LONG AGO WHEN JOHNSON GOT WHIPPED AND LANDED IN JAIL

When "Jack" Johnson was not a champion and before the days that he was possessed of means and felt that he was independent of all the world, he was willing to fight any one who could give him a good match and help him to earn money to buy bacon.

It was in 1901 that he boxed with Choynski at Galveston, Texas, and Choynski knocked the negro out. Johnson was not so clever then as he is now and probably was not possessed of as much pluck.

After the fight had taken place the Sheriff of the county came along and arrested both of the principals. An old photograph has been dug up of Johnson and Choynski in the "bustle," waiting for some one to come along and make peace with the law.

Neither of the principals seems to be very much frightened because they have happened to be arrested, and it would appear that the large steel pistols which are in the hands of the Sheriff and his deputy are rather unnecessary, in view of the peaceful character of both Choynski and Johnson. But perhaps they were worn to make the picture look good.

Dela-ware from all sections point to Wilson's election, and he will poll a heavy vote everywhere, even in California."
