EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

Mrs. Mitchell, a daughter of Wm. Patterson of Ashland, and her twin babies, have been visiting Mrs. A. H. Weber, wife of our pharmacist, the first of the week. While here she also visited several of her mother's, Mrs. Bessie Cliff, old friends.

CENTRAL POINT ITEMS

Mrs. M. R. England and little daughter left Saturday afternoon for a visit to her old home in Iowa. Miss Ethel Smith of Gold Hill visited Misses Edith and Cecyl Emerson the last of the week. Mrs. Ryan and Mrs. Smith and daughter Gertrude, who have been the guests of Miss Marion Hamrick and other relatives, left for their home at Chico, California, the last of the week.

Mrs. Eddie Korring of Derby came out last Thursday. Mr. J. V. McIntyre, our banker, and wife started Wednesday afternoon on a trip to the eastern states to be gone several weeks. Mr. Lunaden of the Fruit Growers bank of Medford came out the first of the week to take charge of the business of the bank during his absence.

On Friday of last week in the Eaglelets I made mention of the fact that there was published in the Mail Tribune what was supposed to be a list of the delinquent tax payers, etc., and stated that there was quite a number of names, and lots of property that were incorrect and suggested that Sheriff Jones and the assessor might do well to explain how it comes that there are so many errors in the list, as there was property situated in our town that was assessed to parties who have not owned property here for the last twelve years etc., and the evening after I last wrote, Wednesday, I received a very polite note from Sheriff W. A. Jones stating that he had read the aforesaid article and explained that the tax list was made up in the office of the assessor, complete, and turned over to the sheriff for collection and that he, the sheriff had nothing to do with the making out of the list, and as I do not wish to do anyone an injustice, wish to make this correction, and in talking with the Assessor Wm. Greaves, about the time the taxes were being paid I asked him how it happened that such mistakes were made, for at this time I called his attention to the fact that I was assessed with three lots that did not belong to me, and he explained that the county court had been trying to arrange a list of the present ownership of all the land in the county and that it was through means that the mixup was made, and I simply made the suggestion in the Eaglelets, being a friend to both of the present occupants, thinking that if they would make a satisfactory explanation it might help them both in their resolution.

Sam H. Harnish started Wednesday with his wife, daughter Miss Dittie and son Bobbie, for Williams Creek in Josephine county to visit Mrs. Harnish's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vrooman. Dr. Holt reports that the stork has visited the family of our old lumber dealer, Mr. Sprague—it is a girl, born September 2, and that the mother and babe are doing well.

Miss Leta Penlor of Butte Falls came out Thursday evening on the P. & E. and spent the night at the Sunny Side taking the Eagle Point-Prospect stage this Friday morning for Elk Creek where she is to teach school this fall. Heath & Diamond have had their old store building moved and placed along side of their new store building and are fixing it up for a general ware house.

Mrs. Henry Meyers phoned down last night and asked me to say to the readers of the Mail Tribune that there is a bay mare at their place near Lake Creek P. O., with mane roached and no brand and weighs about eleven hundred pounds.

Its Such a Satisfaction when you have to spend money for eye glasses to be sure that you have secured the best. I give the best; best for the eyes and best in appearance. Dr. Rickert, over Kentner's, Medford.
