THE CRATER LAKE EXCURSION.

THE Medford Commercial Club and the Rogue River valley have reason to be highly gratified with the success of the Crater Lake excursion given the American Geographical society and their distinguished foreign guests. No accidents marred the trip, good time was made to the lake, and perfect weather prevailed. Never was next Sunday, the rejuvinated the mystic lake seen to better advantage, never were the Johnny Wilkinson will hold down his reflections clearer, never the shifting of its magic colors Horton, Medford's heavy slugging more alluring.

It is a high tribute to the public spirit of the valley after an absence of several weeks when so many of its leading citizens are willing to sacrifice Shorty Miles, who is at present on a three days of their time, and give the use of automobilesand they came from all parts of the valley—as far away as Grants Pass. It was the most ambitious attempt in its the Grants Pass team will wear Medline ever made in Oregon and probably has not been sur- ford uniforms. passed by any small community.

Co-operation was forthcoming all along the line. Many who could not go, contributed to the expenses. Merchants gave freely supplies for the entertainment. The entire population of Prospect turned out to help serve luncheon. The county court put the roads in shape. The Crater Lake company, with only limited facilities, took give clerks opportunity to take good care of the hundred odd guests.

As for the visitors, they were given an experience that will linger long in their memories. The tediousness of the Certainly Ends ride was relieved by the beauties of the tumbling Rogue and its numerous cascades, by the great trees of the primeval forest and by the geological wonderland of the park. Some came 6000 miles to see the lake—and they say "Pape's Diapepsin" Relieves Your Inthat it more than justified the long journey.
