

SPEED KINGS OFF IN BIG RACE FOR VANDERBILT CUP

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 2.—DePalma wins Vanderbilt cup.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 2.—With drivers DePalma, Hughes, Mulford, Nelson, Clarke and Tetzlaff starting off in the order named, the Vanderbilt cup races began here at 11 this morning.

Farnum Fish, the aviator, aeroplaned over the course carrying Fred Wagner, a newspaper correspondent. The Associated Photographer officials were very much incensed over Fish's action, as they had purchased exclusive rights of the meet for $10,000.

Teddy Tetzlaff was forced to drop out of the race, shortly after the start, owing to trouble with his engine.

Mulford withdrew early in the race because of magneto trouble. At the fifteenth lap Tetzlaff was a lap ahead, having covered 118 miles in 95 minutes. Shortly after this Tetzlaff's engine went bad and he was forced to retire.

RALLY DAY PROVES DECIDED SUCCESS

Rally day exercises in the M. E. church Sunday school were held last Sunday morning. The large tent which is being used by the school temporarily was filled nearly to its capacity, there being just 372 pupils in attendance, besides a great number of visitors.

The printed programs, which were prepared by the superintendent, C. A. Meeker, were not only interesting and entertaining, but were decidedly unique in that they took the form of a railroad ticket.

After the imaginary train had been started and there had been music by the orchestra, songs by the passengers and a prayer by one of the trainmen, a stop was made at the primary station when Miss May Phipps, superintendent of this department, gave a splendid talk on the object and aims of this department, dwelling at length upon the necessity of early incultation of Christian principals in the mind of the child.

After this there was more singing by the passengers. This was followed by an interesting account of the success of the Home department of the Sunday school by Mrs. C. A. Meeker. This report showed that there were nearly 100 members enrolled and that spiritually it was of great help to the school and to Christian work. The members of this department are those who are unable to attend school but who have a desire to familiarize themselves with the lesson work and profit by its teaching.

Miss Mae Mordoff, who has charge of the Cradle Roll department spoke very entertainingly of the work being done among the very little members of this department. There is an enrollment of 40 in this branch of Sunday school work and includes children from infants to the age of three years, or to such an age that they may attend the school and be assigned to classes.

R. H. Bennett, teacher of the men's adult bible class spoke on the subject of Sunday school building. He likened Sunday school building work into the capable and honest constructor who starts not his work until a solid, substantial foundation is laid—the primary department. Following the solid foundation idea with words Mr. Bennett conveyed the thought of thorough and substantial work as the great Sunday school structure progressed, and applied the cap sheaf of the structure with a splendid talk on the adult bible classes and its work in life devoted to earnest and helpful Sunday school building.

Attorney H. A. Canaday spoke of the fall and winter plans for Sunday school work. In his talk he laid special stress upon the seeming lack of interest of the parents in encouraging their children's attendance at Sunday school and their lack of effort in assisting their children in the study of their lessons. His was a talk squarely and directly to the point and while some things he said may have seemed a little harsh they were nevertheless truths and in the case of many parents such a rebuke was deserved.

As a whole the day's program was one of much enjoyment and ought to be of great profit to the school. Mr. Meeker, the superintendent, is entitled to great credit in preparing so entertaining a program and to those who took part nothing but words of commendation can be said.

MANY ATTEND WATER HEARINGS

Large crowds, consisting principally of witnesses and attorneys are daily jamming the temporary courtroom in the Garnett-Corey building where James T. Chinook, superintendent of this water district is sitting as referee in the water contest cases covering Anderson creek. Eight or ten cases are to be heard this week all of them relating to Anderson creek water.

On Friday and Saturday cases which were started at Ashland last week relating to water from Neil, Bear and Ashland creeks will be completed. Next week hearings regarding Applegate water will be held at Jacksonville.

Mr. Chinook, as superintendent of this water district, sits as referee. Later with the state engineer and the superintendent of the eastern water district, he forms the state board of water control, and this board finds its decisions from the testimony taken now. These findings are filed with the circuit court to which an appeal may be taken if any of the parties are still aggrieved.

Claude Derrick, formerly of the Athletics, who has been playing with the Baltimore team, is to get another trial in the big show, this time with the New York Highlanders.

POWER TRUST INVOKES REFERENDUM ON RIVAL

PORTLAND, Oct. 2.—The Portland Railway, Light and Power company today invokes the referendum as an aid in its fight against the North Western Electric company for control of the electric power business in Portland. Some days ago the Portland city council granted a twenty-five year electric light and power franchise to the North Western Electric company.

The Portland, Railway, Light and Power company immediately circulated referendum petitions asking for a vote on the proposition and to settle the question the council set November 2 as the date on which a special election shall be held when the voters of the city will decide the question of granting the North Western Electric franchise.

LOWER RATES GIVEN INTERIOR TO COAST

SEATTLE, Oct. 2.—After a conference between representative business interests in Spokane, Tacoma and Seattle, the various railroads in the state, and the public service commission, which lasted for nearly two days, an agreement is in effect today whereby all questions of shipping rates that have existed between Spokane and coast interests have been removed. The Spokane shippers asked for a decidedly lower carload commodity rate from the coast to the interior. The agreement finally effected was a compromise rate which becomes operative in thirty days.

"Everything is Now Ready."
The tabernacle is pitched, seated, lighted, the altar rail erected and everything on the human side, thus far, is finished for an old time revival. It remains to be seen whether God will own and bless the effort put forth. For said Jesus, "without me ye can do nothing." We believe He will. We expect to see the supernatural. We expect to see people really born of God. Don't fail to be at the very first service, and then we believe you will be a regular attendant.

The tabernacle is on the corner of Fifth and Central. Services tonight at 7:30. Street meeting at 7. Services to continue till October 13th.

SUES TO FORECLOSE $15,000 MORTGAGE

Henry Mankins has begun suit in the circuit court to foreclose a mortgage held by him against the Glen-Rogue orchard company for $15,000. John M. Sweeney of Detroit is the principal stockholder of the company which purchased 1408 acres from Mankins about four years ago. It is commonly known as the Blecher place and is located 2½ miles south of Jacksonville.

Sweeney after purchasing the ranch started development work but of late is said to have neglected it. A large acreage of young trees were set out.
