that he offered to buy the United States senatorship and Flinn shouted: "If Pearese said I offered him that sum, he lies—that's an enormous sum."

Flinn was subjected to severe cross examination by Senator Pomerene. The latter presented an alleged contract between the late Stanley Quay and Flinn by which they were to combine their financial and political interests. Flinn admitted that the signature to this contract was his own.

"When did you change your views on the election of senators," asked Senator Pomerene.

"I just can't fix the date," answered Flinn. Here the witness asked if he had been summoned to tell about "campaign contributions or Pennsylvania's political skeletons." Flinn explained that Quay, who he said, controlled the election of Pennsylvania senators wanted him to go to Washington in 1896, in return to which he (Flinn) was to give Quay political control of Pittsburg.

Flinn said he prepared an agreement with the proviso that C. D. Magee, also of Pittsburg must sign it. The witness said he knew that Magee would not sign the agreement. Senator Pomerene interrupted the witness here.

"Do you recognize," he shouted shaking the contract in Flinn's face, "that this is about as vicious a thing as could be written."

"Yes," responded Flinn. "It had to be to get by Quay. I did not intend to sign it. I sold Quay a gold brick that's all. It is the political custom in Pennsylvania."

COUNTY CLERKS SHY OVER $10,000 ON GAME LICENSES

PORTLAND, Oct. 1.—A shortage of more than $10,761.86 in moneys that should have been paid by county clerks and county treasurers throughout the state to the state treasurer, to be applied to the game protection fund by January 1, 1912, is itemized in a statement submitted today to Governor West by State Game Warden William L. Finley.

The report states that some of the delinquent officials have used the state's money for their personal use, and that others have misplaced or destroyed stubs from which licenses were issued, so that the exact amount of the shortages cannot be determined. Of the total shortage reported, $5974 is due from license money collected by county clerks and not paid into the state treasury and $1787.86 is due from county treasurers as money paid for fines by violators of the game laws.

Suits Coming by October 10

Mr. Finley says in his report that by October 10 he will be ready to start legal action against the delinquents to collect the money due the state.

Mr. Finley calls attention to shortages in the accounts of William Reid, who was justice of the peace in Portland from 1902 until 1908. The report says examination shows that in 12 cases in Reid's court fines were imposed to the extent of nearly $300. About $130 of the amount is still due the state. The report further says that no record can be found to show that this money was ever turned over to the county treasurer.

FEEL BULLY? TAKE CASCARETS TONIGHT

A 10 Cent Box Will Keep Your Liver, Stomach and Bowels Clean, Pure and Fresh for Months

Sick headache, biliousness, dizziness, coated tongue, foul taste and foul breath—always trace them to torpid liver, delayed fermenting food in the bowels or sour, gassy stomach.

Poisonous matter clogged in the intestines, instead of being cast out of the system is re-absorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, throbbing, sickening headache.

Salts, cathartic pills, oil and purgative waters force a passageway for a day or two—but they don't take the poisons out and have no effect upon the liver or stomach.

Cascarets immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist means your head clear, stomach sweet and your liver and bowels clean and regular for months.

Don't you wish you had a photograph of your great-great grandfather? Of course you can't have, because there wasn't any photography in those days. But your great, great grandchildren can have photographs of you. And you owe something to posterity.

There's a Photographer in your town.

Racing Matinee FAIR GROUNDS TUESDAY, OCT. 8

Mr. Taylor having declined to enter King Seal, 2:13 1-4 in the free-for-all race, after having told me that he would do so, has compelled me to declare that race off, but we will have an event that may make everybody sit up and take notice if we can pull it off. As far as is known now, the other events will all go as planned. The 2:15 trot with David Harum, 2:29 1-4, and half mile record of 1:09; Lady Sunrise, 2:15 1-4, and the stallion Unmak, 2:22 1/4, will be the most exciting race ever seen here, as all three horses are so closely matched for speed that no one can pick the winner and be sure of it. The ladies' pony race will be an exciting one, too. Remember the date, Tuesday, October 8th. A. K. WARE, Manager.
