DEBENGER GAP

Miss Alberta Stacy the popular young school teacher of Whiteville, attended the teachers' institute at Ashland.

Alberta Stacy and her two sisters, Flora and Desale attended the literary at Table Rock last Saturday. The report there being a nice time enjoyed by all.

Herbert Johnson of Whiteville leaves for Prospect the first of the week.

Theo Glass a prominent industrial farmer of Beagle returned to his home after spending several weeks in the Willamette valley during the threshing season, but he says he wasn't satisfied until he was back in Rogue river valley no place like old Rogue for him, he has the Rogue river fever all right.

Dr. Kirchgessner made a professional trip to Central Point Friday and was called to the same town again Saturday.

Burdette L. Dodge of the Riverside ranch has purchased him a fine gasoline threshing outfit for his own use on the place there. He said with much grain everywhere and only two machines at work if he waited for them he would have fine work about Christmas time.

There was quite an accident at the Buzzard mines last Sunday, caused by an explosion of powder, one man was hurt quite bad. Dr. Porter of Medford was sent for, he dressed the wounds, but said it was nothing serious.

School began at the Debeneger Gap district last Monday with Miss Mabel Scott as teacher.

NOTICE

The committee having charge of the American Geographical society excursion to Crater Lake desires all those who have bills against the committee to report at once.

IF YOUR CHILD NEEDS A PHYSIC

If Cross, Feverish, Tongue Coated Give "Syrup of Figs" to Clean the Stomach, Liver and Bowels

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's insides, the stomach, liver and 36 feet of bowels are clogged up with putrifying waste matter and need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When your child is listless, drooping, pale, doesn't sleep soundly or eat heartily or is cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat or is full of cold, give a teaspoonful of Syrup of Figs, and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile will gently move on and out of its little bowels without nausea, griping or weakness, and you surely will have a well, happy and smiling child again shortly.

With Syrup of Figs you are not drugging your children, being composed entirely of luscious figs, senna and aromatics it cannot be harmful, besides they dearly love its delicious taste.

Mothers should always keep Syrup of Figs handy. It is the only stomach, liver and bowel cleanser and regulator needed. A little given today will save a sick child tomorrow.

Full directions for children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the package.

Ask your druggist for the full name, "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna," prepared by the California Fig Syrup Co. This is the delicious tasting, genuine old reliable. Refuse anything else offered.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS.

(By A. C. Howlett.)

During the week that has just passed we have had such a general hubbub here, and I have had so many things to think of and attend to and have so many notes of the doings of the crowd that has been here in our usually quiet little village that I hardly know what to write first or where to begin for we have had a wonderful time here.

The encampment broke up Saturday morning although quite a number left the ground on Friday p. m. owing to the fact that the weather was so threatening and in fact it did sprinkle a little Friday. There were ninety old veterans enrolled as members of the association, and about two hundred enrolled as the wives, sons and daughters, and grandchildren of veterans of the war with Mexico, the Civil war and the war with Spain. The ages ranged from sixty-four to eighty-seven, and on the last day, Friday, a beautiful case was presented to Mr. Hoopes Edmonds, of Medford, he being the oldest member of the company. The presentation speech was made by Mr. Provan of the Tavern and Mr. Edmonds replied with a neat, appropriate speech.

The last day was set apart as Grants Pass day but there was but little done until the evening when there were some exercises and among them the accompanying poem was read, it was composed during the time of the encampment by E. E. White of Ashland, and a committee of ladies called on your correspondent, handed him the copy with the request that he would have it published in his Eaglets, and now it is up to the editor to do the rest.

But I see that I am getting the cart before the horse for I have not reported the doings of Wednesday or Thursday yet. Well Wednesday was Ashland's day and the city was well represented as there was quite a number of the citizens of Ashland and vicinity among us. The speaker of the day was Professor Vining of New York City, formerly an Ashland boy, a nephew of C. C. Beckman of Jacksonville. Mr. Vining gave us a very fine, patriotic address one that was full of good suggestions and historic incidents. At night he was also the main actor reciting several interesting comic pieces, and the exercises were interspersed with songs and recitations. The seven sisters were invited onto the stand to sing and they were encored. They sang some of our old patriotic songs that makes the old blood run with renewed activity through one's veins.

But I must stop talking about the encampment and tell something of other incidents of that day and will tell more about the doings of the camp and about the presentation of the flag to the school, etc., in my next.

Last Wednesday we had quite a representation from Medford, Clarence Roames, Mr. Kelly, Dr. Lane of Portland, Mayor Canon of Medford, Ed Pottinger and Mr. Tou Velle, candidate for county judge on the democratic ticket I suppose that they were simply escorting Dr. Lane around as he is the democratic candidate for the United States Senate.

Among the visitors at the Sunny Side last Wednesday were Mrs. Purcell and son Donald, Miss F. Newman of Jacksonville, Rev. J. Powers of Grants Pass, Rev. J. M. O'Farrell of Medford. They had been up to Mr. Sidley's to hold religious services and stopped for dinner on the way home.

Mr. and Mrs. Muldred and son of Butte Falls were also guests at the Sunny Side. They had come out to attend the association. Mr. and Mrs. Hildreth were married before the war and there was another couple, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Morris that were also married before the Civil war.

Mr. and Mrs. Cary of Talent came up to visit Wm. Knighton and wife and while here visited Mrs. Howlett. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rader, two Misses Fish and Carl Newbury, a nephew of Mrs. Rader also called dinner Thursday and so did Mrs. Mamie Hock and her sister-in-law Miss Hoefs. Miss Hoefs told Mrs. Hock that she wanted to go there and see the author of the Eaglets and Miss Haley.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Vogell in Eagle Point Sept. 26, a 7 1/2 pound boy.

But I see that I am on my fourteenth page and still have more to write but will tell that next time about Eagle Point and Medford day. By the time this is in type I expect to be on my way north to visit our daughter and to attend the Congressional conference at Hood River but will write occasionally.

FAREWELL TO CAMP MAPLES

There's a camp called Maple on Little Butte Creek. On its banks you will find in Eagle Point Town. Where the Old Boys of Blue put in a whole week. Telling stories of days that brought them renown. Oh, the beautiful moonlight that fell on the water. That went singing by right close to my tent.

Like the gay, joyous life of the Sons and the Daughters, Commingling with forms both aged and bent. Yes, those forms are of boys that saved you this nation, Gray hairs and dim eyes are their heritage now.

Yet the fire kindles quick at a thought of invasion Of a thing that might bring a frown to her brow. Now is fifty years past, but the glow in our bosom Still burns on as brightly and warm as before.

When as lads in our teens, to put down liver treason, We bid parents farewell and went to the war. That's a long time ago, but now we are happy

In the love of a nation the greatest on earth, May the Eagle Point Eagle never get nappy. Or a heart e'er forsake the land of its birth. —By E. E. White, Ashland, Ore.

LOS ANGELES LABORITES PROTEST ETTOR'S TRIAL

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 2.—Clarence S. Darrow, the noted labor attorney, who was recently acquitted of the charge of corrupting a jury in the McNamara trial and who will again be under fire shortly, will be the principal speaker tonight at a big labor gathering here, as a protest against the arrest and trials of Joseph Ettor and Arturo Giovannitti, union men, accused of murder, in Massachusetts.

NEW TODAY

A new well built house in southwest Medford, living room, dining room, large kitchen, two bedrooms, with large closets, and a fine large screened porch. Plenty of cupboards, and the upstairs can be divided into two bed rooms, hall and bath. Good lot and north front. Place has been marked down to $1,400.00.

See me about the stock ranches in the Applegate. They are well worth careful investigation. Some irrigated alfalfa, and more can be easily developed. The prices are from $37.50 to $75.00 an acre.

A 160 acre stock or general farming ranch three miles from Brownsville in the Willamette valley. Good roads and school near. Good farm buildings, 65 acres in grain and the balance in good native pasture. This is a splendid clover country. The owner will take most of the price in trade for property in the valley. Price $60.00 per acre.
