

SOCIETY

A slight lull was experienced in social circles this week owing to the great interest taken in the Jackson County Fair and Pear show, the entire city living up to its reputation of hearty co-operation in any "boosting" affair. Among the Medford ladies assuming active duties in connection with the fair were: Mrs. J. F. Mundy, Mrs. Frank Hollis, Mrs. John Root, Mrs. V. T. Emerick, Mrs. F. E. Merrick, Mrs. H. E. Morrison, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. W. H. Canon, Mrs. H. C. Kentner, Mrs. J. F. Reddy.

The principal society events were the English-Bardwell wedding, and theater parties to "Baby Mine."

Next week will be "busy" again, invitations being out to several affairs among which will be a luncheon given at the Holland by Mrs. Lathrop Perkins for Miss Alicia Graham and Mrs. La Clare.

One of the smartest functions in the remembrance of Medford's society folk occurred Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles English, when their only daughter, Miss Bertha was united in marriage to Mr. Ralph Bardwell. Perfect harmony was displayed in every detail throughout the entire evening.

At a few minutes past eight, guests began to arrive in carriage and motor, alighting at the entrance of the canopied walk leading to the house which was literally transformed with a most attractive arrangement of ferns, potted plants, chrysanthemums and carnations. The color scheme of the living room was green and white, the dining room being in green and pale yellow.

Promptly at eight-thirty the signal for the beginning of the ceremony was announced by the opening strains of the stately Lohengrin wedding march, issuing softly from the music room.

The six bridesmaids were first to enter, carrying pink tulle and forming an aisle leading to the altar formed of palms, foliage and white candles. The remainder of the party entered as follows: Rev. William Lucas, officiating clergyman, Mr. Bardwell, attended by Mr. Earl S. Tully as best man, Miss Bess Kentner, maid of honor, the bride and Mr. English. The Episcopal ring service was employed. Saint Saens "The Swan" being played meanwhile. The benediction was followed by hosts of well wishes bestowed on the happy pair.

The bride was beautiful in a gown of white satin and lace with a veil of train length and carrying a shower bouquet of brides roses and lilies of the valley, which was afterward caught by Miss Hazel Davis. Miss Kentner wore a gown of pink crepe de chine cut en train and carried pink rosebuds and ferns. The bridesmaids Misses Hutchison, Riddell, Kentner, Ware, Merrick and Davis were attractive in sheer white lingerie dresses over pink and carrying large pink chrysanthemums.

Mrs. English wore a handsome creation of yellow chiffon over mesquite silk draped with gold lace. A delicious buffet supper followed the ceremony, the first course served in the dining room, ices, cakes and black coffee afterward passed on the veranda.

Assisting Mrs. English in receiving were Mrs. William Budge, Mrs. A. M. Carey, Mrs. C. I. Hutchison and Mrs. Luke. Mrs. Hutchison wore a gown of cream crepe meteor cut en train, Mrs. Carey black chiffon over cream charmeuse satin, Mrs. Budge a combination of cream serge and lace, Mrs. Luke, grey silk.

Miss Jean Budge gave tiny boxes filled with wedding cake to the guests as they departed. Miss Budge wore pink lingerie.

Mr. and Mrs. Bardwell left at ten thirty for Ashland going from there to San Francisco for a short wedding tour. Mrs. Bardwell's going away gown was of royal blue serge.

A profusion of handsome gifts received by the popular couple, were displayed to the guests, arranged in a special room, cut glass, hand worked linen pieces and silver were predominating. The gift of the bride's parents was a beautiful home on Oakdale avenue, just completed.
