the homes they bought last spring. We will be glad to show this tract to you. Get a home close in, school, irrigation water, electric power and light, and sold on such payment plan that a working man handle a piece of it. This opportunity will soon be gone. Act today.

C. D. HOON 15 Per Cent on Investment ARE YOU LOOKING? For a real bargain, I can show you one in 25 acres of Bear Creek bottom. All in bearing fruit, alfalfa and garden. Six room house, good barn and water. Within 1 1/2 miles Medford on Macadam road, Pacific Highway, R. F. D., telephone, gas and electricity. Low price and liberal terms. Or ten acres in bearing apples and pears in 1-4 mile of Central Point, 4 room house, etc. 15 per cent of price asked allowed for present crop if not desired by purchaser. See or write owner, Box 77, Route 2, Medford at once, as will sell.

Stripped blue and white foulard, oddly combined with blue chiffon of varied layers. Embroidered leather belt. Collar of embroidered batiste.—Maison Martin.

EQUAL SUFFRAGISTS PLAN BIG PICNIC

Equal suffragists are planning a grand rally picnic at the Ashland Chautauqua park Wednesday, September 4. It is expected that the picnic will be attended by Equal Suffrage workers from Grants Pass, Medford, Talent, Phoenix, Gold Hill, Central Point and Jacksonville. C. L. Reames will speak in the Chautauqua building at 2 p. m. on "Oregon Laws Concerning Women and Children."

Several hundred women are doing the work of men and alongside the men in Cleveland, Ohio, foundries.
