

WELLS LOUNSBERRY WAIVES EXAMINATION

Wells Lounsberry, who shot himself after his failure to escape after robbing a train on the Union Pacific near Topeka two weeks ago, was arraigned in the federal court at Topeka Tuesday.

Mrs. Lounsberry left Topeka Tuesday for Medford. She will probably arrive here next Saturday.

It is believed that Lounsberry's attorney will base his defense upon insanity, claiming that the injury to Lounsberry's head several years ago in a train wreck brought on a mania which led him to hold up trains.

GARFORD TO LEAD OHIO PROGRESSIVES

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Sept. 4.—The nomination of Arthur L. Garford of Elyria, for governor, at the progressive convention here today seems assured.

Former Secretary James R. Garfield of the interior department, declared that the adoption yesterday of the progressive amendments to the state constitution insures a tremendous Roosevelt vote in November.

UNBEATEN PACER DIRECTUM I.

DIRECTUM I.

The success of a high class young harness horse in the hands of a competent and trustworthy trainer this season may bring James Butler back to the trotting turf on a scale that will benefit the sport.

Trotting Association was used a few years ago in an unworthy attempt to take away from Mr. Butler on a technically about $50,000 in purses and stakes fairly won, he closed his training stable, sold out his big breeding stud, withdrew from all connection with harness racing and went over to the runners.

On dispersing his breeding stock he had two or three colts left over, one of which was a chestnut pacer by his old favorite, Directum Kelly, 2:03 1/4, a trotting station that went through the Grand Circuit of 1898 without losing a race.

Directum I, 2:13 1/2, the dam of the colt, was one of the unbeaten trotters of 1904 in the Great Western Circuit, where the daughter of Pictorius, 2:12 1/2, won seven straight races in six weeks.

This colt is now five years old and is known as Directum I. He has never been beaten.

JIM LING HELD BY GRAND JURY

Jim Ling was indicted by the grand jury Tuesday afternoon following the arrival of Laura Miller, white slave, from Portland. The trial will follow later during this term of court.

The Chinese tong in which Wo Lee, who was assaulted by Jim Ling, holds membership, is said to be active in backing the prosecution of Ling.

Jim Ling was first arrested in this city several months ago for assaulting Wo Lee, a laundryman. Later investigation showed that Laura Miller, a white girl, had been held as a white slave in the basement of the laundry.

HILLES SAYS VERMONT SHOWS T. R.'S WEAKNESS

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—Charles D. Hilles, chairman of the republican national committee gave out a statement today declaring that the Vermont election result shows the weakness of Roosevelt, as it means he will not get an electoral vote in a single state.

Hilles also said that republicans who desire to defeat Wilson will have to vote for President Taft.

ROOSEVELT FLAYS WILSON FOR STAND UPON TARIFF

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 4.—Woodrow Wilson's stand upon tariff, trusts and his proposal for minimum wage scales were assailed by Colonel Roosevelt in a speech here yesterday.

He joined issues squarely with Wilson taking as his text the democratic candidate's speech at yesterday at Buffalo. He spoke before the Missouri state progressive convention.

Roosevelt saw nothing of Governor Hadley who remained at the state capitol. The colonel was asked for advice whether a full state ticket should be named.

"I feel you ought to," he said. "I feel that except in those states in which we can take over bodily either of the old parties we ought to run a straight progressive ticket."

In his speech he said in part: "Mr. Wilson comes out squarely against our proposal to regulate the trusts. He has not anything to put in its place except a statement that he stands by the great democratic thinkers, who have made the democratic platform on this subject. Mr. Wilson is now governor of New Jersey and has been for nearly two years. If the Baltimore platform really offers any hope for the trust solution why during these two years has he done nothing whatever been done by New Jersey under Mr. Wilson's lead or even attempted by Wilson in New Jersey for the regulation of the trusts?"

"The answer is because the states by themselves cannot meet the difficulty and it is pure Toryism of the most backward kind to suppose that they can. Incidentally by any such policy they would have the grinning support of every law breaking trust."

It is estimated that the expense of the recent convention in Ohio to frame a new constitution and of the special state election next month to ratify or reject the proposed amendments will amount to three quarters of a million dollars.

MUTINY QUELLED BY WHIPPING POSTS

JACKSON, Mich., Sept. 4.—With five companies of militia encamped in the yard of the state penitentiary here, the whipping post was re-established today to quell a food mutiny which for days has raged in the prison.

The state troops are patrolling the blocks, cells and walls of the prison today. All is quiet. Prisoners wishing to go to work are being escorted to the factory under guard. Those who still refuse to work are locked in their cells and, if they continue refractory, it is expected they will be brought to terms by the lash.

CUMMINS TRIES TO BLOCK BULL MOOSE

DES MOINES, Ia., Sept. 4.—Friends of Senators Cummins and Kenyon are endeavoring to prevent the state progressive convention here from naming a state ticket today. A hard fight is in prospect.

The question may not be finally decided until Colonel Roosevelt addresses the convention late this afternoon.

HELLOFA JOB IN TIME OF LINCOLN SAYS TAFT

BOSTON, Sept. 4.—President Taft last night contrasted the conditions confronted by a president in these days of the spoils system with the system of appointment under civil service, and attacked the democratic house of representatives for attempting to limit the tenure of government employes and declared as long as he had the power no government clerk would be discharged unless the United States provided a system of civil service pensions to keep him from want in his old age.

He spoke in Faneuil Hall to several hundred post office employes in convention here.

Taft said the job of president in these days was not a thing of joy but in the time of Lincoln "it must have been a perfect hell." He declared emphatically the government employes were not overpaid, and praised their faithful service. He said he believed in a system of pensions with the government paying part and employes contributing.

SICKELS NAMED TO LEAD G. A. R.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Sept. 4.—The name of General Daniel E. Sickels of New York will be presented to the members of the Grand Army of the Republic when they gather in national encampment in Los Angeles next week for the office of commander-in-chief. It will be presented by General George Loud, past commander of the New York G. A. R., who is now visiting here.

General Sickels lost a leg at Gettysburg, and some historians declare that his impetuous dash at the head of the Third Army corps without waiting for orders at that battle was what turned the tide for the Northern troops.

INDIAN KEEPS WORD WITH FEDERAL JUDGE

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 4.—That he was worthy of the trust reposed in him today is proved by George Gray, a Klamath Indian. When Gray was sentenced to sixty days imprisonment for giving away liquor on the Klamath Indian reservation he asked United States District Judge Bean that the sentence be suspended two months so that he might return home and harvest his crops. The court granted his request and Gray returned at the proper time and gave himself up. Gray's trouble was the result of the birth of an heir. He felt so happy he obtained several gallons of whiskey and shared it with his neighbors.

Stomach misery just vanishes.

No Indigestion, Gas or Sourness After Taking "Pape's Diapepsin."

If what you just ate is souring on your stomach or lies like a lump of lead, refusing to digest, or you belch gas and eructate sour, undigested food, or have a feeling of dizziness, heartburn, fullness, nausea, bad taste in mouth and stomach headache—this is indigestion.

A full case of Pape's Diapepsin costs only fifty cents and will thoroughly cure your out-of-order stomach, and leave sufficient about the house in case some one else in the family may suffer from stomach trouble or indigestion.

Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula plainly printed on these fifty-cent cases, then you will understand why dyspeptic trouble of all kinds must go, and why they usually relieve sour, out-of-order stomachs or indigestion in five minutes. Diapepsin is harmless and tastes like candy, though each dose contains power sufficient to digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you eat; besides, it makes you go to the table with a healthy appetite; but, what will please you most, is that you will feel that your stomach and intestines are clean and fresh, and you will not need to resort to laxatives or liver pills for biliousness or constipation.

This city will have many Diapepsin cranks, as some people will call them, but you will be cranky about this splendid stomach preparation, too, if you ever try a little for indigestion or gastritis or any other stomach misery. Get some now, this minute, and forever rid yourself of stomach trouble and indigestion.
