

MARSHALL IN FIRST SPEECH ASKS NO VOTE

Declares That in All of His Political Career He Has Asked No Man to Vote for Him and That He Does Not Propose to Do so Now

Frank Munsey Buys Morning Paper to Help Colonel Roosevelt in New York—Teddy Talks at Ventura

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 16.—Opening his speech-making campaign in the middle west today, Governor Thomas R. Marshall, democratic vice presidential candidate spoke here today. He said in part: "Never has the black flag of piracy floated above the political seas as now; never has it been saluted with so much honor. "In all my political career, I have never asked anybody to vote for me; I do not propose to do so now. I am unfit for public office if my personal preference is more potent than the triumph of the cause I advocate. My personality is of slight moment to the voters of this country unless they believe in my party platform, and in my intent, if elected, to help carry out its pledges. I have no quarrel with the man who disagrees with me with reference to the democratic platform. He may be right, much as I doubt it. "This principle is vital; that every man in America has the right to run for office and to vote for whomsoever he chooses."

In an announcement, Munsey says: "I have bought the Press because I want it. It competes my chain of newspapers covering five big cities of the east—Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington. "It is said that the staff will remain the same with Ervin Wardman in charge.

The colonel lauded the progressive party and its leaders in California, giving a personal guarantee for their loyalty to the principles he has espoused. ## 100 PASSENGER AGENTS TO VISIT CITY TOMORROW

Over 100 general passenger agents of the United States will arrive in Medford Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock and will be guests of the city for one hour. Arrangements are being made to greet them at the depot and take them for a short drive about the city.

Owing to the fact that nearly thirty automobiles are out of the city with the scientists excursion to Crater Lake, a general call has been sent out for autos with which to show the passenger agents through the orchards. Only a few moments will be needed as the train will stop but an hour.

A. S. Rosenbaum has made arrangements to furnish a large amount of fruit to the visitors.

REBEL GENERAL SEIZES RICH MINING CAMP AND DEMANDS $100,000 FOR ITS RANSOM

Three Americans are Held as Hostages—Rebels are Guarding Bullion Worth Over $200,000—This Will Be Confiscated if Ransom is not Paid—Six American Women Held—Several Buildings Burned and Rich Loot Is Taken—American Storekeeper Is Robbed

DOUGLAS, Ariz., Sept. 16.—The rebel general, Inez Salazar, who has invested the wealthy mining camp of El Tigre, today demanded $100,000, gold, ransom for the town and its store of bullion.

He announced that he will hold as hostages, until the ransom is paid, three Americans, General Manager L. R. Burrow of the El Tigre mines; Assistant Superintendent Mishler and H. L. Nix, general manager of the El Tigre Merchandise Company.

This news was received today over long distance telephone from a point in Sonora by A. Malcolmson, a consulting engineer for the El Tigre company. Malcolmson also communicated with Kansas City interests which control the property. According to Malcolmson's message the rebels are guarding bullion worth $200,000 which has accumulated in El Tigre because of the danger of transporting it to El Paso refineries. This they say they will confiscate if the ransom is not paid.

There are six American women in El Tigre and fears are expressed that they also will be seized and held. Malcolmson's agent also stated that the rebels have burned several buildings in the center of El Tigre and taken rich loot.

Robbed by Rebels
DOUGLAS, Ariz., Sept. 16.—Robbed of $4,500 in gold which he carried in a belt beneath his clothing, Edward Haymore, an American storekeeper, who was believed to have been murdered by Rojas' rebels Saturday, staggered into Douglas early today.

Haymore declared that he was set upon by the rebels and stripped of valuables. His wagon and horses were confiscated, with the stock of his store, with which the vehicle was loaded.

Roughly handled by his captors, Haymore bore the marks of his experience. He was exhausted by the long tramp across the desert but not seriously hurt.

GIRL SHOTS AND KILLS MAN WHO HAD WRONGED HER

COLFAX, Wn., Sept. 16.—Shot to pieces by a girl wife, who declared he wronged her and aided other men to do so, A. Neeves is dead here today, and seventeen year old Mrs. Winnie Brownell and her 25 year old husband are in the hands of the police, freely admitting the killing and pleading that death alone could avenge the woman's wrongs.

Dressed as a man, Mrs. Brownell says she tramped 100 miles with her husband from their home in Cul de Sac, Idaho, to get revenge. The couple, when they decided they could not get justice in Idaho, left their two babies with Justice Stewart in Cul de Sac and started out on foot to find Neeves, who with his wife had come here on a visit to Mrs. Charles Long, Neeves' own daughter.

Brownell and wife, having no money, walked all the way. Arriving at the Long ranch, they waited until the Longs left on a visit. They observed the departure as they lay hidden in a barn on the ranch. When the coast was clear, the couple declared they entered the Long home and there shot Neeves to death, the Brownell woman firing the last of six shots into his head as he fell dying to the floor.

In the house with the Neeves, the Brownells found their two children, Samuel, 15 months, and Marie, 3 months old. The two children they took to a neighbor's house, then came to Colfax and gave themselves up.

After the arrest Mrs. Brownell talked freely of the killing.

NOGI WANTS HIS HAIR, TEETH, NAILS BURIED

TOKIO, Sept. 16.—That General Count Nogi, hero of Port Arthur, did not enter into a pact with Mrs. Nogi to commit hara kiri and that she acted on her own initiative, was made public here today by the publication of Nogi's will. It was dated the day before the suicide occurred and bequeathed practically the entire estate to Mrs. Nogi.

The will said that he long wanted to die and chose a time of national calamity as one most suitable for the deed, adding: "Japan no longer needs me."

Several small bequests are made to friends and public institutions. A unique feature of the will is a suggestion that only his teeth, hair and nails be buried and a request that his body be given to a medical college.

SCIENTISTS OFF TO CRATER LAKE ON EXCURSION

Personally Conducted by Will G. Steel Large Party Arrives on Schedule Time From Portland and Leave at Once for Lake

Machines Promised All Show Up and There is Plenty of Room for All and Some to Spare

Personally conducted by Will G. Steel of the Crater Lake company, 70 of the foremost scientists of the world arrived in Medford on schedule time this morning and left within a short time for Crater Lake by automobile. Every member of the party made the trip. There was not a hitch in the program every machine showing up on time and taking its place in line. All of the visitors found places without crowding.

The excursionists all expressed themselves as delighted with the arrangements, the weather, and the trip. The foreign members were especially loud in voicing their appreciation and kept Medford people busy bowing and doffing their hats. For the most part the foreigners spoke English, some with queer accents, but understandable nevertheless.

Mayor W. H. Cason and Olen Arnsperger in the city's car conveyed the luncheon to Prospect Sunday and report everything in readiness for the party at that place for luncheon today.

The scientists will return Wednesday from the lake, guarding their special train at 2 o'clock in order that they may get over the Siskiyou in time to view Mount Shasta before night.

Much credit is due the committee of the Commercial Club for the arrangements. Prof. P. J. O'Gara, Ben Sheldon, George Putnam and W. M. Colvig worked very hard for the success of the trip while the Pacific Motor Supply company loaded the "trouble" car with supplies and sent an expert mechanic along.

The members of the visiting party are:

American Members
Harlan H. Barrows, University of Chicago.
Isaiah Bowman, Yale university.

RAILROAD COMPANY PERFECTS ORGANIZATION; SURVEY WILL BE STARTED AT ONCE TO COAST

W. T. Gore, President; J. F. Reddy, Vice President; Charles Lebo Treasurer; Peter Steenstrup, Secretary—Subscription List is Opened—Enough Money on Hand to Make a Survey and Locate Road—Certain Financial Interests Said to Be Interested in the Scheme

Complete organization of the company that is furthering the railroad from Medford to Crescent City, was consummated Saturday at a meeting in the law offices of Lincoln McCormack. More money than had been hoped for at this time has been subscribed and the survey to the coast will be started within a few days.

Officers elected at Saturday's meeting were, directors: W. H. Gore, J. F. Reddy, W. I. Vawter, E. G. Burgess, P. S. Steenstrup, Charles Lebo and Lincoln McCormack. President, W. H. Gore; vice-president, J. F. Reddy; treasurer, Charles Lebo; secretary, P. S. Steenstrup. The executive committee is composed of Lincoln McCormack, chairman; W. H. Gore, E. G. Burgess and Charles Lebo.

These men have subscribed an amount larger than had first been planned for them, which is enough for a good start on the survey work to the coast. A subscription list for the rest will be placed at the Medford National Bank where all funds will be deposited under the control of the president and treasurer.

The present object is to run a survey and to discover where the road should go, and then estimate the cost of the road and as much of the right of way as is possible. Following that, data will be obtained as to the tonnage and probable revenue of such a railroad.

A very encouraging feature of the situation is that certain financial interests which have for some time discussed the railroad project, have expressed interest in this plan, and while they have not helped finance it as yet, will be in a receptive mood to consider facts and figures as soon as they may be presented.

JOHNSON JOYOUS, JINGLE IN JEANS JINX TO GLOOM

CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—A golden jingle in the tills of his restaurant the Cafe de Champion, furnished by morbid throngs, today has brought back the "golden smile" to Jack Johnson's face, the negro heavyweight champion of the world, whose white wife, Etta Duryea Johnson, killed herself "because she was so lonely."

"The champion is a broken and crushed man, and will never fight again," ran reports from Chicago describing Johnson's grief over his

ALLEN TAKEN BACK TO FACE TRIAL FOR LIFE

ROANOKE, Va., Sept. 16.—Announcement that the "Allens are coming" today sent a different sort of thrill through Virginia residents than which formerly accompanied such notification. Instead of barricading themselves in doors, Roanoke people flocked to the depot here to see Sidna Allen, leader of the notorious Allen clan, and his nephew, Wesley Edwards, arrive in chains from Des Moines, where they were captured Saturday.

Until they were betrayed by young Edwards' sweetheart, the two men were the only remaining free members of the Allen gang, which "shot up" the Hillsville court house, killing the judge, sheriff, and several other persons. Excitement in Roanoke is intense, but it is not from fear. With the other members of the gang arrested, it is not believed that any attempt will be made to rescue the prisoners. It is probable that the two men will be held here, the mountain roads to Hillsville being impassable because of the heavy rains.

DES MOINES, Iowa, Sept. 16.—It was reported here today that Preston Dickens, a Virginia mountaineer furnished the information which led to the arrest here of Sidna Allen and Wesley Edwards.

Upon information furnished by Allen, Dickens was arrested some time ago charged with counterfeiting. Detectives secured his parole in order to locate Allen, knowing, it is said, that Dickens would immediately set out to find Allen through revenge.

When arrested Allen's diary showed that he had spent but $4 a week for board and room, and that he had saved $300.

CAREWORN AND AGED, WIFE OF BANDIT IS BACK

Mrs. Wells Lounsberry Reaches Her Rogue River Home Showing Effect of Strain During Past Few Weeks—Will Make Home at Ranch

Federal Officials Absolutely Fail in Attempt to Connect Her With Husband's Lawless Career

Her face clearly showing the effect of the ordeal through which she has passed, and looking aged and worn, Mrs. Wells Lounsberry, wife of the Rogue River orchardist who was captured while attempting to escape after robbing a mail car on the Union Pacific at Lawrence, Kansas, and who confessed to the robbery of a train at Red Bluff last winter, returned home Monday. Mrs. Lounsberry left the train at Central Point, neighbors taking her home. Appreciating her sorrow, Mrs. Lounsberry was not troubled by newspaper men, but friends stated that she has been visiting with relatives which accounts for her delay in reaching home, which gave rise to many rumors and conjectures regarding her whereabouts.

According to late reports from Topeka the postal authorities absolutely failed in all of their attempts to connect Mrs. Lounsberry with her husband's activity in holding up trains. It is now believed that she had no knowledge of his lawless acts, believing his stories in regard to the sale of property elsewhere when he returned with money after his trips away from home.

It is stated by friends that Mrs. Lounsberry plans to make her home temporarily, at least, on the ranch. Neighbors have been caring for the place during her absence and have seen to it that the chickens and live stock did not suffer.

That Mrs. Lounsberry has suffered greatly during the past few weeks is clearly shown by her careworn appearance. The little boys have not been told of their father's deeds, and believe only, that he was hurt, while traveling.

CAR LOAD GOLD ORE IS SHIPPED

A car load of gold ore was shipped Monday from the Medford Mining & Milling company's mine near Jacksonville. This is the first car of ore to be shipped from this mine since the new manager, Mr. Henley took control. A force of twelve men are now working the mine and shipments will be made regularly. The mine was formerly known as the Norling mine and report has it that a rich vein of ore has been found. The ore was shipped from Jacksonville to Kennett, Calif.

WATKINS RANCHER KILLED BY ROLLING LOG ON SIDEHILL

J. P. Harr, a well known resident of Watkins precinct, about 25 miles southwest of Medford was crushed to death beneath a heavy log Sunday morning. He will be buried in the Jacksonville cemetery Monday afternoon.

Mr. Harr had felled a large tree on a hillside near his ranch and after cutting away the top was engaged in sawing it up into fire wood. In cutting it he loosened it from behind a stump where it had lodged and being below it was unable to escape when it suddenly started down the hill. He was crushed almost beyond recognition and died shortly afterward.

Mr. Harr was well known in this county having resided here a number of years.
