EAGLE POINT EAGLETS. (By A. C. Howlett.) Joe Cassidy, son and partner, Mr. Sherman, all of Medford, came out to the Sunny Side last Saturday evening, spent the night, and the next morning started up Rogue river on a fishing excursion, returning on Monday morning. They had "fisherman's luck" - caught nothing. Henry Myers, his brother's son and Charles Kingie called for dinner last Monday. Mr. Kingie was on his way to Jacksonville to serve on the Jury and the two Myers were here after shakes they procured at the E. P. lumber yard. Jud Edsall and his father, John Edsall, were called Monday evening by phone to attend the funeral of the infant child of John Carter at Phoenix, it being Mr. Edsall's grandchild. J. C. Moore, wife and daughter spent the night at the Sunny Side last Monday and Tuesday morning went on up to Ashland, where Mrs. Moore and her daughter will remain and the little miss attend school. There is quite a lot of lumber being brought into town for the E. P. Lumber Co. just now, and Mr. Wiene, the manager, is kept busy most of the time. Mrs. Lottie Rippey, nee Lottie Taylor, a daughter of Mrs. H. G. Brown, of Portland, here visiting her mother and sister, Mrs. W. H. Brown. Mrs. Libby Eckmeyer, Mrs. Hattie Allen and Mrs. Nellie Simpson, daughters of Mrs. F. M. Stewart and sisters of Mrs. J. W. Grover, Mrs. Frank Nichols and William Perry arrived the first of the week from Washington and eastern Oregon. Mrs. Stewart is expecting another daughter, Mrs. Emma. (I have forgotten her surname) and a son of Mr. Stewart in a few days to have a grand family reunion. They had a reunion here about five years ago, when they all (except the son) came to the Sunny Side to a quilting and rag tacking and there met sixty of the neighbors and had a big feed. Our school board is having the interior of the school house painted and fixed up for school next Monday. The funeral services over the remains of Isaac Findley were held at the church yesterday, Tuesday, conducted by Rev. L. L. Simmons, the pastor of the church here. I am requested to offer a card of thanks to the many friends of the family for their kindness and sympathy during their hour of bereavement. The remains were taken to Grants Pass for interment. His five daughters attended the funeral. Tuesday there seemed to be a general rush to the Sunny Side for there was something like a dozen transients besides our regular boarders here for dinner, and at night there were about forty took supper and we had every bed full. Eagle Point is coming to the front. Get your school tablets, composition books, pencils, inks, etc., at the Model Variety Store. (Adv.) Marsh Garret, Thomas Farlow and two more men whom I did not recognize came to town Tuesday in an auto. Bert and John Higgenbotham spent the night at the Sunny Side Tuesday. James Riley was in town Tuesday engaging work for different families. Mrs. Fred Palouse went to Medford Tuesday afternoon. Her son Robbie is attending the high school in Medford. Floyd Pierce and family have come over from Forest Creek and expect to remain here and take care of Mrs. Pierce's father, J. J. Fryer, and send the children to school. Mr. McIntyre and wife and a friend of the family took supper at the Sunny Side Tuesday night, and Chris Hargeman and wife spent the night with us. Also a young man by the name of Tarbell. He is a book

SOLDIERS PREVENT STRIKERS' ASSEMBLAGE. CHARLESTON, W. Va., Sept. 7.—Troops preventing their assembling at the capitol here, the miners from the Kanawha district returned to their homes today. Governor Glasscock ordered the dispersal of the striking coal miners, fearing their mobilization would complicate the situation. The miners peacefully withdrew and held a meeting at the court house. Its Such a Satisfaction when you have to spend money for eye glasses to be sure that you have secured the best. I give the best; best for the eyes and best in appearance. Dr. Rickert, over Kentner's, Medford. NOTICE.
